AMERICA KEEPING FINGER ON PULSE OF AILING EUROPE

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Informal and frank conversations with the officials most responsible for the conduct of the country's foreign relations today leave one with the following impressions: First, that this country has not been merely a passive spectator of developments in the European political and economic situation, but that it has been active in trying to produce a settlement among the contending powers.

Second, that this government's private advices from its emissaries in Europe, who are working with the diplomats of the countries most affected, are more illuminating than the formal press dispatches convey revelations of motives and meanings of high significance, but of such a delicate character that an exposure of them here might produce irrevocable harm.

GRATEFUL FOR AID

Third, that no matter what they may say in public for the ears of their own peoples the European statesmen and diplomats have a reasonably complete understanding of this country's position and are grateful for the aid it is rendering in an inconspicuous and unselfish fashion.

Fourth, that the crux of the European situation is bankrupt Germany.

Fifth, that a formula is now being sought whereby America can aid in a larger way in a solution of the vexed problem of German reparations without violation of the determined policy of this administration toward debt cancellation or involvement in the political affairs of Europe, which inevitably would result in America becoming a partisan of the French on one side or the British on the other in the present dispute.

Sixth, that when the President, in his message to Congress last Friday declared that he could well believe that the Pacific four-power pact "might be made a model for like assurances whenever in the world any common interests are concerned," he spoke more in an academic fashion than with the existing situation in Europe in mind.

OBSERVED MUCH GOOD

In amplification of this latter statement, it should be explained that the administration has observed so much good from the four-power pact that it believes the principle of that treaty "might be applied elsewhere without trespassing on grounds we are forbidden to enter," to quote a high authority.

Stated another way, when some of the contentious problems which now vex Europe have reached a measure of solution, it may then be time to try to bring European nations in that same sort of "understanding" that has been achieved by the four powers with the larger interests in the Pacific.

Obviously the goal is nations acting in association rather than a formal association of nations, for, as the President said in his message of the 8th inst., "We have had expressed the hostility of the American people to a supergovernment or to any commitment where either a council or an assembly of league powers may chart our course."

From another source connected with the legislative and not the executive arm of the government,

War Veteran Retires

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Col. Robert H. Noble, U.S.A., a veteran of the World War, the Spanish-American War, Mexican border service and the Indian wars, retired today upon his own application after more than forty-two years of service.

Many Killed in Blast

HAVANA, Dec. 12.—One hundred workmen were killed or injured today in a boiler explosion which wrecked the Estrella sugar mill, near Camaguey. Thirteen bodies had been recovered up to 7 o'clock this evening, and forty injured persons were being cared for in Camaguey. Most of the victims are Spaniards.

Reckless Driver Held

Patrolman E. T. Taylor of the Hollywood police division arrested a man giving the name of J. F. Perry, 1429 Hillcrest avenue, yesterday on a charge of reckless driving. Perry was arrested in the 2300 block of Cahuenga avenue, Hollywood, after he was alleged to have run into and wrecked the machine of G. T. Reed of Van Nuys.

Noted Physician Dies

NEWARK (N. J.) Dec. 12.—Dr. Miller Royal Whitnack, famous as a specialist on children's diseases and known to thousands as the "miracle man," died late today at the Presbyterian Hospital, where he had been confined for more than six weeks suffering from blood poisoning. Dr. Whitnack was born in Newark forty-eight years ago.

British Steamer Ashore

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—The British steamer Manchester Spinner is ashore on Long Island, according to a wireless call for assistance intercepted here early today. The message stated that the vessel's anchors failed to hold in the strong northwest gale. The Spinner was last reported in Boston the 5th inst., according to available records.

Typhus in Ireland

LONDON, Dec. 12.—An epidemic of typhus of a violent type is sweeping through the district of Erris, in the northwest part of the county of Mayo, and whole families have been wiped out, according to a Ballina dispatch to the Daily Express. There has been nothing like it since the time of the great Irish famine. Erris is a maritime district, singularly wild, and the nearest railroad station is fifty miles away; consequently it is almost impossible to get medical attendants.

THRACE REVOLT SPREADING

Bulgarian Troubles Held Down, But Efforts Continue; Russia Filed Protest at Lausanne

BY FRANK WILLIS
[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 11.—Dispatches from Sofia state that revolution in Thrace is becoming general. All frontier posts report fighting along the borders. A regiment of new Greek reinforcements which was embarked near Gumultjina dispersed the rebels, securing arms and supplies.

An official communique from Sofia claims the Bulgarian revolution has been suppressed, but the government is aware that the insurgents are continuing their activities.

The complicated political situation in Turkey is giving rise to an increasing number of rumors as to what is going on behind the scenes at Lausanne.

Reports reaching here state that Foreign Minister Tchitcherin, head of the Russian delegation, is conferring Ismet Pasha, the Turkish delegate, for the latter's return to Russia against whom, it is asserted, endangers the fruits of the victory in Anatolia over the Greeks, and may place a new interpretation on the long conference between M. Araloff and Raouf Bey.

A statement that Russia will not recognize any foreign dominion in Palestine and Syria is among the reports receiving credence here. It is stated that Ismet and Lord Curzon are negotiating a secret understanding on all questions before the conference based on a settlement of the Mosul question.

The Bolshevik agent here has received instructions from M. Araloff not to take over the Russian Embassy pending orders from the latter.

WILL CLOSE WILSON AND COLBY FIRM

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State in President Wilson's cabinet, announced today that his law partnership with the former President would terminate December 31, at the expiration of their co-partnership agreement. The announcement was made from the local offices of Wilson and Colby.

Beyond saying that the former President "is turning his energies once more to subjects which long have invited him," Colby made no statement as to Mr. Wilson's plans for the future.

It was announced that Colby would continue the practice of law in this city.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Bainbridge Colby's announcement is not a surprise to Washington and is regarded as an added evidence that the former President is again turning his attention to politics, particularly the fortunes of the Democratic party in 1924.

What degree of leadership Wilson may expect to assume in his party is probably known only to himself at this time and it is doubtful if even the few who are numbered among his confidants can venture to speak with more authority on the subject.

FIJI GREAT, SAYS BRIDE AFTER VISIT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—"It was a lovely trip, thrilling at times, but I am very well satisfied to get back to the United States and terra firma. I shall be happier still when I reach home in Chicago."

That is the way it feels at the end of a 45,000-mile globe-circling honeymoon voyage in a small yacht, according to Mrs. Albert Y. Gowen, the only bride in all history qualified to give an account of such a wedding journey.

The remarkable voyage which Mr. and Mrs. Gowen made around the world was finished when the Speejacks, the 98-foot boat in which they sailed from New York Aug. 21, 1921, returned to this port, tying up at the New York Yacht Club landing in East River.

LASTED A YEAR

Mrs. Gowen was the only woman passenger during the entire voyage which lasted nearly a year and four months.

Dainty, auburn-haired, modishly gowned for dinner at the Biltmore Hotel tonight, Mrs. Gowen talked interestingly of her experiences during the remarkable cruise during which she "did" the South Sea Islands in knickers. She showed pictures of herself, so arrayed among the grass-roofed huts of the Fiji Islanders.

"The most exciting and interesting part of our trip was into the interior of Fiji in the South Seas," Mrs. Gowen said, "and as I think of it now, it is one of the things that makes the prospect of home more alluring than ever."

TRIP ACROSS FIJI

That trip which was made across the largest island was made part way on foot, partly on horseback and finally by queer little dugout canoes up the Wemanboko River. A native trader, Ratu Eppelli, an Oxford graduate, whom Mrs. Gowen described as the uncrowned king of Fiji, made the journey into the interior possible by "fixing it" with the native chiefs.

"That was a trip no other white woman has made," Mrs. Gowen went on. "Memories of it—the way we were received in the queer little village of grass huts, with the chiefs awaiting us and arches of poinsettia to welcome us; the Youngonna, the insidious tara root drink, which satisfies the thirst perfectly but paralyzes the legs—it all seems wonderful and dream-like now. Like the Arabian wedding we saw at Aden on the Red Sea and what they said was the

GIANT SEAS TEARING AT GORED SHIP

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—The British tramp steamer Orteric, which went on Fish Rock, a jagged point on the California coastline seventy miles north of here in a dense fog last night, was being pounded deeper into her rocky cradle tonight by heavy ground swells and surf, while the steamer Claremont was steaming to San Francisco with fifty-four members of her crew. Twelve of the crew, including Capt. Vincent Harper, remained on board to await an appraisal of the damage to the vessel by government experts on board the Coast Guard cutter Shawnee. It is believed that they will return to San Francisco on the Shawnee.

Wireless messages sent out by the Orteric today indicated that she will be a total loss. She lies in an exposed position, and while the sea has been calm, there is apparently no likelihood that she can be pulled off. In an early wireless message today she said that attempts to tow her or drag her from the rock would be useless.

The rocks punched big holes in Nos. 1, 2 and 6 holes, while at noon today the engine room began to fill. Up to early this evening her wireless was still working, but it was a question as to how long she could continue this communication.

The Orteric was on her way from San Francisco to Eureka to load lumber for the Far East. She is a comparative new boat, having been built in England in 1919, and is in excess of 6000 tons net register.

Illinois Voters Turn Down New Constitution

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Upsetting even the fondest hopes of the opponents of the proposed new State constitution, Illinois voters today rejected that document by a majority that probably will exceed 700,000.

Opponents of the change have estimated they would win by from 100,000 to 300,000.

With Chicago and Cook county reporting complete, with complete returns from fifty-eight downstate counties, and partial returns from the other forty-three, the figures at 11 o'clock tonight gave: For the constitution, 190,781. Against it 850,044.

WOMAN HIT BY SAILORS IN AUTOMOBILE

Struck last night by an automobile driven by three sailors, Mrs. A. Buell, Gardena telephone operator, was taken to a house at 117 West One Hundred and Ninth street, seriously injured.

The three Navy men were arrested by the police of Long Beach after advices from the Sheriff's office and University Station, where it was reported that a woman had been killed. A squad of deputies from the Sheriff's office searched for the body in the vicinity of Eighty-ninth street and Moneta avenue, where the accident was reported to have happened, but failed to find it. They were later notified that Mrs. Buell had been taken to the address on One Hundred and Ninth street.

Detective Sergeant Frank Henderson, with Officers Miller and Butler, all of Long Beach, stopped a gray McFarlan car with L. E. Weite, 23; Joseph A. Pierre, 20, and Clayton Beck, 18 years old, on Long Beach Boulevard near Willowville. The men said they were members of the crew of the United States weather barge No. 30, at anchor in Los Angeles Harbor.

The men admitted having had an accident on Moneta avenue in the neighborhood of One Hundred and Ninth street, but declared they were afraid to stop after striking the person. They said they borrowed the car from an officer stationed at the Submarine Base whose name they did not know. The license number of the car, is registered to H. R. Cowan, 502 Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank Building.

The men are being held pending an investigation of their story.

Mrs. Buell was said to live in Athens and to have been telephone operator at Gardena for a short time only. She was on her way home from work when struck by the car.

SECOND NEGRO DIES AT HANDS OF MOB

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PERRY (Okla.) Dec. 12.—The second of two negroes arrested Friday in connection with the murder of Miss Ruby Hendry, schoolteacher, the previous Saturday, was lynched last night when Arthur Young was taken from officers as they were attempting to transfer him to another jail.

Charlie Wright was burned at the stake Friday night after a mob of several thousand men had taken him from the officers as they brought the two negroes into town.

RAINS POURING INTO AMERICAN AND SACRAMENTO

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12.—Rivers in this section of the State were rising rapidly tonight as a result of the storm which is sweeping over Central California. The Sacramento River had risen to 17.7 feet at 6 o'clock this evening and probably will reach twenty-five feet before the storm subsides, according to N. R. Taylor of the Federal Weather Bureau. The American River reached a height of twelve feet at Folsom late today and was rising rapidly.

Taylor said the storm in the Sacramento Valley had not reached above Red Bluff. Rain was reported in the Sierras, with snow on the higher altitudes.

Precipitation here during the last twenty-four hours measured 1.01 inches. Continued rain for the next thirty-six hours in Northern California and Nevada was predicted by Taylor.

Following is the amount of rainfall, in inches, reported from various Southern California stations up to 10 o'clock last night:

Almost continuous rain yesterday added .74 of an inch to the Los Angeles total for the season. Prediction of the Weather Bureau for today is more wet weather, the storm extending all over Southern California.

J. W. Regan, chief engineer of the flood control system, reported considerable rain early yesterday at the head of the big Tejunga. It was raining steadily at Opid's Camp yesterday, and in the headwaters of the Pacoima Canyon 1.35 inches fell. San Gabriel Canyon got half an inch.

The entire Pacific Coast seems to be included in the swirl of wetness, with Northern Idaho and Washington getting an unusual visitation of freezing weather. Mid-Western States report temperatures running to 22 below zero.

Rains which will span the Coast from the Mexican to the Oregon lines are presaged by a storm off the California Coast.

Heaviest rains have hit the northern half of the State, from San Francisco to the boundary. The Bay City was deluged, but Santa Rosa got even more, the gauge there showing 1.30 inches for the twenty-four hours.

Mountain peaks are deep in snow. From the Three Rivers country comes the report that snow covers Giant Forest to the depth of forty-one inches.

BLIZZARD SWEEPING EASTWARD

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Bitter Northwester, howling down from Canada today swept all shipping from the Great Lakes, delayed railroad traffic in the Mountain States and brought near-zero temperatures to Chicago and the whole Mississippi Valley as far South as St. Louis.

The thermometer registered 7 deg. above zero here at 8 a.m., rose a few points during the day and was rapidly declining tonight.

SHIPS TURN BACK

The gale gave Great Lakes sailors, especially on Lake Michigan, a wild night, but the dawn found all craft surely harbored. Even the giant Alabama, the stoutest of the Goodrich Transit Company's steamers, was worsted by the storm. She stuck her nose out of Muskegon Harbor for her scheduled trip to Chicago, but her captain found going too rough and turned back.

Another Chicago ship, the City of Grand Rapids, had a stiff tussle with the storm. She left Chicago last night for Holland, Mich., but the gale kicked up such a heavy sea that the steamer, sheeted with ice, was driven to shelter at Benton Harbor.

A biting cold gave Chicago its first real touch of winter, heightening suffering in the tenement sections and causing a stampede for coal.

Absence of snow enabled surface and "L" systems to give normal service, however, and the routine of city life was pretty well maintained.

Railroads in the Middle West were not seriously affected by the storm. Farther West, however, service was disorganized by drifting snow and the fierce cold. Transcontinental trains due in Chicago tomorrow and next day will be late, according to reports from the West.

WARNINGS GIVEN

Cold-wave warnings were issued for the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys and forecasters predicted the cold weather in the Northwest would spread eastward today, preceded, however, by rising temperatures. Snow is predicted for Colorado and Western Texas.

Down State towns in Illinois reported temperatures ranging from zero to four above. Elgin, Galesburg and Dixon thermometers

New German Chancellor's Attack on Industrials Has Caused Sensation in Germany

BY LARRY RUE
[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—The belief of the industrials that they had in Chancellor Cuno nothing but a figurehead to do their wishes was dispelled by the Chancellor himself today when he vigorously scored Hugo Stinnes and other industrials for their wails for not being consulted in the latest reparations proposals.

Herr Cuno's attack already has had the effect of increasing the prestige of the government among the other parties, even the respect of many industrials themselves.

SENSATIONAL ATTACK

The sensation of Cuno's attack here is appreciable when it is recalled that the Socialist leader originally characterized the Cuno cabinet as more representative of the industrials than even if Herr Stresemann, the industrial party leader, held the chancellorship.

Speaking at a meeting of the National Economy Committee, Cuno said, "no power, no force in Germany at any time is sufficiently strong to take over the State affairs from the government. Certainly we need the support of the industrials, but the government leader of the industrials must support it. Co-operation is necessary. This co-operation must find special expression in the reparation policy.

Premier Poincare's demand for all the gold in the Reichsbank, amounting to 1,000,000,000 gold marks, is considered impossible, even international experts advising against such a move. Herr Havenstein, president of the Reichsbank, repeatedly has stated that it is out of the question, as the last of the German credit will disappear.

EXPENSE OF CONTROL

The German government officially announced today that it is not able to meet the expense account submitted yesterday by the Allied military and naval commissions for 100,000,000 gold marks. The protest is made that the expenses of Allied control in Germany are exceeding 250,000,000 gold marks ($62,500,000) which was the original estimate of the but one nevertheless well informed, came today an interesting suggestion. "The situation in Europe," said this legislator, "obviously is one which calls for the establishment of some form of receivership for bankrupt Germany.

"Until that is established the question of reparations will not be settled. France proposes, in effect, a military receivership to which Great Britain will not consent. Germany naturally resists all forms of supervision, but her wishes cannot always and forever control. I imagine, however, that Germany would not resist and that the other powers would be delighted with an American assumption of authority over reparations if not over German finances. This government, as a government, cannot and should not assume any such responsibility.

"But what could be the objection if Europe asked the loan of an American or a set of Americans, eminent in finance and statecraft, that they might be brought into the situation affecting the reparations to give that unbiased and neutral leadership and direction that is so necessary?"

"And what eminent American or Americans would you suggest for the job?" was asked.

BREACH IS 'COMPLETE'

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The collapse of the Allied premiers' negotiations here, it is becoming evident, was even more complete than at first supposed, since the outstanding development which had been seized upon by the optimists, namely, the scrapping of the Balfour note by Great Britain, is now said to have been acclaimed prematurely.

Prime Minister Bonar Law admitted as much in the House of Commons this afternoon and from other sources it is learned that the haste on the part of the continental press to consider Lord Balfour's utterance as a thing of the past is unwarranted.

It is stated that Bonar Law, in talking with the other Allied premiers, only indicated that Lord Balfour's principle (refusal to consider any remission of the war debts) could be superseded as Great Britain's contribution to a general European settlement of the war debts and reparations questions, but with a definite gain for Britain in view and not merely because she wished to be generous.

The British policy is said to be centered on re-establishment of trade and commerce, stabilization of exchanges and bringing to an end the almost continuous Allied conferences and disputes over reparations and war debts. The pessimists believe that such stabilization of Europe's economic life would not be realized through Britain's cancellation of the debts due her if at the same time the French were permitted to carry out coercive measures to obtain their indemnity from Germany.

According to the official view the British are willing to make great sacrifices, but the other Allies must also sacrifice some of their interests.

Unless Great Britain sees an ultimate gain through the policy of cancellation, it is stated, the government could not carry out such a program for the British taxpayers would rebel at having to shoulder the debts without benefit.

total cost including the armies of occupation.

Serious outbreaks between Nationalists and Socialists are reported to have occurred in Wurttemburg. Following demonstrations by workers Munich sent 100 policemen to Goppingen, who attempted to disperse a meeting of 6000 persons. In the ensuing battle fifteen policemen were seriously wounded while the casualties of the Socialists are not known. In Esslingen, Geislingen and Stuttgart, Nationalist meetings were broken up by soldiers.

The Bavarian Parliamentary Commission has accepted a bill for creating the office of a state president similar to that held by President Ebert over Germany by a vote of 15 to 15.

The creation of the office is regarded by many as a preliminary move for the restoration of the old regime as the monarchists are advocating that former Crown Prince Rupprecht be invited to assume the position. Before the office is created the consent of the central government at Berlin is necessary.

Herr Grenz, a book seller and a monarchist, confessed in the criminal court today that the reason he had attempted to assassinate Maximilian Harden, author and pacifist, last July, was because the writer was planning to go to America to lecture against the monarchists' organization, which had engineered the assassination of Dr. Rathenau, Herr Erzberger and other bulwarks of the republic.

He said that monarchists of Bavaria had sent him a letter enclosing 23,000 marks, then worth $25, and asked him if he was willing to do a patriotic act. Herr Grenz replied yes, whereupon the monarchists instructed him to assassinate Herr Harden.

Herr Grenz employed a farmer named Weichert, who also is being tried, and Herr Ankermann, who escaped. Grenz employed waylaid Herr Harden before his home, Herr Ankermann hitting him on the head with a cudgel while Weichert engaged him in conversation. The blow did not strike squarely and Herr Harden fell screaming.

The arrival of several people prevented the assassins from completing the crime.

TALK OVER STRAITS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LAUSANE, Dec. 12.—Progress is being made by the experts representing Turkey and the Allies in arranging the conditions under which the Bosphorus and the Straits of Dardanelles are to be used by merchantmen and ships of war.

Russia protested against being systematically "shut out" of the straits negotiations. The soviet delegation, following today's meeting of the experts, issued a statement declaring it would address a communication to the president of the conference opposing the arbitrary procedure of the experts, the Russians deeming the procedure contrary to the rules of the conference and in violation of the conditions under which they were invited to Lausanne.

The statement issued by the Russian experts said they wished to discuss the question of demilitarization of the straits, but that the Allies told them this question exclusively concerned the Entente powers and Turkey.

The Russians insist that these two questions are inseparably linked and should be considered together; furthermore, they protest that modifications have been introduced into the project for fixing the straits regime without previously consulting them.

National Conferences to be Held Annually

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Dec. 12.—Refusal to seat Representatives of the Workers' part of America, of adoption of resolutions for future political action, which did not mention the formation of a third party, a broad program of organization and the naming of a national executive committee of twenty-one members were the results of two sessions here today of the second conference for progressive political action when adjournment was taken late today to reconvene tonight.

The question of seating four representatives of the Workers' party was quickly disposed of this morning when the credentials committee in supplemental report declared that "since the Workers' party was not in harmony with the conference its representatives be not seated." The report was adopted without debate.

PURPOSES OF CONFERENCE

The purposes of the conference, as declared in the report of the organization and finance committees, was the nomination and election of Presidents and Vice-Presidents of the United States, United States Senators, Congressmen, members of the State Legislatures and other State and public officers "who are pledged to the interests of the producing" classes and to the principles of genuine democracy in agriculture, industry and government."

Meetings of the conference are to be held annually, representation being from "every national and international organization of labor, farmers, co-operative societies, State federations of labor, legislative boards of transportation organizations, and city central bodies of labor."

Funds to defray the expenses of the conference will be a per capita tax on affiliated organizations.

It is provided that "as soon as possible" the national committee of the conference shall call conferences of "farmers' organizations, labor unions, co-operative societies and other progressive political forces, including individuals in each State, for the purpose of perfecting permanent State organizations."

STATE ORGANIZATIONS

"The State conference thus called," the report stated, "shall elect their own officers and State committee and shall organize the progressive political forces within the States for the purpose of securing the nomination and election of public officers who are in accord with the aims and objects of the conference. Each State conference shall decide on the question whether the nomination and election of credits pledged to the program of the conference of such State can best be accomplished through the primaries of the old parties or by the method of independent political action."

In debate on the organization platform it was disclosed that the conference has a debt of $11,000.

The report of the resolution committee presented late today by Edwin Keating, former Congressman from Colorado, and characterized by him embodying the best of many resolutions, presented to the committee and the "shortest political program ever presented in American politics," was adopted after prolonged debate and parliamentary difficulties.

HAS SIX PLANKS

The platform contains six planks and a resolution as follows:

"On behalf of producers and consumers, we demand:

"The repeal of the Esch-Cummins railroad law, and operation of the railroads for the benefit of the people. The public control of water power in the interest of the people.

"The direct election of the President and Vice-President by the people and extension of direct primary laws in all States.

"That Congress end the practice of the courts to declare legislation unconstitutional.

"Enactment of the Norris-Sinclair consumers and producers financing corporation bill designed to increase prices farmers receive and reduce prices consumers pay for farm products, and the creation of an independent system of food production credits.

"Increased tax rates on large incomes and inheritance and payment of a soldiers' bonus by restoring the tax on excess profits.

"Legislation providing minimum essential standards of employment for women; equality for women and men while improving existing political, social, and industrial standards, and State acton to insure maximum benefit of Federal maternity and infancy acts.

"Resolved, that the conference for progressive political action as a leading factor in securing the selection of progressive United States Senators and members of the House request such members to act as a people's bloc and to work for the people's progressive program, and that the chairman and secretary of this conference shall call such progressive members together as soon as the new Congress convenes to organize them for effective action."

Auto Wrecked by Fast Train; Worker Injured

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 12.—An automobile hurled into the air by the Los Angeles Limited this afternoon, struck and seriously injured George Avant, gatekpeer at the Palm-avenue crossing of the Union Pacific Railroad, after he had attempted to flag the train to avoid a collision.

Horticultural Inspector W. G. Corlett escaped by jumping from the machine, which was caught between the gates as he attempted to drive it across the tracks. As it was thrown to one side, the wrecked automobile hit Avant, inflicting a possible fractured skull and internal injuries.

POLA MISSES GAY DINNER

Too Ill to be Zukor's Guest and Dance With Chaplin; But Charlie's Photo Graces Dressing Table

Consolation may be found by Pola Negri these days in the fact that a picture of Charlie Chaplin adorns her dressing table. It is told that she is denied the pleasure of seeing him by an unkind fate. At least, they are not permitted to appear, except at rare intervals, at the soirees and dinners which first agitated the gossips, and made these suspect a forthcoming announcement of an engagement, which now seems imminent.

Miss Negri has been ill for the past week. The climate and atmosphere of California have depressed her, which is a natural thing for anyone who has but lately come hither from Europe. The change is recognisedly severe, as many of those who have alternated the procedure, that is by going from here to Europe, have found during the first month of their stay abroad.

LIVES ON HER NERVES

Miss Negri has been completing scenes in her picture "Bella Donna," but these have required all her strength. She has been literally living on her nerves, and for this reason has practically abandoned all social engagements.

Great pressure was brought upon her to attend an informal party given by Adolph Zukor last night at the Cocoanut Grove. It was a testimonial on his part to a small group of his friends, including Charlie Chaplin, Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Lasky. The gold plate of the Ambassador had been ordered out for the occasion, and, hearing of this, many surmised that this bright particular dinner might be seized upon as the occasion for an official proclaiming of the engagement of Mr. Chaplin and Miss Negri, as it has been rumored that the possible alliance has already received secret approval in official Lasky circles.

But, alas and alack! We shall never know what would have been forthcoming at the dinner.

WENT EARLY TO BED

Late yesterday the beautiful Pola decided that it would be "impossee-bl" for her to be present. She ordered dinner at home, instead, and went early to her rest.

The evening was gay at the Ambassador, and Mr. Zukor, and Doug and Mary and Charlie, and Mr. and Mrs. Lasky were present. Charlie cast furtive glances in the direction of the doorway, waiting, hoping, perhaps, for a telephone call, a message, which would tell that "the loveliest being," as he described her, that he had seen in Europe (and, undoubtedly, now also the loveliest in America) had changed her mind and was coming to be queen of the dance pageant of the films, even as she is queen—

FATES UNKIND!

But no matter. The fates are unkind sometimes, even to those to whom such unkindness is cruelty.

Still there are always photographs. That of Chaplin adorns the dressing table very near Pola's mirror. And that of Pola—

Well, we would hardly accuse Charlie of being so conventional as to carry it in the back of his watch.

A platinum locket, or a solid gold frame—?

BRIDE PRAISES FIJI ISLES

tomb of the Queen of Sheba and the place where Cain and Abel fought—the places where other Bible stories were laid are really beautiful to look at. That was a surprise to me, for the Bible pictures had always seemed to make the country so desolate and forbidding. Closer up the scenes are like lovely pastels. The feeling I had was not what you would describe as being pleasant or interesting.

JUST FASCINATED

"I was just fascinated. It stands out as a sensation that will last perhaps after other feelings have been forgotten—like those at being nearly wrecked on a coral reef when the propeller was put out of commission and conger eels eight feet long could be seen squirming about the clear green water, or the perils of fighting for what seemed endless hours when we got caught in a monsoon in the Indian Ocean.

"In the Solomon Islands," Mrs. Gowen explained, "you musn't eat the policemen. The practice is being discouraged as bad form where cannibalism is otherwise not entirely obsolete."

The Speejacks was damaged on a reef off the Solomon Islands, according to the log of the voyage, and by the same authority, a terrific storm was encountered in the Pacific Ocean where "whales larger than the yacht itself were sighted" and some annoyance was caused by great flights of sea birds.

"I would like to show to you the pictures of the two policemen of Feisi. That was one of the Solomon Islands we visited. Unfortunately the policemen had been eaten by two of the civilians, and we saw only the cannibals who had devoured them. There were two who were prisoners in what they called the jail at Feisi, and they explained to us that the reason those two were in jail was because they had eaten up part of the force. They were not speed cops, either.

"Another of the prisoners was one who had been put into jail for murder. It seems that he had been gambling with a neighbor and wagered and lost first his beads, nose rings, then his hut and the trees around it. Having lost all of these, he had nothing to wager except his wife. He gambled her and lost. Then the winner refused to accept the wife of the loser and this was an insult, so the husband killed the man who would not take his wife on a bet. They put him in jail for that."

Mrs. Gowen described the Solomon Islands and New Guinea as the most uncivilized part of the globe that she has visited.

BANK CHARTER APPROVED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

STATE MACHINE TRICK EXPOSED

sor to Mr. Richardson. The plans of Judge Kerrigan and Judge Houser are not known.

State offices are divided into three classes, those filled by the Governor not subject to confirmation by the State Senate and not subject to dismissal except upon impeachment; those filled by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, and those filled by the Governor and held at his pleasure.

IN HANDS OF GOVERNOR

Included in the third class and the annual salaries attached are:

Director, Department of Agriculture, $5000.

Superintendent of Banks, $10,000.

State Forester, $4000.

Building and Loan Commissioner, $3600.

Director Department of Institutions, $5000.

Board of Control, three members, $5000 each.

Legislative Counsel, $4000.

Director Department of Public Works, $10,000.

Real Estate Commissioner, $5000.

Private secretary, $5000.

The foregoing positions all are now held by Stephens appointees. In a few instances, it is understood, Mr. Richardson may retain those now in office.

WITHOUT CONFIRMATION

State offices filled by the Governor without confirmation by the Senate and salaries attached thereto include: Board of Accountancy, five members, four-year term, $5 a day; State Board of Agriculture, twelve members, four-year term, expenses; Agricultural District Board No. 2, eight members, four-year term, no compensation; Civil Service Commission, three members, four-year term, chairman, $4000, othe two, $10 a day; Board of Dental Examiners, seven members four-year term, $10 a day; Board of Education, seven members, four-year term $10 a day; Board of Embalmers, five members, four-year term, expenses; Board of Forestry, five members, expenses; Board of Health, seven members, four-year term, six members, expenses, one member-secretary, $4500; six State hospital boards of five members each, four-year terms, expenses; Industrial Accident Commission, three members, four-year term, $5000 each; Industrial Welfare Commission, five members, four-year term, $10 a day; Rail Commission, five members, six-year term, $8000; Board of Medical Examiners, ten members, four-year term, $10 a day and one secretary, $3000. In all cases here daily compensation is indicated provision is made to pay members only for actual time spent in State service.

SUBJECT TO WITHDRAWAL

Positions which Gov. Stephens can fill, subject to confirmation by the Senate and, therefore, subject to withdrawal by Gov. Richardson, include:

Prison Directors, five members, ten-year terms, expenses; Board of Charities and Corrections, six members, four-year term, expenses; Insurance Commissioner, four-year term, $6000.

Alex. McCabe, head of the State machine, has two years to serve on a four-year term. The suggestion has been made that Mr. McCabe's salary may be materially reduced by Gov. Richardson if "the boss" insists upon remaining on the State payroll. Through the efforts of the McCabe-Johnson machine the office of Insurance Commissioner was given a salary of $6000 several years ago, placing the salary in that office $1000 above the salary paid to such Constitution officers as Secretary of State, State Treasurer and State Controller.

Because of hold-over appointments, vacancies caused by death and resignations, and vacancies due to the expirations of terms of office during this month and during the first week in January, Gov. Stephens before his retirement from the gubernatorial chair has the following offices at the disposal of himself and the McCabe machine:

Board of Accountancy, five members, five to be appointed; Mendocino State Hospital Board, five members, three to be appointed; California Redwood Commission, five members, two to be appointed; Board of Managers, Napa State Hospital, five members, five to be appointed; Board of Managers, Stockton State Hospital, five members, four to be appointed; Board of Managers, Norwalk State Hospital, five members, five to be appointed; Board of Managers, California School for Girls, five members, one to be appointed; Regents, University of California, sixteen members, three to be appointed; Preston School, Board of Managers, three members, one to be appointed; Board of Managers, Whittier School, three members, two to be appointed; Land Settlement Board, four members, four to be appointed; State Board of Agriculture, twelve members, six to be appointed; Industrial Welfare Commission, five members, three to be appointed; State Board of Health, seven members, five to be appointed; State Board of Dental Examiners, seven members, seven to be appointed; State Board of Embalmers, five members, four to be appointed; State Board of Pharmacy, seven members, two to be appointed; State Board of Education, seven members, two to be appointed; State Irrigation Board, three members, three to be appointed; State Railroad Commission, one to be appointed due to vacancy caused by death of the late Harvey D. Loveland; one to be appointed through expiration of term of Stanley H. Benedict (who is expected to be reappointed;) one appointmnt, possibly two, due to anticipated resignations of members (Rowell and Martin) prior to Jan. 8, 1923; Board of Managers, Agnew State Hospital, five members, one to be appointed; California Industrial Farm for Women, Board of Managers, five members, three to be appointed; Board of Managers, Pacific Colony, three members, one to be appointed; Board of Managers, Southern California State Hospital, five members, four to be appointed; Trustees, Whittier School, three members, two to be appointed.

WOULD HIDE 'EM

In numerous minor instances, where reward is sought by the machine for clerks, secretaries and others desired on the pay roll by the machine, efforts are being made, it is said, to place such of "the faithful" as possible in nooks and crannies where the keen eye of Gov. Richardson and his economists will fail to discern them.

Due to adoption at the recent general election of the State budget bill, making the Governor responsible for appropriations to defray expenses of government and empowering the Governor to fix or reduce separate items, many jobholders placed on the pay roll by the machine may yet be reached and removed through drastic reduction or outright elimination of their salaries.

Gov.-Elect Richardson is making a careful analysis of the entire expense budget of the State and will, in keeping with his pre-election pledges, introduce a budget in the Legislature in January calling for a biennial expenditure for 1923-24 of approximately $79,000,000—$12,000,000 or more less than the biennial budget of $91,000,000 adopted at the last legislative session under Gov. Stephens.

Speculation is keen throughout the State as to whether Gov. Stephens will yield to the advice of his machine supporters and "cram" the State agencies with those selected by Boss McCabe and McCabe's henchmen, or will decline further to enmesh himself in the schemes of the politicians whose extravagance, incompetency and selfishness are held to be largely responsible for defeating his candidacy for re-election.

SEASON OF DEBATES AT HAND HERE

U.S.C. Orators Prepare for Long Schedule, Including Eastern Trip

Coach Alan Nichols of the University of Southern California announced yesterday that the debating season would open this afternoon when a practice debate will be held between two teams chosen from the whole squad.

The members chosen to represent the school this season are William Barber, Harold Berry, Victor Bone, Bernard Brennan, Harold Cameron, Victor Colburn, Clifford Davis, Dudley Hayes, Herbert Heubner, Ned Lewis, Roland Maxwell, Mont McMillan, William Moore, Willard Schurr, Franklin Sewell, Edward Sims and Clarence Wright.

The schedule is one of the longest ever attempted by a Pacific Coast college. One of the features will be a trip to the East, the teams traveling to Cornell University for a debate on March 31.

February 15—U.S.C. at Caltech.
February 16—Southern Branch at U.S.C.
February 22—U.S.C. at Willamette.
February 23—U.S.C. at Gonzaga.
March 1—Redlands at U.S.C.
March 2—Pomona at U.S.C.
March 9—Nevada at U.S.C.
March 12—U.S.C. at Utah Agricultural College.
March 15—U.S.C. at Colorado Agricultural College.
March 16—Occidental at U.S.C.
March 16—U.S.C. at Whittier.
March 20—Brigham Young at U.S.C.
March 22—U.S.C. at Arizona.
March 26—U.S.C. at Kansas.
March 27—U.S.C. at Park College.
March 31—U.S.C. at Cornell.

It is hoped that two more debates can be arranged for the return trip from the East, one with the University of Chicago and another with the University of Wisconsin.

A number of last year's men are left on the team, among these the men who defeated the California Bears a few weeks ago in a clash over the Water and Power Act.

Park Ranger Magly, who, with Mrs. Magly, guards the Big Tree groves during the winter, reports the following precipitation for November: Snow, 41.2 inches; rain, 3.64 inches. There were seventeen clear days, five partly cloudy. Over two inches of rain fell at Giant Forest on the night of the 5th inst., and on the 6th a heavy snow fell.

GENERAL DOWNPOUR

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Rain today, tonight and tomorrow, was the latest forecast of the official weather man here this evening as he hung out a bulletin saying a brand-new storm that will deluge the entire Coast from the Oregon line to Mexico is approaching over the ocean. The San Francisco Bay district got its full share of precipitation last night, with over an inch of rain.

Minor damage to bridges, culverts and broken sewers was reported this morning as a result of the deluge which was only exceeded in the district about Oroville, where 1.22 inches was recorded up to 5 o'clock, this morning.

On the word of other rain gauges up and down the State the following water seems to have fallen during the twenty-four hours ending at 5 a.m.: Eureka, .20; Red Bluff, .32; Point Reyes, .41; San Jose, .54; Fresno, three and a half drops, on the word of Lem Watts, who saw the derned things; Chico, .40; Mt. Tamalpais, 1.09 (Indian rain;) Santa Rosa, 1.30; Stockton, .96.

The directer-general of clouds and storms has made the following statement on the weather:

HEAVY SNOW

Ninety-six inches of snow was reported as covering the ground at Summit tonight, according to N. R. Taylor of the United States Weather Bureau at Sacramento. The snow was well packed and assures the farmers of the Sacramento Valley a full supply of irrigation water during 1923.

SIZE OF BREWSTER'S "BARREL" QUESTIONED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—At the request of Charles F. Murphy, counsel for Mrs. Eleanore V. V. Brewster, Justice H. E. Lewis in the Brooklyn Supreme Court today appointed Arthur Hurley, attorney of Brooklyn, to act as referee and take testimony as to the financial ability of Eugene V. Brewster, motion-picture magazine publisher to pay his wife, who is suing for a separation the $18,000 a year alimony that she asks.

Brewster who was married twice is accused by his second wife of having installed Miss Corliss Palmer a remarkably beautiful girl in their home at Roslyn.

COLD WEATHER IN MIDDLE WEST

showed zero. At Moline it was one above.

St. Louis experienced this morning a minimum of thirteen above, with a drop to ten expected tonight.

The coldest weather this winter prevailed in the western part of the Rocky Mountain region. Temperatures ranged from twelve to twenty-seven below in Wyoming and Montana, southern part of the region is predicted, will be greeted by cold wave tonight.

Apparently the center of the wave continued to Montana, as Miles City reported the lowest temperature for the night, a reading of twenty-seven degrees below zero. Other Montana points were only two or three degrees under that record.

Throughout the cold wave section reports indicated a lowering of temperature, made the cold more intense by dropping thermometer, and forecasters announced the arrival of the cold wave in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, giving those States their first wintery.

THE RAT

You hate the RAT and the RAT hates you.
It's mutual!
To the RAT you appear to be just a BIGGER RAT, bent on his slaughter.
The RAT is not half bad, just bent on getting into your larder and stealing your cheese.
A HUMAN RAT is worse. He steals your gold, your home, your wife.
There are lots of human RATS, RATS in every profession of life—bent on "putting it over" on the unwise with raw deals and oily tongue. And, they "get away with it" for a time but, in the end, they get caught like rats in a trap. Not so, the makers of the great OVERCOAT, GREATHEART, the coat with a heart and soul.
The makers are no RATS—Neither is GREATHEART.
For, in the construction, the fabric, the style of GREATHEART the makers did their utmost to get a coat on your backs that would be a credit to modern civilization.

IMPEACHERS IN WAR ON BURNS

Attack Detective's Record in Land Cases

Letters Against Sleuth in Trial Record

Labor Chiefs Hit Daugherty Through Appointee

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Sensational charges that William J. Burns, now chief of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice, packed a jury which sent a man to prison eleven years ago constituted the first evidence presented to the House Judiciary Committee today in support of the move to impeach Atty.-Gen. Daugherty.

Mr. Daugherty, it is contended, had full knowledge of the alleged conduct of Burns and therefore demonstrated his unfitness for the office of Attorney General when he appointed Burns chief investigator, according to Representative Keller, Republican, Minnesota, who introduced the impeachment resolution.

Two letters, one written by Chief Justice Taft when he was President of the United States in 1912, and the other by George W. Wickersham, when he was Attorney General in the same year, bitterly condemning the conduct of Burns in the Oregon land fraud cases, were read into the record by Jackson Ralston, attorney for Representative Keller.

BURNS ACCUSED IN LETTER

Mr. Taft in his letter branded the conduct of Burns as "the most barefaced and unfair use of the machinery for selection of a jury that had been disclosed to me in all my experience in the Federal courts" and proceeded then to grant a pardon to Willard M. Jones, who had been convicted in the Oregon land fraud cases; largely, it was alleged, as a result of Burns' activities.

Mr. Wickersham's letter recommending the pardon of Jones was an amazing narrative of the fixing of juries and the intimidation of witnesses. Investigators of the Department of Justice, sent to Oregon to investigate the charges of jury fixing and intimidation of witnesses, reported that Burns, working in conjunction with Francis J. Heney, special prosecutor for the government, reported widespread evidence of activities by Burns in connection with the selection of the jury in the Jones case.

Panels of prospective jurors were carefully investigated by Burns or his agents and each man was labeled before being selected, according to the Wickersham letter.

One prospective juror was labeled, "good man—would convict Christ." Another was indorsed as follows: "Would like to see defendant hung — a fair juror." Others not so desirable were disapproved in emphatic language. Burns was also quoted in a telegram to F. Scott Smith, in Washington as saying, "We're going to stack the cards against them this time."

The prosecution contended that Mr. Daugherty appointed Burns last year with full knowledge of the Taft and Wickersham letters. Guy H. Oyster, confidential secretary to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was placed on the witness stand to substantiate this contention. Mr. Oyster testified that he and Mr. Gompers called upon Mr. Daugherty a few days before the appointment of Burns and particularly called his attention to the Taft and Wickersham letters.

Mr. Ralston asked the committee to require the Department of Justice to produce further papers in its files which, he said, would reveal a letter written by Mr. Daugherty in which the Attorney-General admitted he knew all about the charges against Burns when he made the appointment, but expressed confidence nevertheless that Burns would make a good public servant.

WICKERSHAM TO APPEAR

Mr. Ralston asked that committee to subpoena both Chief Justice Taft and Mr. Wickersham, but after some members of the committee objected, dropped his request as to Mr. Taft. Mr. Wickersham may appear tomorrow as will also Mr. Gompers. The committee was also asked to subpoena Donald A. Richberg, Chicago attorney, who represented the railroad shopmen in the recent injunction suit, and other representatives of the railroad brotherhoods, who will present evidence of Mr. Daugherty's failure to enforce the safety-inspection laws against the railroads. They probably will be heard Thursday.

James A. Finch, pardon attorney in the Department of Justice, took the stand and told the committee that he personally had written the Wickersham letter and that Mr. Wickersham had signed it. Much of the session was taken up with wrangling over the admission of evidence and testimony. The proceedings clearly indicated that Mr. Daugherty is not lacking in defenders among the membership of the committee.

REVOLT IN THRACE SAID TO BE GROWING

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 12.—Sofia dispatches say the revolution in Thrace is becoming general. All frontier posts report hearing firing across the border. A regiment of new Greek reinforcements was ambushed near Gumidjina and dispersed.

The rebels are capturing arms and supplies. An official communique from Sofia states the Bulgarian revolution has been suppressed, but the government is aware that the bourgeoisie are continuing efforts to follow up demonstrations against the opposition party.

HARDING WON'T OPEN GATE FOR REFUGEES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Despite numerous appeals, especially by church organizations, that the Federal government take action to raise immigration bars to Armenian and Greek refugees seeking admission to this country, no action will be taken by the administration to this end, it was learned authoritatively yesterday. Congressional action, it was pointed out, would be necessary and the administration feels that this is not a matter in which it should take the initiative.

OBREGON IN EFFORT TO HALT GRAFT

Appoints Special Bureau of Health Responsible to Him Only

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 12.—President Obregon yesterday struck a decisive blow at the graft and incompetency of the government of the City of Mexico by appointing a special health bureau which will be free of all political ties.

It is stated here semiofficially the appointment of a special health bureau is an expression of the government's attitude toward graft and incompetence in the City Council, for the bureau will be responsible only to President Obregon.

The government will undertake huge projects for the improvement of the city's sanitation, street paving, water supply systems, the completing of the drainage system in the Valley of Mexico and the elimination of the city's slums which have been in existence since the early rule of the Spaniards, nearly 400 years ago.

FARMERS' AID URGED BY FEDERAL RESERVE

CONDITIONS DECLARED SO BAD THAT RELIEF IS NECESSARY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Officials of western Federal reserve banks, testifying today before the Interstate Commerce Commission, declared that financial conditions in grain-producing territories of the United States are so bad that some relief to farmers, probably in decreased railroad rates on their principal products, should be afforded. The testimony was brought out by Western State Railroad Commissions, which are urging further decreases on rates of grain, grain products and hay in all the territory west of the Mississippi and east of the Rocky Mountains.

J. E. Blair, director of the Chicago Reserve Bank; Curtis L. Mosher, assistant reserve agent at Minneapolis, and C. A. Witherspoon, deputy governor of the Kansas Bank, joined in urging the freight rate reduction. The agricultural regions of the West, they asserted, had lost more proportionately in bank deposits and in loans, and had registered a higher percentage of business failures during the last two years than industrial areas.

Says Disguised 'White' Russians Will Raid Road

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PEKING, Dec. 12.—Following an investigation of reports soviet troops were prepared to seize the Chinese Eastern Railway zone by an invasion of Manchuria, Adolph Joffe, Moscow envoy, asserted the prospective Russian raid would be made by "white" Russians disguished at Bolshevists.

He declared this move was being planned by the anti-Bolshevist forces in Manchuria for the purpose of discrediting the soviets, who are trying to negotiate an agreement giving the Bolshevist government a trade outlet over the east railway.

COMPANY FORMED TO SHIP FRUIT BY SEA

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12.—Articles of incorporation of a $10,000,000 shipping company which will carry fruit between Pacific and Atlantic ports were filed late today with Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan. Thirteen shares of the company, which is to be called the Motorship Transportation Company, have been subscribed, according to the papers, and Gen. C. A. De Val of Menlo Park, is to be the president.

EASTERN ROADS ARE CRITICISED

Partiality is Charged by Growers' Convention

Terminal Conditions Said to be Demoralizing

Use of Canal for Shipping Fruit Advocated

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12.—Analysis of the transportation difficulties which have faced the fruit and vegetable growers of California and the Pacific Coast this year and in the past, and suggestions for bringing about improvement of conditions, featured the opening day of the fifty-fifth annual convention of the fruit growers and farmers of California. The convention is being attended by delegates from Montana, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Arizona and other Western States.

Establishment of a transportation committee to look after car troubles and placing of a branch of the car-service division of the American Railway Association at some point on the Coast, were among the suggestions.

ATTACK EASTERN ROADS

Bitter attacks on the Eastern railroads because of their alleged partiality and promises not carried out, together with charges that their terminals were in a demoralized condition, were made by several speakers, several of whom advocated the use of the Panama Canal, declaring time and money would be saved the growers through the use of the water route in shipping California and Coast products to the East. Discrimination during times of emergency also was charged to the Eastern roads. Few charges were made against the principal Western railroads serving California.

J. E. Campbell, member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, attended the convention and listened with interest to a criticism of the priority system used by the commission last summer and fall. The criticism of the Interstate Commerce Commission's priority orders system was made by George H. Hecke, director of the California Department of Agriculture.

REPORT TOMORROW

The convention's transportation committee is expected to report tomorrow on what steps it finds should be taken to relieve the transportation problem.

Charles E. Virden, head of a packing company, during his address, bitterly assailed the railroads, asserting that something must be done by transportation lines or they must be operated by some one else, perhaps the Federal government, with an alternative of water shipments. Virden is chairman of the convention's committee on transportation.

"We attribute our troubles of this year to car shortage, said Virden, but was it car shortage? I'm not so sure. Our increased production has brought more troubles and if we are to ship our deciduous fruit east of Chicago, we must see that the situation in the East is cleared up.

"Seventy-five per cent of our troubles are the breaking down of the railroads east of Chicago, and the other 25 per cent is actual car shortage out here.

ROADS "PASS BUCK"

"I believe we are not going to get anywhere unless we can induce the eastern lines o give us an uninterrupted, fast service. We have found by past experience that railroads are the best little 'buck passers' in the world.

"We are to have a meeting in Chicago this winter with the heads of the railroads carrying western fruits, and thresh the thing out. We must compel the railroads east of Chicago to do something, and we must get the railroads out here to build cars."

George Ashley of Lodi criticised the transportation of the 1922 grape crop. He declared the railroads had not made good their promises, particularly the eastern lines.

OFFERS SUGGESTIONS

Ashley offered four suggestions to solve the transportation problem: More cars, a penalty for holding cars in the East, a fine for not returning them promptly and demurrage rates that would double each day, government distribution of empty refrigerator cars and "teeth" in the Interstate Commerce Commission law to enable the commission to enforce its orders, including authority to control strikes.

The railroads cannot handle the fruit crops of California, and other means of shipping to the East must be found, declared E. M. Sheehan, president of the California Grape Growers' Exchange. Sheehan declared the water route through the Panama Canal must be depended upon, and said experiments conducted by his organization had convinced him of the possibility of success of this plan.

Refrigerator ships, built upon a new plan of cool-air circulation that will do away with losses encountered because of the opening up of the cooling box type in the tropical climate of the canal, were recommended.

DAUGHTER OF COPPER KING TO WED AGAIN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12. — Miss Barbara Hazel Guggenheim, heiress to $1,000,000 of the fortune of her father, Benjamin Guggenheim, made in copper mining, and Milton S. Waldman, Yale graduate and former newspaper man of this city, announced their engagement in a letter received yesterday by Mrs. Guggenheim at the Plaza Hotel. They plan to marry next month and travel in Italy. They are in Paris, where Waldman went soon after his fiancee received a divorce last month from Sigmund Marshall Kempner, a New York banker.

Benjamin Guggenheim was lost with the Titanic ten years ago. Miss Guggenheim will receive $500,000 in three years, when she is 25 years old, the rest being held in trust under the will. Waldman, 25 years old, is of a prominent Cleveland family.

AMERICAN HELP HOPE OF ALLIES

Delay of London Session Considered Last Call for Part in Reparations

[Copyright, 1922, Public Ledger.]

PARIS, Dec. 12.—While the postponment of the conference at London to January 2 is described as a mere interruption of the Allied negotiations there are certain indications that France—acting alone or with the Allies—will consider the three weeks' delay as a final appeal to America before taking up arms in the occupation of the German industrial area.

Veiled suggestions in the press show a ray of hope that the United States has been awakened by "the Tiger's" plea and that the conventional disapproval of the United States for a military occupation might force the issue of American financial and economic intervention.

It is pointed out that the British likewise are marking time and that the attitude of Bonar Law was never more friendly.

Philippe Millet sums up the relations of France and England as "pathetic and tender." However, the cry is for action.

The Temps headed its leading article last night with a demand for immediate action and said:

"Anything which retards the common action of the Allies can only aggravate the case of Germany and the situation of Europe itself."

STANFORD PROFESSOR BEFORE GRAND JURY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Prof. James Hyde of Stanford University was before the Federal grand jury here this afternoon and is reported to have been questioned regarding an asserted conspiracy to aid the defense of Roy Wilmot, suspended prohibition agent, while the latter was on trial on charges of bribery and extortion. Wilmot was convicted and is awaiting sentence.

The jury, which also is inquiring into a perjury plot revealed during the Wilmot trial, is scheduled to meet again next Friday.

Death of Girl Self-Inflicted, Officials Find

The death of Ruth Haner, pretty young private detective, was officially declared a suicide yesterday by Herman Cline, head of the homicide squad of the police department and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Asa Kayes, who conducted the investigation.

Cline declared the girl had attempted suicide once before by slashing her wrist, and was known to have been in ill health and despondent. Unpleasant experiences she had as a detective, he said, may also have affected her. He said her sister, Mrs. W. B. Connell of 6141 Prospect Drive, was also convinced the girl had taken her own life.

Miss Haner, who was 23 years old and lived at 1225 West Sixth street, was found in her apartment Friday night with a pistol wound in the top of her head. She died at the Receiving Hospital Sunday.

LAST TRIBUTE TO WANAMAKER

Funeral of Merchant Prince Will be Tomorrow

Body to Lie in State in Church Called His

Rich and Poor, High and Low Mourn Loss

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—John Wanamaker, internationally famous merchant and former Postmaster General, died at his home here today. He was 85 years old.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Bethany Presbyterian Church, at Twenty-second and Bainbridge streets, a neighborhood once prosperous, but no longer suggestive of either beauty or wealth. In that edifice, which long has been familiarly known, both by those who worshipped there and others, as "John Wanamaker's Church," the body of the merchant prince will lie in state Thursday morning from 10 o'clock until noon. The interment will be private, in the family vault in the picturesquely situated Cemetery of St. James the Less. The Rev. A. Gordon McLennan, pastor of Bethany Church, will conduct services both in the church and at the vault.

Mr. Wanamaker had preserved himself in a remarkable manner and his active participation until a few months ago in affairs, civic, political, industrial and religious, was regarded as almost without parallel. Although he had not been in his usual vigorous health in the last year, Mr. Wanamaker was identified prominently with the movement to celebrate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence with a world exposition in 1926, having been a leader in the exposition in 1876, which marked the one hundredth anniversary of that same historic event.

The death of the great merchant came at 8 a.m., the hour which for more than half a century saw him at his place of business. The Wanamaker stores in Philadelphia and New York were closed immediately and will remain so until after the funeral.

Men prominent in all lines of endeavor joined in expressions of regret at the passing of Wanamaker, and tributes came from the high, the low, the rich and the poor, business associates and business rivals.

President Harding, Gov. Sproul, Cardinal Dougherty, Gov.-elect Pinchot and others prominent in the official and religious life of the country paid personal tributes to his life, as did many others who came into contact with his manifold activities.

Philadelphia's public schools will be closed for one session on the day of the funeral, in memory of Wanamaker, who as chairman of the finance committee of the Board of Education, did much in building up the educational system of the city. For the first time in the history of the city the flags on municipal buildings rest at half-mast in honor of a man who did not hold high public office.

LEADER IN BUSINESS

John Wanamaker led in the creation of the Department Store as an institution in American life. At the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861, when he began business for himself in a humble way in Philadelphia, retail merchandising in this country was in a disorganized state, and, in the opinion of the far-sighted young merchant, it was suffering a rapid decline through practices that were then general. Aside from his ambition to make money, "my paramount purpose," said Mr. Wanamaker, was to help save the mercantile profession from lowering its flag before other professions and occupations." There were in those days no fixed selling prices for goods. Business then demanded a thirteen-hour day from all its employees. Customers spent hours price-haggling with salesmen. Mr. Wanamaker was impressed with this waste of time and to eliminate it he became a pioneer in fixing a selling price for goods. It was one of the beginnings of many mercantile reforms which today are so generally followed that the present generation can scarcely find anywhere a trace of the old practices.

Mr. Wanamaker was 24 years old when he entered upon his career, in partnership with his brother-in-law, Nathan Brown, on a joint capital of $3500, in a clothing business at Philadelphia. He had been born in that city, July 11, 1838. His father and his father's father had been brickmakers, and John Wanamaker's first work was "turning bricks."

He was the oldest of seven children and early in his boyhood he was obliged to give up schooling and earn his own way. His first wages were $1.25 a week as an errand boy in a Philadelphia book store, and then as a young man he was employed for a time at Tower Hall, a famous old Philadelphia clothing house, where his personality and business ability were developed for his venture in business for himself. The Brown & Wanamaker store began business with a first day's sales account of $24, and ended its first year with a record of $24,000 business. Mr. Wanamaker and his brother-in-law were during their first few months of business unable to afford a horse and wagon for delivery, and Mr. Wanamaker himself pushed a two-wheel cart to deliver his goods. His partner's health failing, most of the details of the business devolved upon Mr. Wanamaker.

ESTABLISHED SYSTEM

Aside from establishing his one-price policy and making a shorter business day, Mr. Wanamaker established in the new store two systems, one of sales and the other of organization. He learned it was cheaper to manufacture some classes of goods than to buy from manufacturers and he became one of the first retailers to do this. He found it difficult to get employees who were properly instructed in their duties and he organized training schools where his workers were taught the "Wanamaker system."

Mr. Wanamaker interested himself in many civic activities. He was the first salaried Secretary in America of the Young Men's Christian Association, in 1858; one of the founders of the Christian Commission during the Civil War, and one of the organizers of the Centennial Exposition in 1876. In the latter year he began the development of his department store, establishing the house of John Wanamaker & Co. on Chestnut street, Philadelphia, and twenty years later established a similar business in New York as successor to A. T. Stewart. It is estimated that during his entire business career Mr. Wanamaker had distributed into American homes merchandise reaching nearly a billion dollars in value.

He was known as a great believer in advertising, in newspaper advertising above all other varieties. He spent millions of dollars in it.

He was always looking for better and newer ways of doing business and aside from providing conveniences for buyers and securing able management, Mr. Wanamaker paid great attention to the welfare of his employees, establishing among them many institutions for cultivating a spirit of comradeship, educating them to improve their earning capacity, providing retirement of old employees on retired pay, and creating a court of appeal chosen by employees to which any complaints could be taken.

RIVALS PAY TRIBUTE

One of the greatest tributes ever paid to an American merchant was that given to Mr. Wanamaker in the fall of 1911 on the fiftieth anniversary of his business career. Thirteen thousand of his employees from both the New York and Philadelphia stores greeted him in his Philadelphia store and presented him with the house in which he was born, and a jubilee book in which each of the thirteen thousand had written their names. A similar tribute was paid at that time in New York, where a committee representing the merchants of the United States, including 180 of his business associates and competitors, met to do him honor at a luncheon. He was presented with a handsome silver loving cup and heard his rivals laud him as a merchant prince of the country.

In political life Mr. Wanamaker was prominent as an independent Republican. In 1852 he was offered the Republican nomination as Congressman-at-large for the State of Pennsylvania, but declined it and in 1856 he declined to be an Independent candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia. He took an active part in most of the Presidential campaigns and gave a great amount of work to the Republican National Executive Committee, of which he was a member during the Harrison campaign. Upon the election of Harrison, Mr. Wanamaker was invited to enter the Cabinet, and although there was much criticism to the effect that a merchant was unfit for a Cabinet position, Mr. Wanamaker became Postmaster-General and was acknowledged later by his critics to have worked many desirable reforms in the postal system.

The religious side of Mr. Wanamaker's life was one less known to the general public than any other, but one in which he was deeply interested. Very early in life he became a member of the Rev. John Chambers's Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia. The Bethany Sunday-school, of which Mr. Wanamaker was superintendent, has 6000 members, and is said to be the largest Sunday-school in the United States. Mr. Wanamaker took particular pride in this school, as well as the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, which he also founded, and it is known that he carried about with him constantly an alphabetical index of the members of the school and brotherhood, and that, when time permitted, he studied this list to acquaint himself individually with all the members. His attendance at the Sunday-school meetings kept him on his feet almost continuously for eight hours every Sunday, for he often conducted as many as twelve meetings and made short addresses or short-time talks at all of them. Such was his Sunday work the year around for over half a century.

ESTABLISHED HOSPITAL

Other public institutions which Mr. Wanamaker established were the Presbyterian Hospital of Philadelphia, and the first penny savings bank. He also assisted in erecting the many Young Men's Christian Association buildings in various cities, and contributed toward college missionary institutions in India, China and Japan. At the outbreak of the World War he was one of the first to assist in the relief of the stricken Belgians, supplying two shiploads of food for the invaded country.

Early in his career, Mr. Wanamaker married Miss Mary B. Brown, a sister of his original partner, who co-operated with him in much of his philanthropic work. She died in August, 1920.

The second great tribute of his mercantile career was conferred upon him in 1911, to commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of his business. In a ceremony at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, he was presented with the freedom of the city, and later was the guest of honor at a luncheon attended by prominent men from all parts of the country. Among the tributes of the day were a gift and a message from the Emperor and Empress of Japan.

Wanamaker governed his life by many maxims. "Every undertaking," he once said, "is made up of the sum of past endeavors, plus ambition and the new visions."

"Business must rest upon the uncrumbling foundation of confidence in one another."

"On every road there are some young men coming on."

"Keep up the old standards, and day by day, raise them higher."

As to his own life he once said: "Thinking, trying, toiling and trusting is all of my biography."

NEW TERMINUS ARRANGED

Carrying out the informal agreement made at a conference between city officials and representatives of the residents of the Bunker Hill section, the Board of Public Utilities has asked the Los Angeles Railway Company to make application for a permit to lay a single track on First street from Olive street to Hill street so as to provide a new terminus of the First street line at First and Hill streets.

The Bunker Hill patrons of the line have long urged that a new terminus be established nearer the downtown section than the present one on Olive street between First and Second streets, and the railway company has finally agreed.

Residents of Bunker Hill and other protesting patrons of the line have been represented at the many conferences on the subject by George M. Babcock, managing director of the Business Men's Co-operative Association and Attorneys Laberere and Stimson.

-when your daughter marries

It is sometimes difficult for a wife to refuse financial aid for her husband's projects—yet such aid is often inadvisable. It may even reduce the family to straitened circumstances.

A wise way to turn over a certain amount of money or property to your daughter, at her marriage, would be to place it with this company in a Voluntary or Living Trust.

This would protect it against her own business inexperience and family importunities. It would relieve her of embarrassment, as the fund would be under our control.

Our sound and efficient management of this money or property would provide her an independent income, while the principal would be safeguarded against loss.

MAY SIDETRACK SUBSIDY BILL

Rural Credits Legislation Likely to Come First

Senator Jones Will Agree to Delay Ship Measure

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Prompt enactment of the administration shipping bill was urged in the Senate and at the White House today, but at the same time indications grew stronger that the measure might soon be laid aside by the Senate in favor of rural credits legislation.

Developments in connection with these two major pieces of legislation came thick and fast at the Senate wing of the capitol and were supplemented by the declaration at the White House that President Harding believed the merchant marine measure should be disposed of before any other legislation was taken up by the Senate. The President, it was further asserted, held the view that the country was entitled to have a decision with respect to the measure without undue delay.

RURAL CREDITS

Almost simultaneously with this declaration was the announcement by Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, in charge of the shipping bill that he would agree to lay aside his measure temporarily should advocates of rural credits legislation be able to bring before the Senate a bill in which there was a considerable degree of unanimity.

He added later in the day in the course of an extended address in behalf of the shipping bill—the opening statement for proponents of the merchant marine measure—that "there is no legislation we can pass except possibly a rural credits bill that will benefit the farmers more than this bill to afford transportation across the ocean for their products."

The announcement by Senator Jones of his willingness to lay aside temporarily the shipping bill was preceded by a series of conferences between Democratic and Republican opponents of the ship measure during which the stronger advocates of farm relief legislation in both parties were enlisted in the support of a proposal that a motion be made as soon as a rural credits bill was reported from committee, to take up the farm measure and to displace the merchant marine legislation.

LEADS OPPOSITION

Senator Fletcher of Florida, ranking Democrat on the Commerce Committee, leaders of the farm bloc, and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin and Brookhart of Iowa, Republican members of the new progressive bloc, conducted these conferences and tonight announced they had fifty-eight Senators, or considerably more than a majority to support the move.

How soon the move might be made was a question tonight, although rural credits legislation was much to the fore about the Senate throughout the day. The Banking and Currency Committee, to which most of the half-dozen or more rural credits bills have been referred, began consideration of the measures before it with the hearing of some of the proponents. Further hearings will be held tomorrow and it was indicated that it probably would be ten days or two weeks before such a measure could be reported.

The Agriculture Committee, which also is considering credit legislation, heard additional members of a delegation from the Northwestern States upon the Norris bill to establish a government-capitalized corporation to buy and sell farm products and upon the Ladd bill to stabilize prices of the major agricultural products. The witnesses strongly indorsed the Ladd bill, declaring its enactment must go hand in hand with passage of credit legislation if the farmers of the Northwest were to be benefitted.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE

Later in the day the hearings were enlivened by charges of former Representative Kelly of South Dakota that the Chicago Board of Trade had contributed $100,000 toward the organization of the American Farm Bureau Federation, one of the largest of the various farmers' associations. The witnesses accused J. R. Howard, president, and Gray Silver, legislative representative of the federation of "misrepresenting the farmers" belonging to the organization.

Rural credits legislation also was taken up again at a meeting of the Senate farm bloc tonight. Members of the bloc have been trying to agree on a definite measure, but leaders indicated that owing to differences of opinion the bloc would not go on record in support of any one bill.

Although farm credits legislation was pushed to the front the shipping bill received its share of attention. Senator Simmons, Democrat, of North Carolina, while delivering a speech in behalf of a "real farm credit bill" paused to attack the ship measure and after doing so offered as amendments the soldier's bonus bill vetoed at the last regular session of Congress by President Harding and also his own farm credits bill.

PLEA FOR SUBSIDY

Senator Jones, in his opening speech in behalf of the shipping measure, detailed the necessity as he saw it for its passage and urged members of the Senate to approach a vote upon it with fairness. His address of more than an hour was listened to with attention by Senators on both sides of the chamber.

"We cannot be certain what this legislation can accomplish," he told the Senate. "Neither is anyone sure what it will not do. Therefore, Senators, in my opinion, should be careful of their votes for thereby they may work a great injury to the nation's industries and to the nation's defense."

The Washington Senator described the shipping business as "our most infant industry" and traced the various steps taken by Great Britain in the way of discriminatory laws and subventions in building up the British merchant marine, causing the American fleet to disappear from the seas through inaction by Congress, and made a special appeal for support for the bill from Senators representing the agricultural States, declaring he believed much of the farmer opposition to the measure would be removed by a clear understanding of its provisions.

Commander of Ninth Corps to Inspect Posts

On his annual inspection tour of Southern California Army posts Maj.-Gen. Charles G. Morton, commanding the Ninth Corps area, is due at Fort MacArthur on the 15th inst. While in the south Gen. Morton will also inspect all National Guard units as well as Fort Rosecrans, coast defense of San Diego.

Fort MacArthur will probably be named as the training center and war-time station of two of the four new Coast Artillery units just authorized by Congress for the California National Guard, it was said at the port artillery post yesterday. One of the companies would be formed in this city, the other at Long Beach or Los Angeles Harbor.

BUILDING TRADES ASK WAGE INCREASE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 12.—The Building Trades Council today announced that it had asked for a general increase of 10 per cent in wages to restore the scale to the basis of 1920 when a 10 per cent cut was brought about through arbitration.

The plasterers' union scale has been fixed at $10 a day, effective January 1, the bricklayers' union scale will be $10 a day instead of $9. Other organizations of the building trades have not received approval of their proposed wage increase to date.

Where objection arises, arbitration will likely be used, according to officials of the council.

Changes Mind at "Altar;" Pays Justice for Waiting

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SOUTH BEND (Ind.) Dec. 12.—Edward Rogers got a license to marry Hazel Edwards. They went to the office of a justice of the peace, Joseph Wypinski. He was not in. Edward "wanted a cup of coffee." He went to get it but forgot to come back. The would-be bride waited. The justice came in—and waited. Today Rogers told Ben Hoerstman, marriage license clerk, that he wanted a refund on the license. He didn't get it. The justice presented his bill for waiting. It was $5. "Cheap. I changed my mind. I didn't want to do anything that I might later regret," said Edward Rogers, as he carried the worthless license out.

GAVE NOTE UNDER FEAR, HE ASSERTS

Man Declares He Was Told to Sign or be Left in Death Valley

An unusual feature to a suit on a promissory note is contained in the answer of J. J. Shore to the complaint of R. H. Vanderbush through his assignee, E. W. Bothwick, filed yesterday.

Vanderbush wants to collect $311 on a note signed by Shore April 6 last. Shore sets up the defence that he signed the note under threats of being dumped in the middle of Death Valley.

Shore says in his answer that he and Vanderbush were partners. They and others started off in Vanderbush's car through Death Valley to prospect for mines. In the middle of the valley, he asserts, he was threatened by Vanderbush that unless he signed the promissory note for money purported to be due the latter he would have to foot it through the desert.

Thus coerced and fearful for the welfare of himself and companions in the car, Shore says he signed the note. He declares he does not owe the money, and sets up a counterclaim for $71.04. Turnbull, Heffron & Kelley represent Vanderbush. C. L. Shinn is counsel for Shore.

City Charter is Adopted by Venice Board

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VENICE, Dec. 12.—The Venice Board of Trustees unanimously adopted the draft of the city charter presented them by the Board of Freeholders.

The document contained the signature of every member of the Freeholders' Board in addition to the formal indorsement of the Chamber of Commerce charter committee.

The necessary resolution of adoption was prepared by City Attorney Lyon and was unanimously carried. Lyon's letter to the board contained an outline of further steps to which the charter will move to its final adoption. These are publication, submission to the next session of Legislature and to voters at a special election. The date of the election was formally fixed for Feb. 20, 1923.

Osteopaths to be Put on County Hospital Staff

Osteopaths will be represented on the medical staff of the County Hospital. Osteopaths are now recognised under the law. Because they were not so recognised formerly, the County Hospital medical staff did not contain an osteopath.

The medical staff of the County Hospital conferred with the Board of Supervisors yesterday to take steps to have the staff represented by one or more osteopaths. A committee was appointed, three from the osteopaths and three from the regulars. These will meet and select the new osteopathic members of the medical staff. They included Dr. Percy Magan, Dr. Harlan Shoemaker, Dr. F. C. E. Mattison of the medical staff. Dr. D. O. Tasker, Dr. N. F. Sprague and Dr. D. F. Forbes of the osteopaths, with Supt. Martin of the County Hospital and Dr. N. N. Wood as exofficio members of the committee.

Jack Kearns Impressed With Jess's Condition

Tom O'Rourke Mentioned Possible Promoter

BY ED O'MALLEY

It looks almost like a certain that now that Jess Willard and Dempsey will punch away each other for the second time Jess's perseverance in seeking a other encounter with his former is about to bear fruit. The of information is consequently a talk we had with Manager Jack Kearns yesterday afternoon.

Incidentally, in speaking about the prospective match, Kearns rather eloquent about Willard's condition declaring that the fellow looked to be in excellent shape and that he really believed that Jess appeared fitter just now for a hard contest than when he met Dempsey at Toledo.

In giving his views and opinions of a probable rematch between champion and the ex-titleholder, Kearns had the following to say:

IS IN EARNEST

"I met Ray Archer, who is Willard's manager, several days ago and we had quite a talk together. I take it from Archer that Willard is dead in earnest for another match. I told Archer that I was ready to match Jack against anyone if I were guaranteed that my promoter would make the right kind of for a bout.

"Archer was sure that he could get one of the big promoters bidding to put on a Dempsey-Willard bout—so sure was he of this, that he told me he and Willard were going to make a trip to New York the middle of January to see the big promoters in the East.

TO LEAVE FRIDAY

"Willard and Archer are going to leave here Friday for a tour of the Northwest, Jess doing exhibition work. You can see that I would not care to tie up Dempsey and articles unless I was absolutely sure that the right promoter would guarantee the bout. As we hear from any of the Eastern promoters in a satisfactory manner we will go through with the match."

When would you take on Willard, in case everything was satisfactory?" we asked.

SET FOR JUNE

"Well—to be candid with you," Kearns rejoined, "I would like to see Jack meet Willard before he meets Harry Wills. I think a Willard bout would be set for June. Jack takes on Harry on Labor Day. This is

HENDERSON WILL LOSE STAR BACK

"Bullet" Baker, star halfback of the University of Southern California football team, has been ruled ineligible by the Pacific Coast Conference. The reason for this ruling was that, as Baker had played two years at Santa Clara, he was only allowed one year of football on the Trojan team.

"Gloomy Gus" Henderson maintains that Baker played one year as a prep at Santa Clara, and therefore has another year of football.

This is a serious blow to the Trojan coach, as he was planning a strong team next year with Baker acting as the nucleus about which the rest of the team was to be built.

Because of this ruling, Baker will make his last appearance on the Southern California team on New Year's Day at Pasadena, when Henderson's warriors meet the Nittany Lions.

BALL TEAMS INSURE BECAUSE OF RAINS

Joe Pironne and Doc Anderson, managers of the Pirronne All-Stars and Los Angeles White Sox, have been rained out so much recently that yesterday they decided to insure their games because of the rains. The teams were to meet last Sunday but the weather stopped their tilt.

The same teams will clash at the White Sox Park Saturday and Sunday in the final games of their series. Both struggles are expected to be hard fought and bring out a crowd.

BRENNEN TO COACH POLY CASABA FIVE

Voyle Brennen has taken over the coaching of the Polytechnic High basketball squad. Bill Haney started the task this year, but had to give it up because he could not give the time required.

Brennen has but one regular, Spencer Boelter, left from last year's quintet. Coach Brennen says he has no hopes of producing a championship team, but that he is going to prepare for the future.

ANGELUS BOWLERS WIN ANOTHER TENPIN GO

Continuing to play in its high-class style, the Angelus Academy team maintained its lead in the Mercantile League Monday night by trimming the House of Quality team, two games out of three.

The match was in the eighth round of the schedule and took place at the Angelus Academy. McKenzie was the star of the contest, bowling over 559 pins in the match.

SWIMMERS HOLD MEET AT REDONDO

Ted Comb to Put on High-Powered Feature at Club's First Appearance Tonight

The Redondo Beach Athletic Club, tonight at 8 o'clock, will put on the first big swimming event in the history of the club. Many interesting events have been scheduled, some regulation swimming events and others, concoctions of Ted Comb's fertile brain.

Fred Cady, swimming instructor of the Los Angeles Athletic Club is the principle entry having signed up all his Mercury stars. Viola Hartman, Helen Vernon, Thelma Hall and Mary Wheeler are the best of the maiden swimmers, while Stanley Moss, Rusty Williams, Johnny Kahaleanu, and Eddie Rawlings, the L.A.A.C. relay team are sure to put on some fast paddling in the men's events.

Other entries who are likely to show some fine swimmers are, the Venice Swimming Association, Ambassador, Bimini and the Redondo Swimming Clubs. All these clubs have some fast men and girls and will no doubt give the L.A.A.C. a close race for their money.

The main inducement for the various teams and swimmers will be a handsome array of cups and medals which the beach business men are putting up for the winners and near-winners of tonights events. The Redondo Chamber of Commerce and the Redondo B.P.O.E.'s both have beautiful cups to give away.

The list of events in order are as follows:

Men's 100-yard breast stroke for the Chamber of Commerce trophy; women's 50-yard dash for a book of medals; junior relay, 200 yards for the D. & D. Drug Co. trophy; women's 100-yard back stroke for medals; men's 100-yard dash for the Elks' trophy; boys' 50-yard dash for the Prescott trophy; women's 50-yard breast stroke for medals; an exhibition chain dive by the Ted Comb's Club swimmers; an exhibition 50-yard dash by Duke Kahanamoku; men's 300-yard relay race for the "Duffyland" trophy; men's 50-yard back stroke for medals, and some exhibition diving by the beach marmaids, aided by Cady's bathing beauties.

AWARD TROPHIES TO FLEET TEAMS

[By a Times Staff Correspondent.]

SAN PEDRO, Dec. 13. — The silver cup trophies awarded by the Navy Department to the rifle team in each fleet making the highest aggregate score in the fleet team matches have been presented to the U.S.S. Mississippi of the Pacific Fleet and to the U.S.S. North Dakota of the Atlantic Fleet. The highest aggregate score made in any ship's competition held during the year was made by the team representing the North Dakota. Eight members of the North Dakota's team were awarded the gold expert rifleman medal. The U.S.S. Noa won the trophy for vessels of the destroyer class and the U.S.S. Monocacy excelled among the cruisers and gunboats. It is said that the ideal firing conditions at the navy rifle range at Guantanamo, Cuba, were in part responsible for the excellent showing of the ships of the Atlantic Fleet. In view of the excellent showing of the North Dakota she was awarded the bronze trophy for individual ship excellence in small-arms practice for the entire year.

MAJORS GET LATE START

National League Officials Will Open Season Next Year on April 17

BY HUGH FULLERTON
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The National League today started its annual meeting and did little beyond deciding that the season shall be started on Tuesday, April 17. The National League made this decision after hearing the report of the schedule committee and there is nothing left but for the American League to follow suit, since the majority of the committee approves. This will bring the finish of the season up to October 5 and the next world's series probably will start on October 7.

The meeting of the National Leaguers was extremely peaceful and uninteresting, but it was evident that the National League was marking time today to watch the movements of the American Leaguers who were swarming into New York to attend their annual meeting tomorrow.

COLONEL CHIEF TOPIC

The American League leaders reached New York today and the chief subject was the decision of Col. Tillinghast Huston to sell his half of the New York Yankees. The colonel spilled the story of his plan to retire from baseball last night after he discovered that a certain newspaper was prepared to print such a story. He jumped to the front and told all his friends that it was true so as to play square with everyone—which is why he will be a loss to baseball.

Col. Huston had his choice of selling his half interest in the team to one of two outsiders or letting Col. Jake Ruppert buy it out—and Ruppert was for controlling the entire team. He probably will choose his next partner tomorrow.

The move changes the New York situation considerably. Col. Ruppert has been the strong advocate of Miller Huggins and his management, while Col. Huston has advocated a more stringent management and a sterner policy. Undoubtedly part of the dissatisfaction in the team has been due to differences of opinion between the owners.

MAJORS IN SESSION

The National and American leagues will both be in session tomorrow and during the day Judge Landis, commissioner of baseball, will hear the claims of charitable organizations that want part of the proceeds of that famous tie game in the world's series.

The subject of the draft was not mentioned in today's meeting. The major leaguers evidently intend to keep clear of the subject unless Commissioner Landis raises it in his report Thursday, and Judge Landis indicated that he would not raise the question excepting, perhaps to get an expression of opinion.

Not a deal was put over during the day, although managers of both leagues were talking trade—each wanting twice as much as the others would give. The big deal between New York, Washington and the Chicago White Sox still hung fire, although the general belief was that Chicago would get Peckinpaugh and Waite Hoyt in a triangular trade, which would give Eddie Collins to the Yankees and perhaps send an outfielder to the Yankees.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—"Commissioner Landis stands 100 per cent in my estimation." This bit of oratory was delivered by Ban Johnson, president of the American League, upon his departure today for New York, whence have come sundry yarns aiming to prove that the junior league chief has been quietly planning war on baseball's $50,000 per annum Czar.

JUST PROPAGANDA

The stories of the alleged differences between Johnson and Landis were classed as propaganda by the former, and much of it has been traced to Johnson's enemies in the big leagues. The efforts to create dissension have failed, however, for the reason that Landis has refused to place any stock in the product of the scandal-mongers.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Defeat of a modified draft proposal and several player deals marked the closing session today of the annual meeting of International League club owners.

The proposal designed as an alternative for the regular draft, which has been rejected by the international as well as four other big minor leagues, was made by Walter F. Hapgood, part owner of the Rochester club. It provided that a player who has been with a club for two years must be sold to a major league club for a minimum price of $15,000, providing he is in demand and that formal notice is filed by the club or clubs desiring to purchase him.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS MINGLE

The main event of tomorrow night's mitt program at the Los Angeles Athletic Club will bring together two of the best middleweights in Southern California. Ad Allegrini, present amateur titleholder of this division for this part of the State, and John Grella will be the principals.

Allegrini nosed out Grella in one of the most sensational ring tilts that has been fought at the Mercury institution in some time. The boys gave blow for blow throughout the entire battle and a hairline verdict was awarded Allegrini. Tomorrow evening, however, Grella hopes to even matters up and he is ready for the fight of his career.

Two classy flyweights, John Conroy and Rudy Reco, will also be on the card, which consists of eight bouts. Matchmaker George Blake arranged the program and the matches should develop some real scrapping. Conroy is after Fidel LaBarba's scalp and in order to get a crack at the little champ he has been signed to trade punches with Reco.

A fast and furious conflict is expected when Ed Hawkins tries to stop the winning streak of Joe Schlocker. Hawkins possesses a corking right hand and gameness is one of the features of his milling. Schlocker will have to step a fast pace to continue his victorious march.

Manuel Martines, Pacific Coast amateur bantamweight champion, will have a tough job on his hands when he clashes in the semi-windup bout with Joe Pimental. The latter has been doing dandy work in his recent frays and he is conceded an even chance with the champ. Another good contest should result when Charlie Jenkinson and Floyd Drake get their fists in action. Ernie Clark will be the referee, while Fane Norton and H. M. Walker will be the judges.

SALVADORE PUTS IT ON BENJAMIN

Sailor Piles Up Lead in First Three Rounds, Joe Stages Final Rally

Phil Salvadore putting up the best fight of his career won a decision last night over Joe Benjamin at Jack Doyle's pavilion. Phil to the surprise of many present made an aggressive fight all the way and resorted to little crouching. His left hand worked beautifully in the first three rounds and often found the mark. Occasionally he would shoot a right to the stomach with good effect. Joe was mostly on the receiving end in the first three rounds.

In the fourth, however, Benjamin turned loose, staging a great rally. He had much the better of the exchanges and began to out down Phil's lead but toward the end of the round Phil came back like a major, backing Joe around the ring just before the gong sounded. Joe's fine showing in the last round however could not overcome Phil's advantage in the first three rounds and Salvadore was rightfully awarded the verdict.

In the semi-windup Sailor Ritter knocked out Mack House, the colored crack of Central avenue. Both scored knock downs in the first round. In the fourth Ritter floored Mack with a right to the jaw. Mack took the count of nine. He had no sooner gotten up, however, than he was sent to the canvas again with a right to the jaw and this time he stayed there.

OXFORD RUGGERS LOSE

NEW YEAR GAME SEATS ON SALE

Tickets for the Penn State-University of Southern California game, at Pasadena on New Year's Day, will go on sale today at the B. H. Dyas Company store at the following prices: $1.65, $2.75 and $5.50. In order to guarantee satisfaction to the guests of the college, student and alumni tickets will not go on sale until next week.

Because of a flooded field the Trojan warriors were forced to be satisfied with a light signal practice yesterday afternoon. Gloomy Gus had his men out in spite of the rain in a determined effort to make the most of every day left to him. Once in suits the men indulged in a fast game of association which was about all that could be done on the field in the condition that it was in. After a few minutes of this he lined up a team. A couple rushes up the field and back was the extent of the day's workout.

STATE MEET IN LOCAL STADIUM

Big Crowd Expected to Take in Huge Affair

According to the present plans of the California Interscholastic Federation, the 1923 State track meet will be held in the new, giant Exposition Park Stadium, May 11. This was decided at the State council of the C.I.F. held in Berkeley recently.

The State meet, one of the largest prep track and field events west of Chicago, will probably be the first big athletic event to be held in the huge Los Angeles stadium. The best athletes from the four sections of California will gather here for the meet and furnish an athletic sight well worth seeing. It is expected that the event will draw a large crowd.

MAY GO EAST

Providing enough money is realized at the State meet, a team of point winners, sufficient in number to make a creditable showing, will be sent to the National Interscholastics at Stagg Field in Chicago, providing the individual schools are willing to send their students under the proper supervision.

The twelve first place winners and the winning relay team, along with other second place athletes that show sufficient brilliance, will probably make the trip. Two years ago Boyden of Vallejo High, who won but one first place in the State meet, went back to the Chicago meet and took first in the half-mile, quarter and broadjump almost winning the nationals single-handed. Last June the two Nash brothers, Kerr and Bickmore of the Huntington Beach High School, Bud Houser and Ed Shaw represented California at the Chicago affair and made a fine showing. If the C.I.F. sends out the twelve first place winners to represent California at next year's meet, the West is sure to annex enough points to bring victory.

WEAVER FOR IT

Bod Weaver, president of the local branch of the A.A.U., and Frank Wiggins, Secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, have promised the C.I.F. the support of the two bodies they are connected with. The Chamber of Commerce has lent its support to school activities in the past so there is no doubt that the organization would aid in this venture, as it would be a great boost to California.

The Western team, should it go, would probably be put under the supervision of some experienced official such as Seth Van Patten, who has handled Southern California teams in big track meets for a number of years.

WHO AND WHY IS GONZAGA?

Northern Squad Regarded in Trojans' Class

Bulldogs Do Splendid Work During Season

Former Notre Dame Star is Varsity Coach

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SPOKANE (Wash.) Dec. 11.—Gonzaga University, which this season her attained greater football prominence than ever before, next week will speed its eleven on its way to San Diego, where, on Christmas Day, the Bull Dogs will meet the formidable Mountaineers of the University of West Virginia in the annual East-West game. Gonzaga, hereabouts, is said to be in a class with the University of Southern California, by virtue of the comparative scores the Bulldogs and the Southerners made against Idaho at the same time, the Mountaineers are regarded as the strongest Eastern team to come West, having defeated Pittsburg, this years' conquerors of the nittany Lions of Penn State.

DORAIS IS COACH

Coached by Charles E. Dorais for four years, ending in 1914, the quarterback of Notre Dame, the Gonzaga team this year scored materially against every opponent, winning five of seven games as follows:

Gonzaga, 34; College of Puget Sound, 0.

Gonzaga, 7; Washington State 10.

Gonzaga, 20; Multnomah A. C., 35.

Gonzaga, 37; University of Montana, 6.

Gonzaga, 13; Montana State College, 0.

Gonzaga, 77; Wyoming, 0.

Gonzaga, 14; University of Idaho, 7.

In addition to the played games, Gonzaga was scheduled to meet St. Mary's College, but the California institution canceled the game, set for December 9, the day before the Gonzagans were scheduled to leave for the South. Since then, Dorais had received several invitations to meet other teams in California, and arrangements finally were complete for the West Virginia contest.

Mr. Dorais in 1914, his last year at Notre Dame, was selected by 75 out of 76 critics of football for All-American quarterback, one of the two failing to name him being Walter Camp. During this season, Dorais was offered coaching jobs at Idaho, Marquette and Detroit.

THE LINE-UP

The line-up of the Gonzaga team for this trip will include

TITLE CONTEST AT SAN DIEGO

Bakersfield Journeys to Southern City

Stadium to be Scene of Big Tilt Saturday

Winner Meets Berkeley for State Championship

Bakersfield High and San Diego High will meet Saturday afternoon in the Border City stadium in the semifinal game for the State Interscholastic football championship. The winner of Saturday's game meets Berkeley High, champions of the north, in the title game Saturday, the 23rd inst.

The Oil Drillers won the title in the San Joaquin Valley section by defeating Swathmore High, 23 to 0, last Saturday, while the San Diegans won the Southern California championship on the same date by trimming Gardena High, 31 to 14, at Bovard Field.

Of the two elevens Bakersfield appears to have the edge in Saturday's game. The Oil Drillers won a 35-to-7 victory over the fast Occidental freshmen and have not been defeated this year; San Diego lost to the Oxy peagreeners, 7 to 6.

Bakersfield is coached by "Goldie" Griffith and the team won the State title in 1920 and tied Berkeley for the honor last year. The Oil Drillers have a heavy team, a fast backfield and line and are a dangerous crew on the gridiron.

San Diego also has a heavy eleven and should give the Drillers a tough struggle. Galindo, quarterback for the Cavemen, is one of the most dangerous ball carriers in the South. Galindo weighs over 180 pounds, is fast and a fighter. Galindo has a lot of help on the offensive as Langford, Gamble, Bowers and Zweiner are also huge ground gainers.

BUMPER TALKS

It's a Poor Clue

There's a rumor floating around to the effect that Clara Phillips drove away from the Trasger Hotel in a car that had a pair of double bar STEWART AUTO-GUARDS on it. Six months ago that would have been a valuable clue—but not now. Then the STEWART equipped cars were few and far between—now they're legion. Someone once said that if you built a better mouse trap than the other fellow the world would wear a path to your door. He must have meant bumpers, too. The pavement between Pico and 18th on Flower is commencing to show signs of wear.

EUGENE CLARK says WHICH BATTERY STANDS UP UNDER ABUSE ? The Battery without Separators Gill

EUGENE CLARK SO. CALIF. DISTRIBUTOR 4th at Olive LOS ANGELES

University of California appears to have done its future football chances incalculable harm by refusing to play in Pasadena.

It was in Pasadena that the Bears made their country-wide reputation, and it was the lure of the belief that the Bears would continue to participate in this classic that drew many of the stars among the high-school players to California.

They recalled the experience of Brick Muller. Muller was the first and only far-western player placed on Walter Camp's All-American team. Yet had Brick not appeared at Pasadena on Jan. 1, 1920, it is unlikely that he ever would have gained a greater distinction than Camp's second or third eleven, or perhaps an honorable mention. Muller played phenomenal ball in 1919, and yet was not picked for the All-American. The January 1 game against Ohio in 1920 was really an extension of the 1919 season, but entries for the All-American had closed. So many eastern experts witnessed the California-Ohio game, and so many glowing reports of Brick's work were broadcast, that it was impossible to overlook Muller, so Camp effected a kind of compromise, placing Muller on the 1920 All-American solely, it seemed, on the strength of the game which he played on January 1 of that year.

Naturally, members of the younger generation of football players felt their surest and shortest cut to national fame was to enlist with the Bears, believing they would be the Coast representative eight years in every ten. In short, the New Year's game was their football goal, and visions of possible nation-wide fame the fabric of their boyhood dreams.

But with the Bears withdrawing, and an undercurrent of hostility toward the Pasadena classic among a certain element at California, warming the side lines at Berkeley, where there is already a redundancy of talent, figured to hold less attraction to the budding gridiron stars.

However, recent action of the Pacific Coast Conference in blacklisting the Pasadena attraction, tends to cauterize somewhat the self-inflicted wound on the Bear football hopes. All conference teams are placed on the same level in this respect. This certainly will not increase the standard of Coast football. One result may be a greater tendency on the part of high-school players to cast their lot in the East, where all football experts know All-American honors are more easily gained, as well as other recognition.

Just why this policy of isolation, and particularly this singling out of Pasadena, an organization which had done more for football on the Coast than any other factor? The new conference ruling provides for infrequent post-season and intersectional games under certain conditions—except at Pasadena. It is a situation, an attitude, which beggars comment. No wonder many eastern football men are opposed to a conference unless it confines itself solely to enforcing a uniform standard of eligibility. Beyond that, a conference would appear to lose its usefulness, and, perhaps, become a nuisance. It strikes one as a small-town exercise of new powers, needing only a pewter star to complete the picture. Perhaps Stanford was not as foolish as some seemed to think when she pulled out.

Except for the post-season games staged at Pasadena, California, Washington and Oregon never would have had more than a local reputation, and the country at large would have regarded Coast football as still in a condition of parochialism. Far-western football apparently has elected to ungird its loins and revert to the swaddling clothes of gridiron adolescence.

Boxing today is likened to four-ball billiards by Joe Choynski, veteran of many hard ring battles, and student of ring affairs for almost four decades. Rather a happy simile. Vast amount of difference in the skill required when billiards are reduced from four to three balls.

Choynski declares there is not a man in the country who knows how to box, as boxing was formerly recognized, and he doesn't except Benny Leonard, generally rated as among the best. Rather strong statement, you say, but wait.

"Leonard is a straight puncher, something you don't see so very often nowadays, but that is about the limit of his boxing skill," declared Joe. "As for heavyweights, it is hard to imagine one who knows less boxing than Carpentier. Georges has a quick start and considerable strength for his size, but that lets him out. The blow when he went down for the final count at Jersey City missed him by two feet. I can hardly conceive of a professional heavyweight who could not beat Carpentier.

"One of the fundamentals of boxing, one might say one of its rudiments, is the ability to feint an opponent, draw a lead from him, block that lead and then hit him. There is not a man in the ring today who can do that. If so, name him?"

BALL GAMES ON SUNDAY

If Jupe Pluvius will hold off towards the end of the week the Managers Association's League will be able to continue their schedule. It is hoped that by the end of the week the local diamonds will be dry enough to play on.

The main game of the week will be at Sawtelle. For two weeks this team has been trying to open their new ball park but each time they have had to postpone their game. On Sunday, at Sawtelle, the El Segundo nine will meet the Arnold-Sawyer aggregation.

At Ventura a fast game will be played when the San Pedro Merchants meet the Ventura Elks. Although not at the top of the list, the Merchants have been playing good ball and are expected to do some fine work against the Elks.

If the weather permits a record crow is expected to attend the Cox-Haas versus Huntington Beach Merchants game at Brookside Park. These two teams are an even match, and the game should be very close and full of thrills.

The Rose Room Dancers will trip the light fantastic down to Huntington Beach, there to play the Standard Oil nine. The Hammon Lumber Company will play the Shell Oil nine at Signal Hill and the Standard Murphy Club will meet the Santa Fe Reds at their own grounds.

Break Looms in Ranks of Tennis Bodies

BY NORMAN W. BAXTER

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

[Copyright, 1922, Public Ledger.]

LONDON, Dec. 12.—There is likely to be a change in relations between the English lawn tennis council and the governing body of the sport in the United States as a result of the election for the council, which resulted in the return of twenty-seven reform candidates who attacked the former make-up of the council on the ground that relations with tennis players in America were being needlessly jeopardized.

The reform ticket went so far as to elect one woman, Mrs. Lambert Chambers, to office. The principal points on which the old council was attacked were withdrawal from the Davis cup play, and refusal to have any part in the Harvard-Yale tour.

It also charged that in negotiations regarding the Wimbledon world's tournament the old council had been prejudiced and lacking in understanding.

Linemen Land Most Gridiron Captaincies

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Selection of football captains for the 1922 gridiron campaign discloses an unusual preponderence of linemen chosen as field leaders. While a number of colleges have delayed selecting new leaders, a list of thirty-eight embracing the South, East and Middle West, shows twenty-six linemen and twelve backs elected.

Among the linemen, guards were most frequently chosen, the list revealing eleven playing that position. Eight tackles, four centers and three ends captured the choice from the front-line ranks.

Only two quarter-backs were among the eleven backfield men selected, a fact which emphasizes a further dissipation of the old idea that the quarter-back should be the actual as well as the nominal field general.

Semi-pro Ball Clubs Forced to Take Vacation for Two Weeks; Hermosa Nine Reorganized

BY JOE BUSH

Semi-pro baseball has been running on one cylinder for the past two weeks due to the rain, which has been picking out Sundays to do its work. Not one Greater Southern California Baseball Association game was played last Sunday.

All of the league games which were to be played last Sunday will not be played, and the contests for this week will come off as per schedule. Most of last week's independent struggles will be held over for this Sunday.

J. C. Weinbrenner has taken over the management of the defunct Hermosa Beach Merchants, and has organized a new team and joined the Greater Southern California Baseball Association. Weinbrenner has purchased new uniforms and equipment for his club, and is starting out in fine style. The Hermosa Beach Merchants make their debut against the fast Palomar squad next Sunday.

Manager Kolby of the Norwalk club has signed Catcher Pilgram, a well-known semi-pro back stop, to his team. Pilgram is a fine receiver, a good hitter, and should strengthen the Norwalkers in their dash for the county league pennant.

Shortstop Smith is leading the Norwalk players in batting. Smith has a swat average of .400. It is Smith's hitting, along with the stellar pitching of Ray Keough, that has put the Norwalk team in second place.

Following are the standings in the county and city leagues:

WALTER MILLER IS AFTER HEINIE ENGLE

Walter Miller, former middleweight wrestling champion of the world, is so anxious to secure a return match with Heinie Engle, the Dubuque (Iowa) grappler, whom he held to a draw in their last meeting at the Los Angeles Athletic Club that he has wired him a flattering guarantee and railroad transportation from his home, according to an announcement by him last night.

Since the Mercury Club match with Miller, Engle met and was nosed out of a decision by Johnny Meyers, conqueror of Miller, and present title-holder.

Six Classy Soccer Teams to Play Sunday

Affair to be Gala Day at Washington Park

Samson Tire to Hook Up With L.A.A.C. Lads

With last Sunday's postponed soccer games deferred to the end of the first half of the season, the schedule for the coming week presents a pleasing aspect. It is likely that three games will be staged at Washington Park, the first contest starting at noon, when the Sons of St. George and the Rangers will clash. This game will be played in two half-hour periods to allow for the contest between the Samson Tire Company and the L.A.A.C., starting at 1 p.m. At 3 p.m. the L. A. United and the L. A. Scots will start their little argument.

The second and third games should satisfy the most exacting fan. They will provide the setting for the four leaders to show their class. Samson heads the list, but only by the scant margin of 2 points. The Athletic Club, L. A. United and Scots are in a three-cornered tie in second place.

That Samson will be severely tested is generally accepted. The Mercurian foot is rated by many as the equal of any in the circuit, and in their present form capable of defeating any club in the league. Their team is well knit from goal to vanguard, and in Dr. Brix they have a foraging and opportunist sharpshooter that will cause the tiremen's defense considerable trouble.

To date Murray, the Samson custodian, has only been scored against once, a remarkable record, considering the caliber of the teams who have pitted their strength against the tiremen. But Brix et al. promise to shoot holes in this record and their attempts will at least be a revelation of clever and tricky footwork.

The tilt of the United and Scots should produce some excellent soccer. The picture men may be favored to win, but it will only be after a hard-fought game. Territorially the Scots are the equal of their opponents, in goal area the United have probably the edge.

Both elevens adopt the short passing game, and each is capable of exploiting every possible opening to the limit. An action every minute game would be a safe prediction.

THREE MURPHYS TO BOX ON SAME CARD

A trio of Murphys will appear at the American Legion Hollywood arena next Friday night. Larry Murphy, the Hollywood newsie, boxes Pete Herman in the main event. Joe (Dynamite) Murphy will trade wallops with Eddie Macey in the semi-wind-up. Frankie Murphy, the third member of the fighting clan, is slated to meet Red Uhlan in the fourth bout on the card.

LION COACH TO SHIFT HIS MEN

Peters and Wentz Are New Backfield Men

Night Practice is Feature of Penn Program

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

STATE COLLEGE (Pa.) Dec. 12. The Penn State eleven brought a smile of satisfaction to the faces of the coaches this afternoon when for the first time in a month the team began to function in machine-like fashion. Scrimmaging against the strong second team, the varsity tore off touchdown after touchdown, and prospects for a victory over the University of Southern California at Pasadena on New Year's Day are far more rosy than before.

Coach Hugo Bezdek seems to have found the right combination at last, and after a season of experimenting, the wily Nittany mentor has now gathered together the strongest line-up. The best part of the whole thing is that a single player on the varsity of the present time will be lost by graduation.

Delmas Patton, new right halfback, and Barney Wentz, fullback, the new men in the backfield, seem to have brought in the punch that was needed to help the All-American Harry Wilson and the hard-flying Mike Palm. The latter is improving with every practice and it is predicted here that he will bring back recollections of Jim Thorpe Pflugfelder in the game with Indiana.

Penn ... became bitter cold here today ... and bonfires were lighted about the practice field after darkness ... in order to warm the players ... were not actively engaged in ... scrimmage. The fires, together with the huge arc lights that surround the field, enabled the coaches to continue practice long after dark. Most of the players do not go through their classes until 1 o'clock, and it begins to get dark before 5:30.

A feature of the scrimmage today was the improved showing of Bill Anderson at left end. The latter will be ready for action in the "Big Five" Frank, veteran wingman, is unable to start the Pheasant game.

CITRUS LEAGUE MUST REVISE CAGE DATES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

REDLANDS, Dec. 12.—A letter received today by A. Haven Smith, principal of Redlands High and secretary of the Citrus Belt League ... of Redlands, Riverside, ... Bernardino, Chaffey and Pomona High Schools, indicates that the basketball schedule arranged by the league will have to be revised to conform with the California Interscholastic play-offs.

The Citrus Belt League has ... two games for the first ... in March. The C.I.F. ... calls for all league games ... out of the way by March 1 ... the play-offs for the Southern California title can be started.

MOUNTAINEERS DECLINE OFFER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 12.—Athletic director H. A. Stansbury of West Virginia, whose football team will play Gonzaga University here Christmas Day, telegraphed here tonight that he had been forced to decline an offer of Andy Kerr, head coach at Stanford, for the use of Stanford's stadium for practice while the West Virginia squad is on the Pacific Coast. Stansbury said that the team would come straight to San Diego, leaving Morgantown, W. Va., next Tuesday and probably arriving here early December 22.

ANGELENOS WILL JAUNT TO TIJUANA

Special Train to Carry Turf Fans Across Border Next Sunday

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TIJUANA, Dec. 12. — A special train, which will leave Los Angeles at 8:30 in the morning and be back at the home station around 10 o'clock the same night has been ordered for next Sunday to haul Angeleno racing enthusiasts to the Tijuana track.

James B. Duffy of the Santa Fe and President J. W. Coffroth of the Tijuana Jockey Club met here today and arranged for the big train. It is probable that similar excursions will be run on each Sunday and holiday for thousands of Los Angeles sports lovers are making week-end visits to Tijuana regular events.

Sunday's features will be the Beverly Hills handicap. To get out some of the best talent now in the Tijuana stables, Coffroth has hung up a neat purse for the runners to scramble after, and plenty of other competition is in the offing in the eight additional events on the Sabbath program.

While the bulk of the Los Angeles delegation makes its appearance on Saturday and Sunday, there is always a big representation on hand daily. Most of these midweek turf enthusiasts drive down in their automobiles, and late arrivals among them declare the road to be in perfect shape and the detour around the highway work near Capistrano has been ironed out until it is far above the average country road.

TIJUANA RESULTS.

First race, five furlongs—Sherman A., 108 (Mosier), won; Big Indian, 108 (M. Fator), second; Kinsella, 108 (Dalton), third. Time, 1:04 3-5.

Second race, six furlongs—Sorbula Last, 103 (Walker), won; Admiral Forest, 108 (Ralls), second; Cajuma, 108 (D. Rice), third. Time, 1:21.

Third race, one and one-quarter yards—Ballbird, 101 (Lang), won; Little Orphan, 105 (M. Fator), second; Tessa, 108 (Singleton), third. Time, 1:31 4-5.

Fourth race, five and one-half furlongs—Kingbright, 109 (Ralls), won; Marion Hollins, 113 (Mosier), second; Commander, 107 (Prince), third. Time, 1:13.

Fifth race, five and one-half furlongs—It, 104 (Prince), won; Commander, 104 (Ralls), second; Chrome, 113 (Baker,) third. Time, 1:11 3-5.

Sixth race, five and one-half furlongs—Joe Tag, 107 (Dalton), won; Tyro Rita, 107 (M. Fator), second; Vanessa Wall, 113 (Garrett), third. Time, 1:12.

Seventh race, mile and seventy yards: Summer High, 106 (Sherman) won; Lavaga, 108 (Prince) second; Count Zeno, 113 (M. Anderson) third. Time—1:48.

MAY STAGE BIG FIGHT IN JUNE

most a certainty. Between June and September Jack would have plenty of time to get in shape again for his go with Willy.

"A July date for Willard, however, would also be acceptable. All Willard has to do is to show the public that he is in earnest and wants to fight and that he will get into good condition—then with the right kind of promoter to put the bout on, there will be no trouble about signing articles."

That the Willard-Dempsey bout is almost a surety was evidenced yesterday when Ray Archer, who is Willard's manager, received a wire from Tom O'Rourke the well-known New York boxing promoter. O'Rourke notified Archer that he had sent Jess's manager a registered letter Monday, giving full details of an offer for the big fight. O'Rourke wants to stage the bout at the Polo Grounds in New York City in May if such proposition is acceptable to Kearns. The New Yorker was positive that the Polo Grounds was the most logical place to hold the fight.

Casaba Season Opens Tonight at Hollywood

Tonight will see the opening of the basketball season for the Hollywood Athletic Club and the other teams in the local independent casaba league, when the basket shooters of the movie city club take on the champions of the Pacific Fleet, the gobs of the U.S.S. Mississippi, for the feature game of the evening, at the Horsley studio, at 8 o'clock.

The Hollywood team is an all-star aggregation, most of the players being former Los Angeles Athletic Club stars. Max Gold, former Mercury shining light, is at the head of the Hollywood team, and has Art Schaumer and Maury Rock, both former team mates at the L.A.A.C., to support him.

Los Angeles High School's court squad will clash with the Merchants' National Bank five in a preliminary game. The Pioneers have not played any other games this season, but as there are a number of stars on the team it is expected that the Money Changers will have a job on their hands to defeat them.

COACH WARNER ALTERS PLANS

Panthers Will be Given More Time to Practice

Easterners Due in Palo Alto Christmas Day

Pittsburgers to Get in Trim en Route West

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 11.—Coach Glenn Warner of the University of Pittsburg has again changed his plans for bringing the Panthers to Stanford, and by the new schedule the Easterners will arrive in Palo Alto December 23, to allow five regular days of practice before the December 30 football game with Stanford. Originally the Pitt men counted on but one day of workout before the contest with Coach Kerr's men, but on seriously considering the matter Warner has decided the stake too great to risk with but one day's local preparation.

The Panthers will swing West in their own private and specially-fitted car which will allow of more than the usual training facilities en route. The car will be sidetracked at Palo Alto on Christmas morning, and the Panthers will go on to San Francisco, and conduct three workouts at Ewing Field before trying the Stanford Stadium. On the 29th and 29th they expect to make the Stanford campus their headquarters. Immediately after the game on December 30 they will entrain for Los Angeles, and will witness the Pasadena game between Penn State and the University of Southern California teams.

Stanford's fitness for the encounter with Pittsburg will depend much on the condition of Art Wilcox, Norman Cleveland and Capt. Dud DeGroot. Wilcox has never recovered from the terrific blow on the head received when he nailed Anderson with a long dive in the battle with the Trojans. His neck is in bad shape. He played through the California game when he should not have started, and it is possible that he will be kept out of the fracas with Pitt.

Capt. DeGroot also played three quarters of the game with U.C. when he should not have been in a suit. Since that time he has walked with a cane. Cleveland has not been in the regular starting line-up, but since the first of the season he has come more and more to be depended on, and he was slated for heavy work against the Panthers. He worked against the Bears with an injured knee, and has spent considerable time in the hospital since.

In normal walks of life men would not think of taking the personal risks all three of these players will take if they enter the battle with Warner's players, but Alma Mater demands much of college footballers, entirely too much many believe on sober reflection, and when the Cardinals take the field against the Easterners, it is probable that, condition or no condition at all, all three will be present.

But with the three absent, Kerr still would not make a weak sister showing. The Card mentor has spent a full season schooling understudies for the several positions. Neither Baker nor Faville would prove a weakling at center, in DeGroot's place, and Dennis and Murray, alternating at Wilcox's position, could be counted on to keep things interesting.

With DeGroot in the line-up, the remainder of the line personnel for the Pitt game seems fairly certain. Faville and Cravens have a considerable edge for the guard positions, and Johnston and Shipkey have a lease on the tackle jobs. Jim Lawson, end, and Shorty Merts, his running mate, will hold the flanks at the start.

Woodward will start at quarter, Doughty is in fine condition to play at halfback, and Cuddeback is anxious to start at full. Wilcox or Murray will start at the other half.

Final examinations are on next week at Stanford, and as the present period is one of intense study for Stanford students, Kerr will consequently go lightly with his men until they finish the finals, after which they will engage in intensive practice until the day of the game.

WHO AND WHY IS GONZAGA?

Left end, Fishrety; left tackle, Ashmore; left guard, Grant; center, Murray; right guard, Busch; captain; right tackle, Cahoon; right end, Needles; quarterback, Pecarovich; left halfback, Stockton; right halfback, Harrity; fullback, Skeate. The substitutes are, in the line, Bohn, Smith and Cyres; ends, Dykeman and McDonald; quarterback, Sweeney; backfield, Hodges, Hunton and Bross. The team weighs an average of about 180 pounds. Of those listed, Captain Busch, Grant, Murray, Needles and Sweeney, are playing their third season under Dorais.

Gonzaga University is the largest Catholic institution of higher learning in the West. It was founded 35 years ago, and now has a registration of about 175 in its collegiate branch and about 400 in its high-school department.

Bull-Dog Drummond, by Cyril McNeile

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS INSTALLMENTS

Le Comte de Gex, international gentleman-crook, quarrels with three of the world's representative financiers and proposes to multiply their millions through an ingenious plan he has invented provided these men will supply him with the necessary working capital. They come to alternative agreements, wherein it is necessary for the Count to secure the financial support of son, Hiram C. Potts, an American shipping parvenu, before the conspiracy is a contract. Whereupon de Comte de Gex assumes the alias of Carl Peterson and removes to England, from there later to London Capt. Hugh Drummond, demobilized army officer, seeks some thrilling occupation through the columns of the newspapers, which suggests for his meeting with Phyllis Benton. Her father, the eccentric, is in some manner unknown to her, being drawn into a game of mystery and theft with two others, Lebrigton and Peterson by name, apparently against his will, but through lack of proof she can do nothing to unravel the mystery that surrounds them. Later Hugh visits Phyllis at her home in Godalming and learning that The Rhine Jack next door, besides the enemy, should be investigated. He makes a point of his place he seems Peterson and an unknown man who appears to be in a dazed and helpless condition. Lloyd George's Former Aide Refutes Statement

Says Paris Did Not Seek to Annex German Soil

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1922, Public Ledger.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—Georges Clemenceau's refutation of the Lloyd George statement concerning France's asserted desire to annex the left bank of the Rhine is upheld by Philip Kerr, former private secretary to Lloyd George, who spoke last evening at a meeting of the Contemporary Club.

The subject under discussion was, "Are We Drifting Toward Another World War?" The speakers, in addition to Mr. Kerr, were M. K. Zia Bey, whose father was Turkish Ambassador to Italy, and Arthur Bullard, editor of Our World.

VEIL LIFTED

Chief interest in the meeting centered in Mr. Kerr's lifting of the veil on the workings of the "Big Three" at the Versailles conference in 1919, at which time he was secretary to Lloyd George, then British Premier.

Clemenceau's reply to the article of Lloyd George, which appeared Friday, was made in an interview given Sunday by the "Tiger" when he was resting at Cresson, Pa.

Mr. Kerr, although refuting the Lloyd George charge concerning the desire of the French at the peace conference to annex German territory, made it plain that the letter of their wishes amounted to just such a seizure.

In referring to the Lloyd George-Clemenceau controversy, Mr. Kerr reminded his audience he was present at the conference in Paris when the treaty was being framed.

CLEMENCEAU RIGHT

"M. Clemenceau is perfectly right in that the French view was not annexation of the Rhine frontier," said Mr. Kerr. "They, the French, thought human nature would not change. France was invaded twice by Germany in fifty years. They thought it was apt to happen again unless we could make arrangements to prevent it.

"The plan they advocated was to leave the Rhenish provinces a part of German territory but to separate them politically. The French desired that in the occupied territory the control of the railroads and bridgeheads be under Allied control. The result of such an arrangement would be to provide France with a barrier which Germany would have to clear before invading again.

"They wanted the next invasion to start from the other side of the Rhine. The next time they wanted German soil invaded—not French.

TOOK SAME VIEW

"The American and British representatives took the same view. They said to the French delegates, 'There is much to be said for your view. But there is much to be considered. Remember Alsace-Lorraine. Do you think the German people would acquiesce save by force? There are 8,500,000 people to be considered.'

"Neither the British nor the Americans would accept the French militarists' view that another German invasion was absolutely inevitable. We told them that if Germany recovered sufficently at any time to make a war of revenge she would assert she was making war to recover what was taken away. We reasoned the world would say Germany was right and the world would give her sympathy instead of giving it to France.

SOUGHT GUARANTEE

"The French replied in effect: 'It is all very well for you people who have distance and the sea to protect you. We live next door. We should be given a guarantee by the United States and Great Britain that they would come to the aid of France, if invaded by Germany.'"

Admitting that he "was not an apologist for the present French policy," Mr. Kerr said he did not think it a wise one.

"But I, as a Britisher, can't throw stones," he continued, "as I don't think we have lived up to our obligations. Although France's policy is unwise in its conception she is seeking security in the only way she can get it. France says that, 'if there is another war let me fight in the position that is to the most advantage to myself.' Britain is so governed. So is the United States. In regard to the last named country let me point to the acquisition of Alaska, the Hawaiian islands and to her interference in Central American affairs. What you call 'the workings of the Monroe Doctrine, on this side is called 'imperialism' on the other.

PONTIAC FIRE CHECKED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PONTIAC (Mich.) Dec. 12.—After three hours of stubborn fighting the Pontiac fire department, aided by several Detroit fire companies, which made the twenty-five mile run here in record time, was able to extinguish a fire which today threatened the entire northeast part of the city.

Originating in the yards of the Pontiac Lumber Company, the flames, fanned by a high wind, spread to a business block adjoining which was completely destroyed. The plant of the Pontiac Packing Company was soon in flames and threatened one of the Oakland Motor Company's plants and another business block.

SPEEJACKS IS SAFE IN PORT

Tiny Craft Completes 42,000-Mile Trip Around Globe

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The wave-battered Speejacks slipped into port today after a 42,000-mile trip around the world. Aboard her were Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Gowen of Chicago, I. Jay Ingraham and a crew of five men. The tiny motorboat sailed Aug. 30, 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. Gowen went directly from the New York Yacht Club dock to the Biltmore Hotel, where they will remain until Friday afternoon, when they depart on the Twentieth Century Limited for Chicago. The Speejacks was taken to the Consolidated ship yards, Harlem River, where it will undergo repairs.

Witness Says He was Urged on to Murder

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MT. HOLLY (N. J.) Dec. 12.—Charles M. Powell declared on the witness stand today that he killed "Honest" John T. Brunen, circus owner, at the instigation of Harry C. Mohr and his sister, Mrs. Doris Brunen. Powell pictured himself as a reluctant slayer of the showman, whom he held as a good friend. He shot Brunen only after many months of chicanery on the part of Mohr.

The confessed slayer admitted that he had not named Mrs. Brunen in his first confession "because she was a lady." Justice Kalisch ruled out his testimony as to what Mohr said to Powell indicating that Mrs. Brunen was involved in the plot. The justice ruled that such testimony was not permissible unless Mrs. Brunen was present when Mohr spoke.

STAMP ISSUE ASKED FOR PONY EXPRESS

GOVERNMENT REQUESTED TO RECOGNIZE HISTORIC CELEBRATION

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Tentative plans to have the government issue a limited number of the old pony express stamps for use in the great pony express relay race planned from St. Joseph, Mo., to San Francisco by the Mark Twain Memorial Association of Nevada were drawn up here today at a meeting of civic, literary and other interest. It is planned to hold the celebration in conjunction with the proposed Portola Festival in San Francisco next year.

The relay route will follow as closely as possible the old Wells Fargo route of the early days, but there will be some deviations. Points along the route will be Hannibal, St. Joseph and Kansas City, Mo.; Topeka, Kan.; Denver, Salt Lake City and San Francisco. There will be 115 horses and twenty-five riders in the race.

According to the tentative plans considered today the pony runners may divide their forces when reaching the California line, so that one group can come into San Francisco through the Mother Lode country by way of Stockton and the other group can come through Sacramento. The old route from St. Joseph was approximately 1900 miles, but the route over which the riders will go in the celebration will be somewhat longer.

Permanent organization of a California committee to handle the State's interests in the celebration will be effected soon, it was announced at the meeting. Endeavors will then be made to organize a Missouri committee and after that a Utah-Colorado and Kansas committee.

ARIZONA EXECUTIVE WILL CLEAN HOUSE

GOV. HUNT NAMES SAME MAN FOR WARDEN AS IN FORMER TERM

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PHOENIX, Dec. 12.—Gov.-elect Hunt today announced the appointment of Robert B. Sims of Florence as superintendent of the State penitentiary at Florence, and J. J. Sanders of Prescott as superintendent of the State Industrial School at Fort Grant.

Sims was in the same position during Hunt's former administrations and carried out the Governor's ideas on prison reform and of opposition to capital punishment. Sanders was parole clerk at the prison at the same time.

Gov. Hunt has announced that he will expect the resignation of every executive appointee in Arizona and will even reconstruct the University Board of Regents, which had been thought securely out of politics, by a system of consecutive appointment.

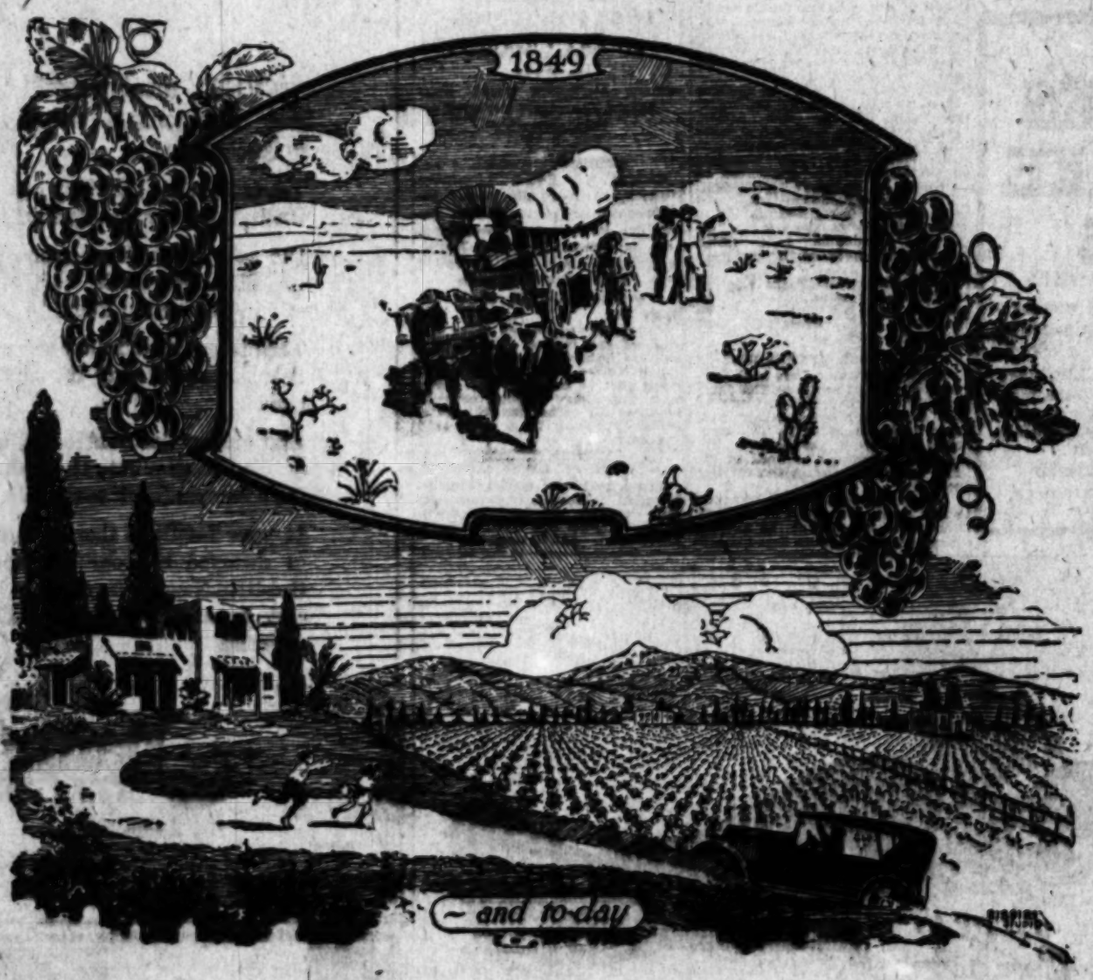
IRRIGATED VINEYARDS

NINETEEN DAYS TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR EXCEPTIONAL OFFER



From desert to garden since 1849 is the story of the wondrous transformation of Southern California. The great Fontana transformation has occurred during the past seventeen years—and to-day—the Fontana Farms Company invites your inspection and investment consideration of undoubtedly the most highly developed and improved irrigated vineyard tract in Southern California.

Until January 1st, 1923, only nineteen days longer, will you have the opportunity of purchasing a vineyard already planted and cared for by the company at the price of $500 per acre. New vineyards to be planted next year will command this same price or more. The initial payment is only $125 per acre and the balance is payable in five years.

These vineyards are a revelation to those who see them. Even rotogravure booklets with carefully selected photographs fail to portray the beauties at Fontana. Fontana is not a mere land subdivision. It is one of the greatest diversified colonization projects ever attempted in the United States. Fontana today is practically a finished product, with almost five hundred miles of beautiful shade trees, splendid roads, wonderful concrete irrigation and domestic water system—over five thousand acres in orange groves—hundreds of acres in deciduous fruits and more than two thousand acres in grapes—besides vast nurseries. Its model poultry plant with over nine thousand laying hens would in itself be a huge undertaking.

Through years of careful planning and the expenditure of millions of dollars, the Fontana Farms Company has made it possible for the small investor to establish a permanent, profitable home without the drudgery of individual pioneering. It is truly a rare opportunity for you to be assured of financial independence. In order for you to make sure of the one-year-old vineyards remaining and that will be closed before the first of the year, you should make your reservation as soon as possible, subject, of course, to your inspection and entire approval in every conceivable way.

The Fontana Farms Company presents this opportunity to you at unheard-of low prices with the same sincerity that has marked every sale ever made by this company for almost a fifth of a century.

People, hungry for better financial and living conditions, are coming and will continue to come to Southern California by the hundred thousands. There will be no second Fontana. The price will never be as low again. You, who are here and who are the sunshine dwellers of this wonderful country, certainly need no further preachment.

Fill out and mail either one of the coupons today.

"MYSTERY SHIP" IS SAFE

Vessel Stranded for Month on Desolate Mexican Coast in Drydock Here for Repairs

Rescued from almost certain destruction after a month aboard a stranded ship on the desolate Mexican Coast—that is the thrilling experience related yesterday by members of the crew of the steamer Guerrero, now in the dry dock at Los Angeles Harbor.

While proceeding up the coast of Mexico toward Los Angeles the Guerrero went aground on a sandpit. All efforts to dislodge her were futile. Instead of abandoning the craft, however, the crew stuck by her. They made every effort to float the stranded ship.

SUCCESSFUL IN WORK

Finally, at the end of a month of determined effort the huge hulk rewarded her faithful crew by gradually loosening herself from the sand and floating clear once more. A passing bark towed her to Los Angeles Harbor, where a survey at the drydock of the Bethlehem Shipyard yesterday showed that with a few repairs she would again be seaworthy.

The Guerrero will be remembered as one of the British "mystery ships" of the war period. These craft were disguised as merchantmen, and enemy submarines were decoyed by their harmless appearance into venturing close, in preparation for a sure topedo shot. When the unsuspecting sub was close at hand, the mystery ship's sides dropped and revealed a battery of formidable guns which made short work of the undersea craft.

Reconditioned after the war the Guerrero was put into merchant service and was on one of her scheduled trips when she went aground.

HAS WORK UNDER WAY

Sixty thousand dollars is the estimated cost of repairing the damage done by the elements and by the sand while she was aground, according to John L. Thomson, chief engineer of the Guerrero. He is superintending the work of fitting her for a resumption of her schedule.

A peculiar freak of the elements was a sharp cutting-off of the rudder of the ship about the middle. The edge of the piece that remains is as neatly cut as if done with an acetylene torch.

Few seamen have been on a stranded ship for a month and lived to tell the story of their experiences, while still less in number are the ships that have been aground for that length of time and then have gone back in service. The Guerrero's crew was busy yesterday receiving congratulations of fellow-seamen who could appreciate only too well the close call their contemporaries had experienced.

JUDGE ASSESSES FINE AND GIVES LECTURE ON THE PUNISHMENT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Steve Deutsch, 35 years old, found his 12-year old son, Joseph, with five cigarette butts in his possession. As a punishment he forced Joseph to swallow them and afterward locked him naked in a room with the window open to admit the frosty air.

Neighbors saw Joseph there and reported the matter, and the boy and his father were taken to the police station. It was admitted today that it was all the boy's fault but Judge LaBuy severely censured the father for his brutal punishment and fined him $200 and costs.

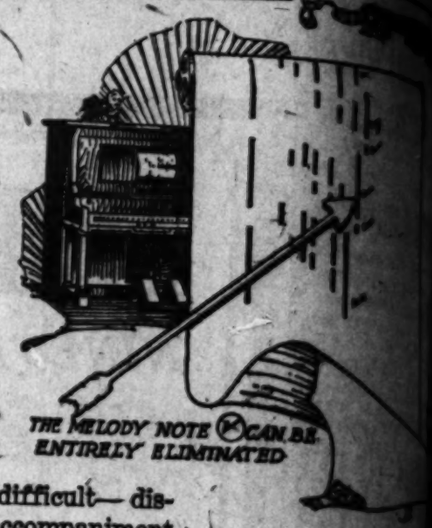
HAVE YOU A SOLOIST IN YOUR FAMILY?

A Gul-BRAN-sen Accompaniment Develops the Musician



EVERY musician will tell you it is difficult—disheartening—to play when the accompaniment is uncertain.

Yet few realize that they can have a smooth-flowing, sympathetic, inspiring accompaniment on the Gul-BRAN-sen.

Did you know that anyone can quickly learn to play the Gul-BRAN-sen well? Yes, really artistically—with the help of our Instruction Rolls.

Then it is easy to follow the soloist perfectly—to help him on new pieces—to play introductions and finales in inspiring style.

And on the Gul-BRAN-sen, as on no other player, you are enabled to eliminate the melody notes entirely, playing just the accompaniment to the solo.

In your family is there a musician's ability being neglected or dwarfed by poor accompaniment? Then, you need a Gul-BRAN-sen. Investigate it today. Try it, too, for your own personal pleasure in fine playing. You'll surprise yourself.

NOTE: These prices include COMPLETE REVISEMENT, such as elimination rolls, dust bands etc. $15.00 worth of music of your own selection WITH EVERY PIANO SOLD.

DRY CHRISTMAS IN EAST, PLAN

Prohibition Agents Gather on Atlantic Seaboard

Lid to be Clamped Down During Holidays

Extra Men Being Sent to Large Cities

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Prohibition forces are being concentrated in the large cities along the North Atlantic seaboard. A determined effort will be made to clamp down the dry lid during the gay holiday season, it was learned today.

Flagrant violations of the Volstead Act in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Jersey City, Wilmington, Baltimore and other large eastern cities were reported last year during the holidays. Such widespread violations are regarded by Roy A. Haynes, Prohibition Commissioner, as tending to break down respect for the law, and the move is made to hold yuletide drinking to a minimum.

Dry agents are being drawn from the South and Middle West to augment the usual forces in the eastern cities. In addition to the extra agents, it was said Mr. Haynes's flying squadron of picked men also will be used.

While Commissioner Haynes and other prohibition officials were in conference completing plans for rigid enforcement of the Volstead Act, it was indicated at the Treasury Department that regulations would be liberalized to permit druggists to obtain larger supplies of bottled-in-bond liquors for medicinal purposes.

It was understood Secretary Mellon was disposed to favor a liberalization of the regulations in response to the application of a delegation from the American Medical Association and representatives of distilleries. A resolution adopted by the medical association stated druggists were unable to obtain sufficient supplies of bonded liquors to supply physicians' prescriptions.

Bonded liquors, it was pointed out, were the only kind physicians wished to prescribe, as the purity of other liquors was uncertain. The matter has been referred to David H. Blair, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and a final decision is expected within the week.

LEGALITY IS HIT THOUGH WED THRICE

Physician Defendant in Suit to Set Aside Deed to Wife's House

Although Dr. Jared H. Miller was three times married to the same woman to assure the legality of their union such legality is being attacked in an action in Judge York's court which began yesterday and is likely to continue for several weeks. The physician is defendant in a suit to set aside a deed to the house at 610 South Oxford street which represents $30,000 of the $225,000 estate left by Dr. Miller's late wife, Mary E. Moore Miller, who died in 1915. The action is being taken by Frank M. Kelsey as special administrator of the estate.

The case involves much law pertaining to divorces, for Dr. Miller had four wives, and most of the day yesterday was spent in laying the legal groundwork. Attorneys Anderson & Anderson argued that the State of Tennessee, where the courts took action in the various cases, had no proper jurisdiction.

It appears that Dr. Miller married his second wife in Massachusetts in 1909, later removing to Tennessee. She got a divorce in Boston and he a decree in Tennessee. He married his third wife in Tennessee and got a divorce there. His fourth and last wife he married twice in Tennessee and once in California, his attorneys will bring out. They are Kelsey & McDonald, A. P. Thompson and Kimball Fletcher.

Dr. Miller from the stand testified that his removal to Tennessee was in good faith and not merely to establish a residence there for the purposes of his divorce; that he was employed by a sanatorium in Memphis. He also began the story of his last courtship and marriage. He testified he had met Mrs. Moore when he was practicing medicine in this city; that she was then a resident of Michigan and that he had met her in the Yelowstone Park by prearrangement, where they first discussed marriage. He said he had met Mrs. Moore there at her suggestion and that he had told her of his unhappy relations with his third wife, Mrs. Irene E. Miller, who previously had left him, he said. She later obtained a divorce in Alameda county.

Deputies Expect Soon to Arrest Four Who Robbed Bank at Piru

Search for the four bandits who robbed the Fillmore State Bank of Piru, Ventura county, on Monday afternoon of $4000, and then forced C. F. Spencer, president of the bank, and his 6-year-old daughter, Mary Ella, to accompany them to Los Angeles in an automobile, is being vigorously prosecuted, it was announced yesterday at the Sheriff's office.

Deputy Sheriffs Sweesy and Allen, who have been assigned to the case, report that they have a good description of the wanted men and hope to locate them soon. The bandits were said to have been from 35 to 40 years of age, and were roughly dressed. All of them wore soft hats, according to Spencer, except the driver of the machine, who wore a plaid cap.

It is believed that the bandits are hiding in or around Los Angeles. A description of them and their car has been broadcast throughout the State, however.

New Industrial District to Open at Long Beach

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 12.—The entire harbor district west of the flood-control canal, will be thrown open to refineries and kindred industries under the terms of a new city ordinance presented to the Council today for consideration. Final reading and adoption of the ordinance will not be reached until an amendment can be drafted that will prevent the continuation of the time limit for the removal of a fish meal factory, ordered several months ago to vacate the district.

Adoption of the new ordinance will pave the way for the erection by a Pasadena company of a refinery just west of the Craig shipbuilding yards. The new plant will represent an investment of $200,000 or more, according to attorneys representing the company.

YOUTH HELD AS ROBBER HANGS SELF

Attempts to End Life by Using Ceiling of Cell as His Gallows

Henry Satterlee, aged 18, an asserted robber, hanged himself to the top of his cell with stripe torn from a blanket at the City Jail yesterday, according to a police report.

Jailer C. M. Niver and a trusty making the rounds, came upon him and cut him down. He was revived at the Receiving Hospital, where it was estimated he had been hanging ten minutes and would soon have died.

It is charged Satterlee, with two companions, went to see C. Horwitz of 140 Lucas street, who had advertised diamonds for sale. After looking at the gems they said they would return. They returned, Horwitz says, with guns in their hands and took the gems away without payment. Deputy Sergeant Reed arrested Satterlee.

Settle Amount of Alimony in Love Swap Case

The alimony controversy in the divorce suit of Mrs. Marjorie Weddington against Guy Weddington, wealthy Lankershim resident, has been settled out of court, Attorney W. I. Mitchell informed Judge Summerfield yesterday. It was said Mrs. Weddington had received $60,000, and that her husband had also agreed to pay her attorneys a $2000 fee.

Mrs. Weddington asserts her husband wanted to change wives and said he tried to bargain with her for a divorce so he would be free to marry Mrs. N. Elisabeth McCann.

CITY SELLS GAS

Long Beach Realizes $2112 From Signal Hill Lands

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 12.—The Southern Counties Gas Company, whose business it is to sell gas to other folks, turned buyer today when it paid to the city of Long Beach the sum of $2112 for 66,000,00 cubic feet of gas which was blown into the air in the Signal Hill field. The gas escaping from wells on city-owned lands, flowed at the rate of 2,000,000 feet per day for thirty-three days.

Navy Report Will Show Treaty Compliance

Long List of British Ships Sold for Junk

United States and Japan to Keep Dreadnaughts

[By A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Navy Department reports to Congress, called for by a House resolution, as to progress made by the United States and other countries on battleship scrapping in advance of the promulgation of the Washington Treaty, are expected to credit Great Britain with an extraordinary list of vessels actually sold for breaking up, including many capital ships. For the United States and Japanese the reports will show that suspension of building programs constitutes the chief preliminary compliance with treaty provisions.

The list of British ships already sold for junking, it was learned today, is composed wholly of obsolete 13.5-inch gun craft. Among the ships which have been dismantled and are now on sale, but not as yet actually turned over to the breaking firms, however, are two battleships, the Monarch and Conqueror, armed with main batteries of 13.5 inch guns.

THIRD BATCH READY

A third classification of capital ships now being made ready for sale, but not as yet actually offered to contractors also will be shown in the British list. With the sale of these vessels and their destruction, the British Navy would be stripped of all its twelve-inch gun pre-Jutland types and also would have discarded several of the older 13.5 inch gun craft leaving the battle fleet retained armed

It is not known whether the reports to Congress will show in detail what steps have been taken to render ships not yet sold incapable of further war-like use.

In some cases the British admiralty is understood here to have left this compliance with treaty terms to ship-breaking contractors although guns and possibly engines may have been rendered useless in admiralty dockyards in recent cases as well as in the case of two vessels sold to a German concern for junking.

'LOSE NO DREADNAUGHTS

Neither the Japanese government nor the United States is required under the treaty to scrap any ship of dreadnaught type while with few exceptions the British ships already sold are of that class. Both in Japan and the United States some predreadnaught ships, regarded as wholly obsolete, have been junked, but work of completing the scrapping of other craft by treaty terms awaits promulgation of the treaty. The report to Congress will show that certain Japan ships have been dismantled, guns and even armor having been removed but none of the material nor the hulls actually destroyed. The American ships to be scrapped are all out of commission except the Connecticut.

TAXI MEN MUST BE GOOD

Chief Engineer Osborne's Plan Forbids Depot Fights Over Prospective Fares

Acting as arbitrator for the warring Balkan peoples or functioning as a referee at a Vernon prize fight is a tame job compared to the task Chief Engineer Osborne of the Board of Public Utilities has in trying to bring peace among the taxicab drivers at the Los Angeles railroad depots. Mr. Osborne believes he has new hit on a scheme which will bring to an end the necessity of sending wagonloads of policemen to the stations every few days to pry the automobile drivers apart.

The Chamber of Commerce and other organizations have long complained that when a traveler arrives on the sidewalk at a depot here he is immediately pounced upon by a horde of angry and determined taxi drivers. The strongest of the lot carries off the visitor and his baggage is triumph.

Chief Engineer Osborne has laid before the Board of Public Utilities a plan for keeping the various drivers lined up far away from the depots, leaving two vacant taxi spaces at the train exit. As rapidly as the two waiting taxicabs are filled and driven away their places are to be taken by the next two taxis in line.

As it is now, the taxi drivers wait across the street from the stations and then make a wild dash for the passenger and his baggage. This will be done away with under the Osborne plan. The rules will prohibit drivers from scuffling or crowding. Soliciting trade in a boisterous manner also is to be prohibited.

BIDS RECOMMENDED FOR GRADING WORK

The Board of Public Works recommended to the City Council yesterday that it advertise for bids for grading work in cutting through Fifth street from Grand avenue west to Normal Hill and then to Boylston street.

LEGISLATION IS TOPIC

"Essential Legislation for California" is the subject of an address to be given on the 21st inst. by Dr. M. E. Magnin and the Rev. Bromley Oxnam. Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will preside.

PLEAS FOR AID REACH SHRINERS

Relief Committee Requests Food and Clothing to Bring Cheer to Destitute

Hundreds of letters are pouring into the Shriners' relief headquarters, 1040 South Broadway, each bearing its story of suffering and destitution, each carrying a plea for aid during the Yuletide season.

Heart-rending are many of these stories of misfortune and want; many reveal the most dire need and all of the appeals voice poverty and suffering among children whose youthful hearts cry for happiness at the Christmas season.

From one little lad yesterday there came a letter, framed in childish hand. Blankets, shoes and a Christmas dinner basket summed up the boy's appeal.

The father of this little family, numbering five children ranging in age from 11 to 5 years, has been ill in the hospital for eighteen months, a victim of tuberculosis. The mother is bravely carrying the burden. It is a hard struggle to provide a bare sustenance for this family of growing hungry children. And there are so many other things that are needed.

This is but one of the many cases which the Shriners' Christmas relief committee seeks to aid. There is an urgent need of clothing for men, women and children, and particularly for suits for men and women. Shoes and underwear are also wanted, and many requests are coming in for blankets, bedding, mattresses, beds and other articles of furniture. Stoves are also sought.

If you cannot deliver your donations to the headquarters, telephone 820115 and the Shriners' truck will call for them.

Cash is Asked by Red Cross for Christmas

The Los Angeles chapter of the American Red Cross yesterday issued an appeal for a Christmas present in the shape of money contributions to the chapter.

Officials of the organization want to provide Christmas cheer for every ex-service man who is now in hospital in Los Angeles or vicinity and if the public will help with cash donations, say they can do it.

Last year nearly $600 was sent to the Red Cross in small donations. Such funds should be taken or sent to Red Cross headquarters, Coulter Building.

City Prisoners Are Wanted to Construct Road

In order to extend Los Feliz Road along the west bank of the Los Angeles River, near Griffith Park, City Engineer Griffin desires to utilize 100 city prisoners.

If this is done it will mean the revival of the "chain gang" which for many years was used on road work in various parts of the city.

Chief Oaks reported to the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday a "chain gang" of 100 prisoners is available for road work, but said that the expense for guards and for blankets for the prisoners for three months would be $4670. The City Council was asked to appropriate the money.

MOONSHINE PROFITS A TOTAL LOSS

Government Gets After Bootleggers Via Special Revenue Assessment

Collector Goodcell has notified 800 violators of the national prohibition act to appear at his office regarding assessments which have been made against them by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

These assessments run from $500 to $2500 each. The assessments have been imposed in addition to the criminal liability the bootleggers have incurred and involve violations of the internal revenue laws.

They have the privilege of submitting an offer in compromise in lieu of the assessment. Such offers are now being received and sent on to Washington for consideration.

That bootlegging as a business does not pay is evidenced by the following letter received yesterday by Collector Goodcell:

"San Diego, Dec. 10, 1922.

"Mr. Collector:

"In answer to yours of the 8th in regard to fines and penalties for violation of the liquor laws, note what you write in regard the compromise and levying on any property I may ever have. I do not know any way in which I could meet this debt unless I could rob a mail truck or hold up a payroll from some bank. As it is at present I have not got $35 to my name, and you state that I owe the Treasury $2293.70. The government sure do know how to charge for a few gallons of moonshine which I did not even get a chance to sell.

"One thing sure, I will not undertake the moonshine again soon, as I have been a bum ever since. Hoping this letter will not be offensive in any way. Ever thine."

EMPLOYEES DISMISSED

City Engineer Griffin has reported to the Board of Public Works that several city employees have been dismissed for stealing tin cans and other noncombustible rubbish collected by them, which are the property of the contractor who pays the city for the rubbish.

BURIAL LOTS GO FOR ALIMONY

Wife Asks Share of Only Community Property For Support

Two cemetery lots in Glendale, purchased by Charles and Hazel Mannell when they married, with the intention of occupying them after a long and happy life together, were ordered sold yesterday by Judge Summerfield, in divorce court, to pay alimony.

Mrs. Mannell, who is seeking the divorce, testified they were the only community property owned. She applied for a share of their value as support pending trial of the suit. The case was continued till Mannell reports to the court how much he gets for them.

Naval Captain Scheduled for Army Club Talk

Capt. W. T. Cluverius, U. S. N., chief of staff of the base force will be the principal speaker at the eleventh meeting and dinner of the Association of the Army of the United States Friday at 6 p.m. at the Elite, 633 South Flower street.

Count Enrico Luserna, captain of cavalry in the Italian army, will discuss the Fascisti movement and Samuel Anderson, for many years a resident in Turkey, will speak on conditions now prevailing there. James W. Foley, poet, humorist and entertainer, is also scheduled for an after-inner address.

Invitations to the affair have been sent out to 2000 officers and ex-officers by the association which membership is open to all active, retired or honorably discharged officers of the Army of the United States.

CHILDREN'S THEATER PLANNED FOR PARK

The building of a children's theater at Exposition Park to centralize and house the various activities, particularly dramatic work, for young people conducted by the Playground Commission was advocated yesterday in a letter forwarded to the City Council by the advisory committee of the commission. A special committee was appointed to take up the project with the city government, the members being M. C. Bettinger, D. K. Edwards, Miss Mary Workman, Mmes. Norman McBeth and Mrs. Ernest K. Foster.

New days! Modern methods have made silk hosiery an economy. Modern dress has made it a requisite of refined appearance. There is wholesome pride to us as manufacturers in the certainty that we have been an important factor in that two-fold advancement which has given the world not only a better stocking, but a better looking stocking. Phoenix is today the accepted standard for men, women and children, because of its long-mileage economy and refined elegance —two new-day achievements.

There Isn't Any Hot Water Now
You'll Have to Wait A While

An awfully embarrassing situation—to have the hot water supply go back on you when there are guests in the house. It's bad enough with just the family around, but it's even more upsetting when your reputation for smooth-running hospitality is at stake.

Being sorry and making excuses never quite make up for the embarrassment and annoyance a guest suffers in a situation like that. And for the hostess it's as humiliating as an admission that light, air or food must be dispensed with during the period of the visit.

Of course, it's not your fault, under the circumstances. But if you are anxious to avoid such scenes and at the same time be absolutely certain of a generous hot water supply for all emergencies you can do so by putting in a

NEWS OF MIDDLE WEST IN BRIEF

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 12.—Mrs. Amanda H. Samis of Kansas City, convicted July 27, 1920, of participation in an alleged million-dollar note swindle, must serve four years in the Missouri penitentiary at Jeffreon City, the State Supreme Court affirming the sentence.

The Kansas City Terminal has agreed to comply with its franchise and build the Chestnut avenue viaduct which will link the Chestnut traffic way from the high ground in the northwest section of Kansas City into the East Bottom industrial district.

ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12.—Building permits for 1922 up to last Saturday totaled $72,974,423, which is over $6,000,000 more than the total for 1921 and a sum exceeded only by the totals for 1905, 1906 and 1909.

The Otterville Mining Company, which was organized there about two months ago to prospect for coal, has sunk a shaft to about 30 feet and encountered tunnels and workings of some old abandoned mine. Three stone hammers or mauls have been found, which are different from any kind now found in that section. The oldest residents have no recollection of any white men working such a mine and Capt. Frank A. Shultz, the superintendent, believes the work that of some people who visited the country before the coming of the whites.

Samuel Hutcheson, 81 years old, a resident of Denver, Mo., and a pioneer resident of Worth county, has just been awarded a pension although it has been fifty-seven years since he served his country in the Civil War.

DENVER

DENVER, Dec. 12.—Mrs. William MacLeod Raine, noted Denver educator and wife of one of the nation's foremost writers of fiction, died yesterday at St. Luke's Hospital as a result of pernicious anemia. Death followed blood transfusions.

Unqualified condemnation of a Congressional bill proposing the creation of an "all-year national park" in southeastern New Mexico was expressed by the Colorado Mountain Club in a resolution adopted by the board of directors yesterday.

OMAHA

OMAHA, Dec. 12.—Announcement was made at the office of Vice-President E. E. Calvin of the Union Pacific Railroad System that agreements had been reached with representatives of a newly formed "Miscellaneous Employees' Association" of the system for wages which are from 2 cents to 10 cents per hour higher for highly skilled work than those established by the United States Railway Labor Board.

Gov.-elect Charles W. Bryan, who as a member of the Lincoln City Council has charge of the municipal coal yard, yesterday announced that beginning today the price of coal the city has been selling will be reduced form $10.50 a ton to $9.50.

INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 12.—Announcement was made yesterday by Mayor Low Shank that he intends to ask the City Council at its next meeting to pass an ordinance that will be directed at jaywalkers. He said that while he is well pleased with the results of the war on reckless drivers, some action also must be taken against careless pedestrians.

Standing at the bedside of his wife, who is ill in the Epworth Hospital, South Bend, Frank Rosko took his own life yesterday by drinking poison. Mrs. Rosko tried to prevent her husband from accomplishing his purpose. Rosko is believed to have been despondent. Mrs. Rosko's condition is serious.

Hearing Set for Two Accused as Jail-Break Aids

Tom Garwood and his sister, Mrs. L. A. Stanage, charged with being accessories to murder and robbery and with harboring escaped criminals in connection with the escape from the County Jail of Herbert Wilson and two of his accomplices, were arraigned before Judge Shenk yesterday. Their trial was set for the 19th inst.

Possibility that the charges of accessory to murder and robbery may be withdrawn was indicated yesterday by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McCartney. He intimated that the evidence against them on these charges is not sufficient to convict.

Judge Shenk reduced Garwood's and Mrs. Stanage's bail from $10,000 to $5000 each on a motion by Defense Attorney William J. Fund.

Noticias de Washington

WASHINGTON, dbre. 13.—Ayer se presentó el cargo sensacional de que William J. Burns, jefe de la oficina de investigación del Departamento de Justicia, arregló un jurado que mandó a la prisión a un individuo hace once años, y de que las circunstancias del caso le eran conocidas al Procurador General Daugherty cuando nombró al Sr. Burns. Esta fué la primera prueba presentada a la Comisión de Justicia de la Cámara de Diputados, en apoyo de la petición de que se desafuere al citado Procurador General.

Los proyectos de ley Lenroot y Capper se discutieron en la primera audiencia sobre legislación de créditos rurales, ante la Comisión de Bancos y Moneda del Senado.

El Ministro del Trabajo Davis ha recomendado que se deporte a todos los extranjeros que se opongan en forma activa al gobierno organizado, o que se inclinen a ver con desprecio las instituciones del orden y la ley.

No Han Dado con los Aviadores Extraviados

EL PASO (Texas) dbre. 13.—Benson, Arizona, y las ciudades cercanas se emocionaron ante la noticia, de que el Coronel Francis O. Marshall y el Teniente C. L. Webber, aviadores desaparecidos, habían sido encontrados. Por desgracia, la noticia se refería al encuentro de un avión explorador que se vió obligado a bajar cerca de Benson, sin que sus ocupantes sufrieran daño.

Navió Embarrancado otra vez Navegando

NUEVA YORK, dbre. 13.—El vapor de pasajeros Mongolia, de la Línea Americana, que encalló anoche en el puerto, en los bajos de Bay Ridge, pasó hoy por la estación de cuarentena, en camino para Hamburgo. Sus oficiales anunciaron que no había sufrido daño.

Ladrones de Ataúdes

ATLANTA (Georgia) dbre. 12.—B. F. Ware, propietario de la Compañía Funeraria de Atlanta, y dos sepultureros negros, los llamados Claude Maddox y Thurman Jones, fueron procesados hoy por el Gran Jurado, pues se hayan inodados en el delito de "robo de ataúdes" al por mayor en un cementerio de negros de esta ciudad.

Destrucción de Antílopes

NUEVA YORK, dbre. 13.—Los criadores de borregos del oeste están matando antílopes en grandes cantidades, con el propósito de ver si es posible exterminarlos, pues temen que el gobierno establezca cotos vedados para la conservación de esos animales, con lo que los criadores resultarían privados de grandes extensiones de terrenos pastales. Tal refirió hoy al congreso nacional de la Sociedad Americana Protectora de la Caza, Smith Riley, jefe de los cotos de aves y animales de caza del departamento de agricultura de los Estados Unidos.

NOTAS LOCALES

Con la aprehensión practicada ayer de James F. Palmer, alias "Dr." James F. Bennett, de 34 años de edad, y de Henry Kane, de 20, sospechosos de extorsión, cree la policía haber puesto a descubierto un nuevo arte de timar con el que muchísimas personas de varias partes de los Estados Unidos han sido estafadas en millares de dólares.

Los Sargentos Detectives Barr, Oker, Lloyd y Roberts aseguran que Palmer y Kane han hecho de Los Angeles su cuartel general por más de un año para dedicarse a sus maniobras fraudulentas. Estas consistían en lo siguiente: El "Dr." Bennett y su ayudante se hacían de relaciones con jóvenes de otras poblaciones, de visita en ésta, averiguando los nombres y direcciones de sus padres; logrado lo cual, escribía el "Dr." Bennett, del 416-17, Metropolitan Building, a los referidos padres, comunicándoles que su hijo había sido lastimado en un accidente y estaba recibiendo tratamiento médico, y suplicándoles remitiesen dinero para atender a los gastos de curación.

Se Duda que Exista un Círculo de Distribución de Narcóticos

Los detectives de la brigada de narcóticos de Los Angeles pusieron anoche en duda la importancia de despachos de Nueva York en los que se declara que el Dr. Carleton Simon, Teniente Comisario de Policía especial de aquella ciudad, había descubierto una organización para la distribución de droga que se extiende por toda la nación, y que tiene su agente en Hollywood.

Declase que el Dr. Simon declaró que tenía los nombres de ocho clientes de esa organización en Hollywood, los cuales, eran personas prominentes en los círculos teatrales y cinematográficos. Se negó a hacer públicos sus nombres.

Dicen los detectives que el individuo de Hollywood que cree el Sr. Simon es agente local de la referida organización, no es sino un enviciado en las drogas, y, que ellos sepan, nunca ha tenido nada que ver con el tráfico de narcóticos.

Los Hilos en el Asunto de la Phillips a Nada han Conducido

Las pesquisas para hallar a Clara Phillips, asesina convicta que se salió de la cárcel hace una semana, se centralizaron ayer en una tentativa para encontrar a un individuo no identificado, quien se dice afirmó que sabía donde se encontraba escondida desde hace varios días la resbaladiza homicida. El Teniente Sheriff de lo Penal, Hotz, y el Teniente Sheriff Nolan, fueron a Santa Fe Springs, donde se suponía vivía "el hombre misterio", con el fin de verificar las pretendidas afirmaciones, pero no pudieron encontrar al individuo. Hallaron a otro hombre, sin embargo, que dijo haber oído dichas afirmaciones, pero que no pudo dar la identidad del que las vertió.

COMMISSION EXTENDS RAIL COMPANY LOAN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. — A loan of $10,000,000 to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company out of the $300,000,000 revolving fund was approved today by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The action of the commission was in effect an approval of a renewal of a $10,000,000 loan which becomes due January 1. The new loan will run for seven years and bear 6 per cent interest.

Since the original loan was made the company has been unable to earn any sum for application on the debt, the commission said.

"It's current earnings are comparatively low and it is asserted that it is impossible to refund with the proceeds of available bonds at any reasonable discount," it said. "It is apparent the applicant needs more time to recover from the effects of a period of depression and extensive improvement through which it has been passing and to strengthen its financial structure.

"It must refund its maturity when due in order to preserve its existing credit and the integrity of its operating status."

The commission has had the application before it since Feb. 4, 1922. The time for filing applications for loans expired Feb. 28, 1922.

NAVAL WAGE BOARDS ARE TO RECONSIDER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Wage boards at the various Navy yards and stations throughout the country were instructed today by the Navy Department to reconsider their recommendations made recently of wage scales for employees during the coming year.

The instructions were issued on the recommendation of the General Naval Board of Review after hearings at which employees' representatives in most instances asked for approximately a 25 per cent increase in wages. Several boards had recommended decreases.

PENNSYLVANIAN LIKELY CHOICE

Von Moschzisker May Get Supreme Court Job

Backed by Bar and Keystone State Leaders

Several Other Candidates Virtually Quit

BY ROBERT BARRY
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
[Copyright, 1922, Public Ledger.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Judge Robert Von Moschzisker of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania was declared yesterday by responsible administration leaders to be the most likely choice of President Harding for appointment to the United States Supreme Court in the vacancy created through the retirement of Associate Justice Mahlon Pitney of New Jersey.

The matter was described at the Capitol as having progressed to such a favorable point for Judge Von Moschzisker that several administration Senators supporting other candidates virtually had conceded the Pennsylvanian's nomination.

PRESENTED TO HARDING

Judge Von Moschzisker was presented to the President yesterday by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, but no announcement was made as to whether there was an indication by Mr. Harding of his intentions with respect to the appointment. Yet, coming on the heels of the virtual withdrawal from the contest of several prominent candidates, the White House conference assumed to political Washington the highest sort of importance. Senator Pepper and Representative Vare of Pennsylvania have been active in behalf of the State Supreme Court justice, the President being given to understand there would be no factional aftermath if such a choice were made and that Judge Von Moschzisker had the indorsement of leaders of the bar.

PARTY NOT IMPORTANT

Some candid party leaders having other candidates for the Supreme Court vacancy declared they had been mistaken in their belief the President would not give such an important Federal appointment to a Republican stronghold like Pennsylvania. It was their view the post would go to some State where the interests of the party would be promoted through recognition of some outstanding legal figure. The current gossip is the President has frowned on such a program and has given notice he intended appointing a man who was believed to have the best professional qualifications for the place regardless of where he lives. Judge Von Moschzisker, like Associate Justice Pitney, is a Republican, as the question of party balance on the bench does not enter in the present equation as it did in the naming of Pierce Butler, Democrat of Minnesota.

The effort of farmer-labor groups in the Northwest to block the confirmation of Mr. Butler was declared yesterday to have been complicated by involving of the religious element. On hearing that some of the most prominent business men in Minnesota have indicated a readiness to appear and urge with every possible earnestness the confirmation of Mr. Butler on the ground he is one of the West's greatest lawyers.

REDS IN VISALIA

VISALIA, Dec. 12.—Discovery of I.W.W. strike literature at Visalia is believed by the authorities to have been left by a passing "wobbly" and is not considered as the first steps in a program designed to create local trouble. The literature was found concealed in folded newspapers in several rooming-houses.

WOULD EXTEND CITIZENSHIP

Bill in Congress Seeks to Correct Defect in Law

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Children of aliens would be granted citizenship upon the naturalization of either parent under a bill introduced today by Representative Cable, Republican of Ohio, who said he sought to correct a defect in the present law under which citizenship of children born abroad depends on the citizenship of the father.

WHITTIER WILL VOTE ON CHARTER

Hotly Contested Fight Expected Over Issue at Polls Next January

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
WHITTIER, Dec. 12.—Following a report made by the fifteen freeholders to the City Council regarding their work in planning a new city charter, the Council selected January 30 as the day upon which the issue will be submitted to the voters of the city, at a special election.

An active campaign of education relating to the proposed charter is to be inaugurated soon. As sentiment is divided the issue will doubtless be hotly contested. Some ten or twelve years ago Whittier held an election to decide upon a similar charter, but it failed to carry.

The charter would give to the city a managerial form of government and a city manager would have charge of much of the business of the city. The manager, according to the charter, is to be appointed by five trustees, and he cannot be recalled. In case the charter carries, it will then be submitted to the State Legislature for approval, and would become operative the first of next July. Cities in this State which have adopted this form of government are: Sacramento, Oakland, Fresno, Long Beach and many others.

VENTURA WATER PROJECT BEGUN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
OXNARD, Dec. 12.—Construction of Ventura county's largest single unit irrigation project is today in progress with the laying of twelve miles of pipe in the Las Posas section, by Zone No. 1 and Zone No. 2, Mutual Water Companies of Las Posas, some fifteen miles from here.

Richard Bard of Hueneme, president of the Zone No. 1 Water Company announced today that it would take over six months to complete the job. It is the intention of the water companies to irrigate 4000 acres of the richest land in Ventura county. Waters from Simi Creek will be pumped besides waters from several wells near the creek about one mile from the town of Somis. The location of the property to be irrigated is on either side of the State highway to the north of Somis. The cost of the project will run over $350,000.

Contractor Meyers of Los Angeles is already on the job, having installed a construction camp, also a laborers' camp. Work of manufacturing reinforced concrete pipe is to start immediately. The thirty-one inch concrete pipe will be the largest used in the county.

CHINO TO GET NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
POMONA, Dec. 12. — Contracts involving the expenditure of $117,000 for two new elementary school buildings to be built in Chino were awarded today by the Chino School Board. The amount was voted by bond issue in September.

Construction will be started immediately on the buildings, one of which is to accommodate the Mexican children, and the other the American pupils, who are crowding the precent Chino school system to overflowing.

$12,000,000

The M. A. Hanna Company

7% Cumulative First Preferred Stock

Preferred as to both assets and dividends.

Redeemable as a whole or in part at 110 and accrued dividend. Dividends payable quarterly, December, March, June and September 20. Par value of shares $100. Total authorized, $20,000,000. The Chase National Bank of New York; The Guardian Savings and Trust Co., Cleveland, registrars. Central Union Trust Company of New York; The Union Trust Company, Cleveland, Transfer Agents. Free of the United States normal income tax, and free of all present Ohio taxes except inheritance tax.

An annual sinking fund of 3% per annum of the total amount issued provides for purchase up to the redemption price or, if not so obtainable, for call at that price.

Application will be made in due course to list on the New York Stock Exchange.

The following information is summarized by Mr. H. M. Hanna, Jr., president of the company, from a letter to us:

The M. A. Hanna Company, an Ohio corporation, is taking over the assets and business of the firm of M. A. Hanna & Company and affiliated interests in iron ore mines, bituminous and anthracite coal mines, lake vessels and blast furnace plants.

The original partnership was formed in 1867, and since that time has managed and acted as sales agent for a large number of operating companies, many of which are controlled by stock ownership.

Since 1885 the average return has been more than 22% per annum upon the average annual capital and surplus invested in the partnership of M. A. Hanna & Co., and in the companies now wholly owned for the period while so owned. During the latter part of this period, with steadily increasing capital and surplus investment, the average annual return for 10 years to December 31, 1921, was nearly 15%, and for 15 years to that date over 17%.

For the 5 years ended December 31, 1921, the net income after interest, depreciation and depletion reserves, of the interests now consolidated in the M. A. Hanna Company, as audited by Messrs. Ernst and Ernst, averaged $2,407,788. In addition, the proportionate amount of undistributed earnings of companies partly owned applicable to dividends on shares owned, average $786,881. These figures are after deduction of federal taxes at the present rate of 12½% as the taxes actually paid were to a large extent a charge against the individual members of the partnership of M. A. Hanna & Company.

The balance sheet as of June 30, 1922, prepared by Messrs. Ernst and Ernst and adjusted to give effect to the consolidation and capitalization of the M. A. Hanna Company, shows net assets, after deducting all liabilities, of $30,127,027, or $251 per share of first preferred stock.

Excluding the investment of the M. A. Hanna Company in the Hanna Furnace Company, the investments in the companies wholly and partially owned are (with a few exceptions due to the method of acquisition or payment therefor) based either on the actual cash cost of the properties or on property valuations as of March 1, 1913, fixed by the federal government for purposes of taxation, all after adequate provision for depreciation and depletion. The investment in the Hanna Furnace Company is based on depreciated replacement values as of January 1, 1916, as determined by independent engineers.

The members of the firm of M. A. Hanna & Co. will continue in the active management of the properties and business consolidated in the new company.

We offer the above first preferred stock for delivery on or about December 20, 1922, when, as and if issued and received by us, subject to approval of legal matters by our counsel.

INTERCOASTAL TRAFFIC HEAVY

New Year to Mark Large Increase in Tonnage

United American is Placing More Ships in Service

Standard Oil Will Operate Huge Tanker Fleet

Intercoastal traffic out of Los Angeles Harbor will be marked by an increase in active vessels totalling more than 500,000 tons immediately after January 1, according to a series of official announcements made from the New York offices of the several companies.

Notable in the new tonnage are the United American liners Monticello and Montpelier, both of which have been withdrawn from trans-Atlantic passenger service and placed on the run between Los Angeles and Baltimore. The Montpelier is already enroute to this port, having left Philadelphia November 30.

Twenty-one tank steamers of the Standard Oil Company and the U. S. Shipping Board will also go into service on New Year's Day out of Los Angeles Harbor, engaged in the Standard Oil's contract with the Shipping Board to transport 11,000,000 barrels of California oil to Atlantic ports.

TANKER TO SAIL

The first of these vessels to sail with an oil cargo from this port will be the Shipping Board tanker Devolente, 10,200 deadweight tons, sailing from this port loaded for New York on January 1. She has been allocated to Walker & Daly of New York for the voyage.

Moore & McCormack, of New York, who already have three vessels in the intercoastal trade, announced in New York yesterday that the firm is negotiating for the purchase of five more large freighters for the same run. It is planned to have two of the new ships in service this month and three more in January, which will bring Moore & McCormack's coast-to-coast tonnage to 60,000. Ports of call on the Atlantic will be New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, and on the Pacific, San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Vancouver.

INCREASES TONNAGE

Thomas A. Graham, operating manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, announced yesterday that heavy cargo offerings in the intercoastal trade has necessitated the addition of fthe steamers Santa Rosa and Santa Barbara to the coast-to-coast run of the Pacific Mail. Addition of the two new carriers will offer shippers a sailing every ten days on the Pacific Mail's schedule to New York.

Indications at present are of an intensification of the sharply competitive conditions which have existed in the intercoastal trade for several months. Great increases in tonnage, together with the entrance of several new lines, are expected to lift the pressure for eastbound space. The lumber movement to the Atlantic continues good but is no texpected to compensate for the loss in eastbound trips which will come with the end of the annual canned goods movement.

PORT NOTES

Forecasting the entrance to Los Angeles Harbor of the huge cargo fleet of Furness, Withy & Co., Frank S. Goodline, head of the chartering department of the combine, is here from New York on a special inspection of Los Angeles and its port facilities. Mr. Goodline was met on his arrival from the east coast by T. A. Lee, Pacific Coast manager for Furness, Withy & Co., and S. J. Arnold, Pacific Coast auditor for the company.

The Munson liner Munsonia, for Los Angeles from New York, has returned to Cristobal in a leaking condition, according to dispatches received at the port last night. She sailed from the Canal on the 8th inst. for the local port, but was forced to put back when only a day out. If possible, she will attempt to reach Los Angeles to effect permanent repairs, it was said. The Munsonia is on her first trip to the Pacific Coast in the new Intercoastal service of the Munson Line.

Next Saturday the Pacific Mail liner Santa Malta will arrive from New York with a large cargo of general freight and a big shipment of Christmas goods from New York. Clay Hutchinson, Southern California manager for the Pacific Mail, announced last night.

NAVAL VESS

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Union Oil of California advanced ⅛ point to 106⅛ yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange on a light amount of trading. Union Oil Associates was unchanged at 186 and Globe Petroleum was off ⅛ cent at 24½. U. S. Royalties fell off te a closing price of 56, 1 cent below the previous close and 2 cents under the high price of the day.

Heavy liquidation of Virginia Louise failed to affect the price of the stock, the close remaining firm at 12⅛ cents. Telluride weakened to 26, a loss of 2½ cents, and Oatman United was neglected at 14½, off 2 cents. Oatman Gold sold at 9 cents.

An increase of 1-4 point was registered in Los Angeles Gas preferred with the closing price ascending to 91. Southern California Edison common was quoted at 104 and Goodyear Tire and Rubber sold at 75 1-4, off 1-4 from the previous closing price. Los Angeles Investment was taken at 1.32 and fifty shares of Merchants' National Bank stock sold at 190.

What We Learned Through the War

Countless thousands have learned the value of thrift through the purchase of Liberty Bonds. In two days many will receive the dollars that have worked for them and also for their country, making victory possible. The call comes now from peace time industries, and the opportunity is here to put those dollars to work most effectively. The valuable lesson of thrift learned through the war should not be forgotten. Co-operating with investors in placing their funds in safe and worthwhile securities is our business.

Middle West Activities in Trade Review

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Big packer hides have been extremely active, 600,000 of all descriptions changing hands last week, including 10,000 October and November branded hides at 1½ cents advance. Trading was largely in heavy Texas steers at 12½ cents, light Texans at 17 and Colorados at 16. Another block of about 10,000 light native cows moved at the steady price of 15.

Larger fertilizer companies will do well to show fixed charges earned this year, but all are optimistic for next. Rumley Company's advance business is larger than one or two years ago and this year should show 50 per cent increase in number of units and 15 to 20 in dollars. Foreign trade is expected to improve, but few count upon it in making calculations.

Farm machinery makers report farmers' requirements sufficient to justify expanded output for the first time in two years. General demand for steel is steady and exceeds average production up to 80 per cent by the Illinois Steel and 75 per cent for the Inland. The former has blown in an additional furnace at Gary, making twenty active. Although 182,500 cars have been placed in this district this year, inquiries continue strong, the new ones aggregating 15,000, with half as many more expected. Car builders are booked through the first half of next year and complain of steel shortage. The Baltimore & Ohio is after 2000 hoppers; the Canadian National, 1950 stock, 800 automobile and 250 other cars, and the Southern Pacific, 1700 boxes, 1200 gondolas and 500 flats.

Jobbers and local distributors report gasoline consumption good and larger than a year ago, although less than many expected. There is much complaint of lack of demand for highest grades because of little cold weather. Lubricating oil demand is not what it was, but still large. It seems to be a dealers' market, but with good consumption of practically all petroleum products the call on refiners must follow. Many jobbing organizations let stocks run down for the annual inventory, so considerable stocking-up will be due early in the new year. Demand for fuel oil is quite large, but supplies are still increased by cheap crude, bought and burned in place of refinery fuel oil. There is little change in average of prices.

Right to Tax Federal Bonds Not Extended

The rights of a State to tax United States bonds have apparently not been extended, according to information received by the First Securities Company.

In discussing the situation, Mr. P. S. Baer stated, "the decision of the Oklahoma Supreme Court that Liberty Bonds included in the holdings of a certain bank were taxable by the State was recently approved by the Supreme Court of the United States. This decision has been given publicity and has aroused anxiety among investors as to the tax position of their Liberty and other United States bonds.

"It appears, according to advice from our attorneys, that this decision is only a reaffirmation of the old ruling, that a State in computing its franchise tax on corporations and banks can take into account tax-free United States bonds.

"The classic decision on this point is Home Insurance Company vs. People of New York, United States Supreme Court, 1890, covering the right of the State to compute a franchise tax upon the basis of the entire property including the tax-free bonds held.

"Hence it would seem that this decision does not change the present tax position of investor's Liberty Bonds, or other United States securities."

COTTON CLIMBS WHEN CROP IS PUBLISHED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The cotton market gained 22 to 33 points today in fairly active trading after nothing similarly until the government crop report was published. There was further covering by professionals in the first few hours after the last quarter of 1 to 2 points with scattered Liverpool and southern selling. Later December cleared up 39 points in reduction of near month liquidation. Later, Wall street and the general public began to buy freely, many who had sold widely separated to take industries as the payment of prices. The crop report was regarded as less of a bear factor than the market made has ever witnessed. However, for the moment a little speculative liquidation caused a general dip of 20 to 25 points, but the last quotations fulfilled that loss and showed 10 to 15 points net higher than the market was up 22 to 33 points net higher. Harvey imported cotton bulls, predicting that and trade interests.

The local market for cotton was steady, 20 points advance, 21.30 for middling uplands.

Southern spot markets: Galveston 21.30, 20 points advance; New Orleans 21.05, unchanged; Savannah 20.85, 20 points advance; Augusta 21.15, 25 points advance; Memphis 20.90, unchanged; Houston 20.15, 25 points advance; Little Rock 20.60, unchanged.

STERLING EXCHANGE MAKES NEW HIGH

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Sterling exchange today was quoted at 4.43, a new high mark since 1919, and a gain of 6 cents since Saturday. The increase in value of the pound to more than $4.40 per cent of its par value was of great interest to importers because of the provision of the new tariff act which stipulates that allowance for depreciation in currency is to be made in valuing imported goods only when the depreciation amounts to 5 per cent or more.

The circular, as it was stated, made the increase in the pound value equivalent to an automatic increase in duties on British goods. When variation from par is less than 5 per cent, all duties are based at par or $4.80 a pound, while if it is more, the Federal reserve of New York fixes the rate as the buying rate in New York at noon on the day of appraisement."

FINAL COTTON CROP FIGURES ARE GIVEN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Reducing its forecast, made in October, by 171,000 bales, the Department of Agriculture in its final estimate of the season today placed the total production of cotton this year at 9,964,000 bales. The estimate is smaller than any of the four forecasts made this season, which were based on conditions of the crop in the various months of the growing season.

Prior to December 1 there had been ginned 9,313,161 running bales, as announced by the Census Bureau. That would indicate there are approximately 650,839 bales remaining to be ginned.

With the exception of last year's crop, which was 1,371,941 bales, this year's production will be smaller than any year since 1914.

DAILY TRADE TALK

Municipal Financing; Gold Coins Reappear; Arizona Conditions; Important Tax Amendment

A further reduction in the volume of State and municipal borrowing is shown by the Daily Bond Buyer's summary for November and the ten months' period ended November 30. Following a reduction in the total output of State and municipal bonds from $118,000,000 in September to $72,000,000 in October, November issues amounted to only about $50,000,000. So far this year sales of this type of security aggregate $1,177,000,000, as against $1,069,000,000 for the corresponding period in 1921.

That State and municipal financing will shortly assume large proportions is clearly indicated by the results of the November elections. Many new and large bond issues received the approval of voters at the polls, among them being five soldiers' bonus issues aggregating no less than $114,500,000. At least two of these issues, Kansas and Iowa, will be offered on the market in the near future.

The following table shows the output of domestic State and municipal bonds in November and the eleven months ending November 30 for ten years:

	November	Eleven months ending November 30
1922	$ 72,000,000	$1,177,000,000
1921	121,000,000	1,069,000,000
1920	91,000,000	696,000,000
1919	91,000,000	693,000,000
1918	91,000,000	693,000,000
1917	91,000,000	693,000,000
1916	91,000,000	693,000,000
1915	91,000,000	693,000,000
1914	91,000,000	693,000,000

GOLD COINS REAPPEAR

Gold coins, historically associated with wealth in the West, will make their reappearance in Los Angeles at Christmas time in the form of gifts, according to the reports of heavy withdrawals by banks from the Federal reserve deposits. Coins in denominations of $5, $10 and $20 are being shipped in at present, one bank making arrangements to distribute approximately $20,000 to its depositors for Christmas purposes.

Prior to the war ruling of the Federal Reserve Board, gold coins were in active circulation in the United States, and particularly in the West, where gold was considered the most desirable circulating medium. But with the withdrawal of the gold into the vaults of the twelve Federal reserve banks, the practice has arisen of calling upon the banks for gift coins. Bank officials say the fad is pronounced this year because of an innate desire to express prosperity in terms of gold.

Because of the premium of approximately 50 cents on $2.50 gold coins, the banks will be unable to furnish this denomination. Less than 1 per cent of the total gold coinage of the United States is in $2.50 pieces, and as the mint has ceased making this coin, the premium has resulted as the coins gradually disappear into the arts, especially in the form of jewelry novelties. Cuff links, watch fobs and necklaces are articles into which the $2.50 piece is worked.

CONDITIONS IN ARIZONA

Reports emanating from Arizona indicate that general conditions for the month of November have registered substantial improvement over past months. Sheep men have had a successful season, cattlemen have benefited materially from improved range conditions and a noticeable stiffening in the price of copper has contributed to the general activity.

Although the cattlemen have experienced a favorable season from the standpoint of the condition of their cattle, it is asserted that unsettled market conditions due to the establishment of the Los Angeles Union Stockyards have prevailed. A bulletin issued by the Arizona Cattle Growers' Association contends that large amounts of cattle heretofore sold in eastern markets are now moved to Los Angeles, said because of the oversupply, are sold at sacrifice prices. The operation of the stockyards is also said to have prevented buyers from coming on the ranges, a practice which the Arizona cattlemen are loath to forego because of the advantages said to accrue to them from selling their herds at the ranch.

The fall movement of sheep and lambs to market is estimated at 160,000 head. Prices have been satisfactory to the sheep man.

The crop of white potatoes has shown an average yield of eighty-five bushels per acre, and the quality is reported at 80 per cent of normal. Sweet potatoes showed an average yield of 150 bushels per acre. The yield of corn per acre was reduced from previous estimates because of dry weather and early frosts. About 20 per cent of the State's corn crop will be husked for grain, nearly 70 per cent used in silos, and 10 per cent for forage.

Firmness in the quotations for copper encouraged several of the Arizona companies to resume operations and others to increase their rate of production. Both domestic and foreign copper is now sold on a firm 14-cent basis, and confidence is expressed in higher prices within the next few months.

Freight tonnage handled by Arizona railroads has demonstrated a growing tendency. Reports are current that in Arizona the Southern Pacific of Mexico will undertake a $10,000,000 construction program on the route from Tepic to Le Quemada.

Bank clearings in the important cities of the State show increases over October, and savings deposits are evincing an increasing trend.

NEW COMPANY

Announcement is made today of the organization of the Lincoln Mortgage Company of California, which will deal in mortgages, agreements of sale, deeds of trust and collateral predicated upon real estate security.

The new company, which is incorporated under the laws of Delaware, will have a capital of $10,000 shares of preferred stock, of $10 par value, and 500,000 shares of common stock, of no par value.

The officers of the company are local men of prominence in financial circles, and include Orra E. Monnette, president; Ransome Henshaw, secretary and treasurer; Judge Paul J. McCormick, I. J. Muma, S. C. Graham, E. A. Dickson, Irwin H. Rice, and Dr. John R. Haynes.

Before proceeding with the organization of the company, the officers conducted an exhaustive survey of business conditions in Southern California, and are convinced that there exists here a profitable field for the operation of a mortgage company conducted along progressive lines.

METHODS STUDIED

Methods of the oldest and most successful mortgage companies in all parts of the United States were carefully studied by the organizers and the best parts of their plans have been adopted by the operation of the new corporation. In

MARKET REVIEWS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—An early recovery in the stock market, carrying some of the railway shares 1 to 3 points above Monday's closing, attracted more interest to that market today. The greater part of this advance was lost in the later hours, however, and the outstanding movement of the day was again in sterling exchange. Instead of declining from the high rate of Monday, whether because of adjournment of the premiers' conference or because of a natural tendency to reaction after a rise of 6 cents in a week, sterling went today 4 5-8 cents above Monday's closing. It touched $4.43 1-4, a rate at which it had not sold since March 12, 1919; only two days after the British government's bankers had announced receipt of instructions "to suspend purchases of sterling exchange for government account." Until that notice had been given, sterling had been selling a fraction over $4.75, the "pegged price" of the war.

Whatever special or immediate influences may be back of the present remarkable advance, there can be no doubt of the existence of one influence which in a way is the antithesis of that which governed the foreign exchange market of 1919. What happened then, when the rapid downward readjustment of the rate on London had fairly got under way, was withdrawal by foreign bankers and merchants of their London balances, and deposits in New York both of those and of other newly securing credits. These foreign clients of Lombard street did not care to face depreciation of their principal when they should need to use the proceeds. What is unquestionably happening now is the reverse process. Not only has confidence in London values been restored, but the mere fact of a continuing rise in sterling gives particular inducement for restoring London balances.

The stock market, after a day of more or less conflicting movments, ended irregular, but generally firm. The bond market showed strength pretty much throughout the list. Further advance in wheat brought the market to $1.23 for this month's delivery; the highest price reached this season and comparing with 93 cents a bushel on September 14.

In response to the agricultural department's "final estimate" of 9,964,000 bales for the cotton crop, the price of cotton rose 1-4 cent a pound, which left the spot price about 3-4 cent above the low point of the recent reaction, but 1½ cents under the high price of the season, the $2.50 cents of November 3. The department's estimate was close to the cotton trade's ideas; about 100,000 bales less than the forecast of so good an authority as the Memphis Commercial Appeal, but about 100,000 more than that of another excellent prognosticator, the New Orleans Times-Picayune. The main facts of the cotton situation are not made any clearer by this government estimate.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Dividend announcements and prospects again overshadowed news of the financial markets today. Aside from stock dividend and extra cash payments announced, there was keen interest in the action to be taken by several important companies within the next few days.

Directors of the New York Central will meet tomorrow. There has been considerable talk that the annual dividend rate, now 5 per cent, will be increased, both 6 and 7 per cent having been mentioned. Directors of the People's Gas, Light and Coke Company of Chicago will meet Thursday and an increase from 4 to 6 per cent annually has been rumored. The 5 per cent rate was resumed last January after a lapse of several years in dividends. It also was reported that the directors of the Great Northern Railroad on December 13 will declare the regular semiannual dividend of 3½ per cent on the preferred stock, according to present plans.

The Hurley Machine Company declared a 10 per cent stock dividend payable to common stockholders of record December 26. The Northwestern Yeast Company increased its capital stock from $3,000,000 to $6,000,000 and declared a 100 per cent stock dividend, payable to stockholders of record today.

Stockholders of the Babcock and Wilcox Company increased their capital stock from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 and a 33 1-3 per cent stock dividend will be distributed. The quarterly dividend payable next April and already declared at the rate of 2 per cent on the old stock will be changed to 1¾ per cent on the increased issue. The Solar Radning Company increased its capital stock from $2,000,000 to $4,000,000 and a 100 per cent stock dividend will be paid to stock of record December 22.

The General Baking Powder Company increased its capital stock from 150,000 to 500,000 shares of common stock of no par value and the directors will act on a stock dividend tomorrow. Directors of the Plymouth Cordage Company recommended increasing the capital stock from $4,000,000 to $8,000,000 and a 100 per cent stock dividend. The meeting will be held January 20.

The Goodman Manufacturing Company increased its capital stock from $3,000,000 to $6,000,000 for the purpose of declaring a 100 per cent stock dividend. Stockholders of the Chapman Valve Company will vote on December 19 on increasing the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 and declaring a 50 per cent stock dividend. The Pierce Manufacturing Company declared a cash dividend of $50 a share and called a stockholders' meeting to vote on increasing the capital stock from $500,000 to $1,200,000 in order to declare a 50 per cent stock dividend.

Buy Safe Bonds in A Water Company With Dependable Business Assured

San Diego County Water Company

In the northern part of San Diego County nature constructed a great drainage basin which appears intended for the ideal conservation of a dependable water supply.

Rising on all sides of this great basin wooded mountain ranges act as a water shed. Springs and marshes dot the floor of the valley. At the lower end the stream flows through a natural gorge where a dam impounds the rainfall of all seasons. This water source is dependable in wet or dry years.

In a wide section inland from the Coast at Oceanside there are over 80,000 acres of first class farming lands which can be irrigated under gravity from the waters impounded in this mountain storage lake. This acreage is greater than can ever be supplied and applications exceed the capacity thereby giving an assured demand for the water.

The San Diego County Water Company to carry on this work has issued $2,000,000 First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds, due 1962, secured by first mortgage on properties conservatively valued at more than $5,000,000. The sale of only one-fourth of the safe water supply together with land rentals to the company is sufficient to pay fixed charges on this bond issue.

We recommend these bonds for safe investment at 97 and interest to 6.20% to maturity.

An interesting description of the company and these bonds will be sent to you on your written request.

DIVERSIFICATION
—the Safeguard of the Investor

Are You Ignoring a Vital Principle of Safe Investing

Most investors recognize the principle of diversification in its application. Are you one of these?

Perhaps too many of your holdings depend upon one industry for its success—for example Railroads, Public Utilities and certain other industries all depend upon an adequate supply of Coal.

Do your securities mature in sequence? Interest rates rise and fall, so it is well not to have to re-invest all of your funds during any one period.

Are your securities so arranged as to interest payments bring you an even income stream in accordance with your financial demands? To do otherwise is to lose interest on your money.

We are preparing a Booklet on Diversification—shall we send you a copy?

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Chief interest in today's financial markets centered in the further spectacular rise in sterling exchange, demand bills touching $4.63. This was an overnight rise of 4 cents and a new high price since 1919. Extreme low was $3.18 in February, 1920. Today's rate brings the depreciation from par, which is $4.86 ... to less than 5 per cent. When the depreciation is less than 5 per cent, the customs rates are based on the par value of exchange. Thus if the present sterling rate is maintained, it will automatically serve to increase the import duties on British goods. Special operations, the nature of which was not divulged, were held responsible for the heavy selling of dollars in the London market, which precipitated the rise in sterling here.

Stock prices showed a much better tone but trading was again almost entirely a professional affair. Special stocks in which there are possibilities for extra, increased or stock dividends continued to receive the most attention. Persistent reports that the 3½ per cent annual dividend on Great Northern preferred was likely to be maintained brought about some good buying in the railroad group but early gains were materially reduced or wiped out in later transactions.

Speculative belief that Cerro de Pasco soon would be placed on a dividend basis was reflected in a 2 1-4 point gain in that stock. Chile, another South American copper, advanced 1 1-4 and Kennecott improved fractionally. Some disappointment was felt by the speculative community over the failure of the directors of the Texas Company to take action on a distribution of part of the company's $83,000,000 surplus as a stock dividend. This disappointment was reflected in a 1½ point drop in the stock.

Great Northern preferred led the advance in rails, touching $1 and then dropping back to 59½, where it represented a net gain of 2 3-8 points. St. Paul issues improved fractionaly on announcement that the Interstate Commerce Commission had approved a government loan of $10,000,000 to meet obligations maturing in January. Among the few issues which closed at net gains of a point or more were Canadian Pacific, Chicago and Northwestern and Pere Marquette.

Fisher Body was pushed up 3 points to a new high record for the year and May Department Stores established a new peak price of 179, up 6 points. Heavy buying of Baldwin just before the close sent that stock up to 135, up 3 points. United Fruit declared an extra dividend of $2, but the traditional "selling on the good news" forced a recession of 1 1-4 points in that stock. U. S. Industrial Alcohol was strong on reports that Standard Oil interests had contracted for a large part of the output. Other conspicuously strong spots were Columbia Gas, General American Tank, National Lead and Pullman, all up more than 2 points on the day.

Allied remittances, other than sterling, allowed slight recessions. Dutch guilders established a new high for the year at 40.03 cents and Norwegian kroner showed good recovery from yesterday's weakness.

Call money opened at 4 1-4 per cent, eased off to 4 before noon and dropped to 3 3-4 in the late afternoon, holding at that figure until the close. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Day's total sales, 749,000 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 97.70; net loss, .15. High 1922, 102.43; low, 78.59. Twenty railroads averaged $4.51. Net gain, .16. High 1922, 93.99; low, 73.43.

Wheat Buyers Accumulate on All Sharp Dips

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—All deliveries of wheat and the nearest futures of oats sold at a new high for the season today, the main bullish influences prevailing being small receipts, reported 150 cars of the former and 600 cars at the two points, net gains of ¼@1¼c. Corn was up ¼@¾c and rye ¼@1¼c, while December sale were 1¼ lower and distant deliveries unchanged to ¼ higher with December at ¾ under the May against 1½ over the previous day.

Wheat prices backed and filled within a moderate range the greater part of the day with free buying of both May and July on the dips by strong commission houses. Shorts sold on sharp rallies at one time due to selling of May by a house that was a good buyer recently, but the offerings quickly disappeared and the highest prices of the day were made at the last on general buying.

July wheat to commission users' attention, and had the advance with the market, but it was not quoted on the bull side of that delivery, on account of new crop months without any protection over the greater part of the bull. Sterling exchange jumped 100 points on the present basis here and at a reach the Liverpool-Chicago differential was widened somewhat, but trade for the few days.

Corn values held within relatively narrow limits until the general trade was not as large as recently. The undertone, however, was strong and the finish at the top. Sales of 300,000 bushels were made to go to stora without affecting sentiment to any great extent, although the December eased as compared with the May, closing at 1c premium. Domestic shipping demand was strong, and the basis in the sample market unchanged, with receipts 240 cars. Country offerings were smaller with cold weather increasing feeding operations.

At no time did December oats get as high as the finish of the previous day. There was persistent selling by Bunge and with 6,000 of September buying broke at the finish. Cash oats 1¼@1½c. From Monday's finish, prices for the May delivery at one time, with the finish 2¼ under, whereas recently it has been as a premium. Commission houses were the largest buyers of May futures. Shipping demand slow. Receipts, 122 cars, with 100,000 bushels sold to go to store.

Cash sell scattered; interests readily absorbed offerings of rye here, northwestern shippers being the sources of the buying. Sales of 100,000 bushels for shipment were makes, with No. 2 on track selling at 1¼@2c over December. The two months' premium reached 3@3½c.

Tried and True Alibi Wins New Chance in Court

The "mysterious stranger from whom I bought the car," used as a defense in the majority of automobile stealing cases, came near to actuality yesterday in Judge W. J. Wood's court in the trial of Jack Parker, aged 20, who was arrested on his way to San Francisco from here, with an asserted stolen machine in his possession.

Parker testified he purchased the machine from one Jack Heath, whom he had met in a dance hall and knew only two or three days. To the surprise of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Powell, two reputable business men followed Parker to the stand and swore they had seen a man answering Heath's description, riding in a car like the stolen one several days before Parker's arrest.

The jury disagreed seven to five, and a retrial was set for today. Parker was defended by Deputy Public Defender Scott.

SHOPLIFTERS NABBED

Two Women Plead Guilty to Charges of Robbing Stores

Caught with articles of women's wear concealed about her, pilfered from the counters of J. W. Robinson's, Mrs. Jewels Vogler, yesterday pleaded guilty to a shoplifting charge before Police Judge Frederickson.

Her sentence will be pronounced today. She was released on $50 bail. She gave 148 Cole Place, Walnut Park, as her home address.

Judge Frederickson ordered Mrs. James Brennon of 1917 Riverside Drive, held for sentence. She pleaded guilty to shoplifting at Hamburger's and was unable to furnish bail money. Both women were caught by operatives of the Retail Dry Goods Merchants' Association.

WINDHAM IN SADDLE AT LONG BEACH

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 12.—A businesslike administration of city affairs was promised today by Charles H. Windham, new City Manager of Long Beach in his first public statement since taking office. Courtesy, economy and efficiency in every department of the city will be the three cardinal things insisted upon under his administration, he declared to a group of newspaper men.

"The manager form of government is based upon the general principles of a railroad corporation, the citizens being the stockholders, the City Council being the board of directors and the Manager the executive head, to carry out the work authorized by the council," the former postmaster said. "The head of each department of city government will continue to be the head as long as he remains in that position. No removals or changes will be made until I have had time to check up on the efficiency of each department. No changes will ever be made for political reasons."

Efficiency of the higest grade will be looked for from every official and employee, Windham said and he added that every person on the city payroll, be his position that of a department head or ditch digger, will be encouraged to advance suggestions for the betterment of the city government.

City Manager Windham took his oath of office and qualified for a $100,000 bond, which was accepted by the City Council this morning.

The first appointments to be made by the newly appointed City Manager were announced this morning when Detective Sergeant C. F. Robberson was named captain of police and Detective J. B. Worley was given the appointment as chief of detectives in the Long Beach police department.

The officers had been filling these position for several days, having been named as acting captains by Chief of Police J. B. Yancy. Robberson has been a member of the local department since Dec. 14, 1914, when he joined the force as a patrolman. Worley has been in the department since July 1, 1919, and was formerly a member of the Canadian Royal Northwest Mounted Police.

Worley gained a national reputation through the development of a bogus check bureau within the local department, through the operation of which hundred, of bogus check operators have been apprehended here and in other cities of the country.

Orient Attache and Los Angeles Girl Married

Associate Justice Craig of the Second District Court of Appeals, in his chambers, yesterday pronounced Leonard G. Husar, former Angeleno, but at present a resident of Shanghai, China, and Miss Aloysia McLintic of 2500 Arlington avenue, man and wife.

The date of the wedding, which had been planned to occur shortly after the first of the year, was set forward following the arrival of Mr. Husar from Shanghai, where he is attached as attorney to the office of the United States Consul. The latter is en route to Washington on what is understood to be an official mission connected with information relative to opium smuggling into this country from Chinese ports.

Following yesterday's ceremony, at which Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Blake and John T. Long, the bridegroom's stepfather, were witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. Husar left for the East. They will return to Los Angeles in three weeks, to remain a few days before sailing for China.

The bride is the daughter of A. J. McLintic of Los Angeles. Mr. Husar, who went to the post at Shanghai a year ago, was formerly a deputy in the office of the City Prosecutor.

RESORT PERMIT GIVEN

Roadhouse to Be Established on New Thoroughfare

Supervisor Charlton of the Angeles Reserve, has granted to the Lake Arrowhead Company a permit for the establishment of a resort and roadhouse, half way on the new thoroughfare just opened between Hesperia and Lake Arrowhead.

It is proposed to make the new road a toll affair, and a proposition to that effect is now pending before the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors. The road, which affords access to Lake Arrowhead all winter, cost more than $130,000.

Venice Purchasing Agent Leaves Post as Economy Move

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VENICE, Dec. 12.—Gus R. Voss, Venice Purchasing Agent, acting upon a request of Trustees made to him two weeks ago, formally tendered his resignation to that body. It will become effective on the 15th inst. Mr. Voss was asked to resign solely as a matter of economy to the city. Mayor Gerety instructed the City Clerk to write a letter to Mr. Voss, thanking him for his efficient services.

OIL STOCK SELLERS GET CONTINUANCE

The case of Frank Thompson, H. C. Staggs and C. E. Funnell, indicted on charges of violating the Corporate Securities Act, was continued by Judge Shenk yesterday until Friday. The men appeared in court on a demurrer to the indictment.

They are charged with having sold stock in the National Consolidated Petroleum Company without a permit and are also said to have been associated with Alva E. Smith, now awaiting trial at Yuma for asserted bank-wrecking activities.

UNETHICAL PRACTICE IS CHARGED

Disbarment of Attorneys May Result From County Jail Investigation

As a result of certain disclosures made known by an investigating committee of the weekly meeting of the Los Angeles County Bar Association held at the Angelus Hotel yesterday, certain Los Angeles attorneys may be disbarred from further practice of law in this city, it was declared.

The committee, headed by W. J. Ford, former Assistant District Attorney, and composed of Attorneys Oliver O. Clark, Frank C. Collier, Marshall Stinson and Charles A. Post, in carrying on an investigation of conditions at the County Jail, claim to have found that certain Los Angeles attorneys are getting business from criminal prisoners through the co-operation of trusties and employees of the jail, and that by so doing are delaying the trials of many criminal cases and carrying on an unethical practice.

To relieve the congestion of the jail, arrangements are under way whereby all civil cases on the court dockets will be carried over until late in January and the first two weeks of that month be devoted to the trial of criminal cases, declared Carlos S. Hardye, who was chairman of the Bar Association meeting yesterday. He added that the would create eight divisions of the criminal courts in place of the present four divisions, and criminal cases would be disposed of at a much speedier rate.

Gov.-Elect Richardson, in his address before members of the association, urged that a committee of attorneys be appointed to confer with Los Angeles newspaper editors to the end that less publicity may be given important criminal cases such as the Phillips and Kennedy murder trials.

"Law and Order" was the subject of an address delivered by Bishop J. J. Cantwell of the Catholic diocese.

POMONANS MARRIED 60 YEARS AGO

Anniversary is Celebrated With Informal Reception at Sweet Home

Sixty years of happiness in wedlock were concluded yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. James Sweet of Pomona with an informal reception at their home for their old friends, children and other relatives.

Mr. Sweet will be 82 years old in January and his life mate will be 79 years old the same month. They were married in Dixon, Ill., Dec. 11, 1862. He was born in Delaware county, N. Y., and she in Iowa, but both moved to Illinois while children. Mr. Smith is a retired farmer.

Unlike most couples, who do their pioneering in youth, Mr. and Mrs. Sweet waited until they had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary before leaving Illinois to seek a home in the West. They moved to Pomona in May, 1913, and have lived there since that time. They are the parents of four children and have thirteen grandchildren and twenty-four great-grandchildren, all of whom are living.

ENGINEERS CHECK ON STATE HIGHWAY

LAND OWNERS APPROVE SURVEY AT SANTA MONICA CANYON ENTRANCE

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 12.—For the purpose of verifying grades and deciding the feasibility of improvements for the State highway at the entrance of Santa Monica Canyon, Spencer Cortelyou, assistant division engineer of the State Highway Commission, and H. C. Reeder, resident engineer at Los Angeles, went over the land today to check on engineering data.

Following a conference between the engineers and Frank E. Bundy and Engineer Albright of the Santa Monica Land Company, the survey as it affected their land was approved by the owners.

Improvements will consist of the bridging of the water channel at the canyon entrance, reducing the road grade to the same general level and leveling Pacific Electric bridges and dirt embankments.

HORTICULTURE CHIEF GOES TO CONVENTION

H. A. Ryan, County Commissioner of Horticulture, arrived in Sacramento yesterday to attend the convention of the California Fruit Growers' Association to be held there this week.

The convention, which is to include the commissioners of the entire State, is for the purpose of taking up and discussing some important problems of transportation developing since the last meeting. They will also bring up the current legislative movements and will probably pass resolutions on those that touch the fruit-growing industry.

Fruit growers from all parts of the State are to be present at the gathering, which will last the full week.

FEDERAL INSURANCE MAY BE REINSTATED

Veterans of the World War who carried insurance while in the service but who have permitted it to lapse may now reinstate their policies with the government, according to an announcement received here from the United States War Risk Insurance Bureau. Reinstatement is permitted regardless of the length of time the policy has lapsed if the applicant is not totally and permanently disabled at the time the application is made. Further information on this matter can be obtained from the United States Veterans' Bureau, 322 Pacific Mutual Building, this city.

CHAMBER IS HOST AT LUNCHEON

Imperial Valley Men Are Guests for Discussion of Colorado River

Vital interest in the Colorado River development and problems of the Imperial Valley will make the Chamber of Commerce luncheon this noon at the Alexandria one of the most popular affairs arranged by the chamber.

Over a score of the valley's business and city representatives have accepted the invitation of the chamber to be guests of the organization and present their views on the projected development of the Colorado River. According to a communication received by Secretary Frank Wiggins the following will be at the luncheon:

E. W. Cuff, Brawley, president Associated Chambers of Commerce; L. M. Hutchinson, Calexico, president Chamber of Commerce; E. A. Shacklett of the Imperial Chamber of Commerce; William Lowther, president of the Brawley Commercial Club and Thomas Montgomery of the Calipatria Chamber of Commerce. It is hoped that Mayor W. S. Fawcett of El Centro will be in attendance together with H. H. Clark, representing the Mayor of Calexico.

Guests of the chamber are not only providing speakers of the occasion, but also the chief dish. Three hundred choicest grapefruit and 300 heads of the valley's early lettuce crop will be served.

Upon the invitation of the bureau of industrial music of the chamber, special music will be provided by Constance Balfour, Harold Prooter, Frank Geiger and Alice Lohr.

WOOLWINE TO DISCUSS WRIGHT ACT

County Officials Invited to Consider Means of Law Enforcement

Letters calling for a conference in the District-Attorney's office on the 14th inst. for a discussion of means of enforcing the Wright Act where issued yesterday by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Burke on behalf of Dist.-Atty. Woolwine.

The letters were sent to the mayors and chiefs of police of the six larger cities in the county, Glendale, Pasadena, Pomona, Santa Monica and Whittier. Officials of other cities were also invited to attend the conference. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m.

It was stated in the letters that Mr. Woolwine's office intends to enforce the Wright Act fully and is desirous that all officers understand just what they can do. For one thing, it was stated by Mr. Burke, the law does not permit search of a house without a search warrant, and that a search warrant cannot be obtained "upon mere thinking that there is liquor" in the dwelling. It is necessary to have knowledge that a sale of liquor has taken place in the house before the warrant can be issued.

The mayors and chiefs were asked to bring with them copies of their local liquor ordinances.

It is rumored that Burch has already completed arrangements to open the mentor-accessory store here. The fact that he took a correspondence school course in auto salesmanship during his imprisonment lends credence to this belief.

TENANTS OF HOMES IN HARBOR WILLED HOUSES THEY OCCUPY

Though he has gone to a mansion beyond the skies, George Noe, pioneer resident of Los Angeles Harbor, left behind him bequests that may immortalize him as the kindest landlord who ever signed a rent receipt.

Mr. Noe died last Friday, leaving an estate of $25,000. Among his holdings were five houses at the harbor, each of them bringing a good rent.

When his will was admitted to probate yesterday it was learned that he had bequeathed the houses to the families living in them who had been his tenants. He left no relatives.

Hard Fight by Firemen Prevents Spread of Fire to Other Buildings

Scenes in Downtown Fire

Assistant Fire Chief Davis is shown in the top picture rushing foamide hose to varnish tanks. He is the man nearest the nozzle. Below is a glimpse of the firemen boosting their apparatus to an adjoining roof for action.

AN explosion which shook windows for several blocks, threw portions of a tank 500 feet and caused serious burns to one workman, occurred yesterday during a fire which destroyed the plant of the Brininstool Paint and Varnish Manufacturing Company, Mesquite and Sixth streets. The loss was about $35,000.

The fire, which started shortly before noon, was highly spectacular and lasted an hour and a half, during which time firemen had a hard fight to save a large wooden warehouse of the Los Angeles Furniture Company, adjoining the wrecked plant. The rear wall of the warehouse was scorched by the intense heat of the burning paint and varnish, and caught fire several times.

J. H. Anthony of 1727 Wilton place was the man injured. He was burned about the head, face and arms, and was removed to his home.

The paint factory was filled with large stills and tanks of paint and raw varnish, and in the yard were nearly a thousand metal barrels of paint, most of which were burned. The fire is believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion.

The drizzling rain which fell aided the firemen greatly in controlling the blaze and prevented its spread to other properties. The factory building was practically a total loss.

DRUG RING TALE DOUBTED

Los Angeles Detectives Infer Report Involving Film Celebrities is Exaggerated or Inaccurate

Detectives of the Los Angeles narcotic squad doubted the importance last night of dispatches from New York declaring that Dr. Carleton Simon, special deputy police commissioner in that city, had discovered a nation-wide drug distributing organization, with an agent in Hollywood.

Dr. Simon was quoted as declaring he had the names of eight Hollywood customers of the organization, prominent in theatrical and film circles, which he refused to make public.

The detectives say the Hollywood man, believed by Dr. Simon to be local agent of the organization, is merely a drug user and has never been connected with drug traffic, so far as their knowledge goes.

Dr. Simon made his disclosures following the arrest of William Williams of 269 West Eleventh street, New York, which is in the heart of the Greenwich Village section, and two other men. He declared Williams had made a confession and surrendered a "trade list" containing the names of many actors and actresses well known to the public in New York, Atlantic City, Hollywood and elsewhere.

Dr. Simon considered Williams's revelations of "tremendous importance" and said he expected developments of an "astounding nature" to result.

Williams said he built up his Hollywood trade, according to Dr. Simon, through clients he had served in New York, when they

JAMES FOY IS DEAD IN PASADENA

Long Illness Fatal to Member of Old Southern California Family

James Calvert Foy, member of an old family of Southern California, died yesterday after an illness of more than a year at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Lucinda M. Foy, widow of the late Samuel Calvert Foy, 400 San Rafael avenue, Pasadena.

Mr. Foy was 57 years old. He retired from active business several years ago. He was one of the first initiated members of Ramona Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, and a member of the California Yacht Club.

His mother and four sisters survive. The sisters are Mary Foy, Mrs. Thomas Lee Woolwine, Mrs. Edna Neher and Mrs. Florence Olmstead.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10:30 a.m. from the Church of the Angels, Avenue 64, near Garvanza. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

DOCTOR IS ARRESTED

Charged with violation of the State Poison Act, Dr. William J. Laird was arrested yesterday and arraigned before Justice Hanby, who released him on his own recognizance pending a hearing. It is asserted that Dr. Laird sold to a Mrs. Belinda Rheinstrom more than one-fourth of a grain of morphine. The offense is a misdemeanor.

GROWTH OF CITY SHOWN BY REPORT

Concrete evidence of the city's amazing growth from year to year is contained in the annual report submitted to the Public Service Commission yesterday by Chief Engineer Mulholland of the City Bureau of Water Works and Supply.

The report covers the fiscal year of the bureau, which ended on June 30, last. It shows that 16,759 new services were installed by the bureau during this period, as compared with 12,628 services installed in the preceding fiscal year. The report also shows that 116 miles of pipe line were laid by the bureau in this period, while last year but seventy-eight miles of pipe line were laid.

Included in this work were 9389 tons of cast-iron mains which were also placed by the bureau in this period.

Mr. Mulholland, in his report, declares that the present water supply here is sufficient for a population of 2,000,000 to 2,500,000. However, he cautioned the city against being "overgenerous in extending its boundaries to include great arid areas."

VISITORS BANDITS VICTIMS

Oklahoma Couple Robbed of $10,000 in Cash and Gems by Automobile Thieves in Hollywood

Four bandits held up Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hill last night at El Centro and Fountain avenues and took almost $10,000 in cash and jewels from the couple.

Mr. Hill, an oil operator who came here with his wife from Tulsa, Okla., a week ago, was driving his car when the automobile with the bandits drew up beside him and forced him to the curb.

The four men then jumped from their machine and forced Mr. and Mrs. Hill to get out in the rain.

ORDER GLOVES OFF

After they had taken $1800 in currency from Mr. Hill they ordered his wife to take her gloves off.

"We've been following you two for four days," one of them said, "and we want those rings." From Mrs. Hill's fingers they took three diamond rings valued at $2500 each, but missed another ring valued at $4000 which she was not wearing.

Mr. Hill is offering a reward of $1000 for the arrest of the bandits

...tive-Sergts. Carlson and Bagg of the Hollywood station have been assigned to the case.

TWO ACCUSED OF BUNKO PLOT

Fake Doctor and Aide Held as Extortionists

Pair Said to Have Obtained Thousands of Dollars

With the arrest yesterday of James F. Palmer, alias "Dr." James F. Bennett, aged 26, and Henry Kane, 26, on suspicion of extortion, police believe they have exposed a new bunko game in which scores of persons in various parts of the United States have been swindled out of thousands of dollars.

Palmer and Kane are asserted by Detective Sergeants Barr, Oker, Lloyd and Roberts to have used Los Angeles as their headquarters in a confidence game for more than a year.

The "racket" in question is said to have been worked as follows:

WROTE TO PARENTS

Letters would be sent to the parents, signed by "Dr." Bennett, 416-17 Metropolitan Building, stating that their son had been injured in an accident and was under the care of a physician. A request would be made for money to defray the expenses of treatment.

Last April Detectives Lloyd and Roberts investigated the activities of Palmer and Kane. They seized approximately fifty letters, including some written to parents and others stating that funds ranging from $10 to $200 had been sent to Dr. Bennett. The two men disappeared. They returned recently and were watched.

Investigation disclosed that the Metropolitan Building address was fictitious. Postoffice officials informed police that Dr. Bennett was having his mail transferred to the substation at Third street and Central avenue, using Box 147.

TELEGRAM FROM BOISE

Meanwhile a telegram from Chief of Police H. F. Griffith of Boise, Idaho, that the parents of Howard Sage had been asked to send money to "Dr." Bennett to pay for medical attention. He asked that this be investigated. Another message came from B. A. Abelin of Holdingford, Minn., who was suspicious of a similar request to cover the cost of treatment for James Meagher.

When Kane called at the Central-avenue substation for mail yesterday he was followed by Detectives Barr and Oker. He met Palmer a few blocks away and both were taken into custody. Letters in their possession were seized and are being held as evidence.

DRUG STORE ABATEMENT THREATENS

Reports of Persistent Bootlegging Draw Eye of Legal Adviser

W. J. Gloria, legal adviser of the national prohibition director, announced yesterday that the policy of the local prohibition enforcement agents hereafter will be to invoke the abatement feature of the Volstead law in all cases where drug stores have been proved guilty of two previous violations of the liquor laws.

The present trip of Mr. Gloria to this city has to do with the report that several drug stores in Los Angeles are bootlegging. It is said that some of these dealers are the most persistent violators of the prohibition law. It is proposed to close up the business of druggists who seek the fat profits of the illicit trade. There are at least a half-dozen drug stores in Los Angeles, it is said, that have given the prohibition enforcement agents much trouble.

Pro-Cathedral Contract Let; Ready in Year

When the vestrymen of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral opened the five bids submitted for erection of the new cathedral building last night, it was found that Peter Hall, a Pasadena contractor, had made the lowest bid, and the contract was formally awarded to him at approximately $270,000.

Work will be begun at once. The cathedral building will be completed within one year, and the new parish house, included in the contract figure, is to be ready for use in nine months.

The new cathedral will be at 611 South Figueroa street, a site ninety feet south of the intersection of Figueroa and Sixth street, and almost opposite the Gates Hotel. The lot, which fronts for 132 feet on South Figueroa street, has a depth of 245 feet. It was purchased in January of this year for $185,000 cash, soon after the old Pro-Cathedral site on Olive street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, was sold to the builders of the Biltmore Hotel for $460,000 cash.

TO USHER IN NEW YEAR

A special New Year's Eve entertainment will be held at the Alexandria, beginning at 9 p.m. Music is to be furnished by the Alexandria Orchestra. There will also be cabaret features.

GOLDEN STATE CINEMA LEADER

First Complete Federal Statistics Issued

Los Angeles Produces Over 60 Per Cent

Sixty-eight Film Plants in California

Full statistics of the motion-picture industry, included for the first time in the manufacturers' census figures compiled by the Department of Commerce at Washington and made public for the first time last night, show that California leads the Union with the largest number of motion-picture establishments and more than 60 per cent of the value of all production during 1921. Virtually all of the plants listed are in and about Los Angeles.

For many years since the establishment of the motion-picture industry the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has insisted that the figures should be a regular portion of the manufacturing record the same as any other industry.

Until the year 1921 this request was ignored by the department, and now the first figures ever compiled by Federal agents are given out.

The first statement shows an army of more than 10,000 directly engaged in the work on regular salary, and a total payroll of over $37,000,000, with a total value of products of almost $100,000,000. These figures are for 1921, when the industry was depressed, and before production reached its present scale.

VALUE ENORMOUS

There were 127 establishments engaged primarily in the production of motion pictures during 1921, with products valued at approximately $77,397,000. This does not include establishments which reported production valued at less than $5000 each.

It is quite difficult to place a market value on the finished pictures, and the value of products reported is to a great extent the cost of production. However, some establishments reported an estimated value based on rentals received or on the value of similar pictures previously disposed of.

Of the 127 establishments, eighty-three have been classified as producers of motion pictures, and forty-four as producers of projection films (positive.) the latter classification including the development of exposed films and other laboratory work. In the first-mentioned class the majority were en...

"HOW PERFECTLY ABSURD!"

"Of Course, I am Not Engaged to Herb Rawlinson," Embryo Film Actress Tells Reporter

"Engaged to Herb Rawlinson? How absurd! Of course I'm not, and what's more, I never have been."

Pretty 18-year-old Dorothy Keating, former Los Angeles High School student, tossed her blond curls and looked witheringly yesterday morning at the mere reporter that dared to ask such a question. She was found at her home, 918½ South Hoover street.

"Sure, I know Herb. We have been dear friends for years. He's a wonderful man. Of course I have seen him lately. It was last week. But we are not engaged, never have been—and don't you dare print a word about it."

Miss Keating, who recently started her film career via the "atmosphere" route, said that she has known the popular film star for more than ten years.

"I knew him back in New York. He was a friend of the family's. And when we came to California I happened to meet him over at Catalina. What? Why, of course, why shouldn't old friends see each other once in a while? And what if I do go out with him now and then; that doesn't make us engaged, does it?"

Qualifying the whole idea as a huge joke, Miss Keating said the only thing that saved her from "getting mad over the report" was her sense of humor.

"I like Herb wonderfully, he's a perfect dear, and I must call him up and tell him that we are engaged, maybe he doesn't know about it."

Mother is Natural Protector, Declares Judge

Mrs. Lily Gentz

JUDGE SUMMERFIELD yesterday made it clear to William T. Gentz, publicity director for Robertson-Cole, Inc., "that the natural guardian of a child is its mother unless she is shown to be morally unfit."

Lily Gentz and her husband were in court each fighting for the possession of their infant son. Mrs. Gentz has a divorce suit pending, in which she charges extreme cruelty. She asserts that Gentz aided in kidnaping their son and has concealed the child's whereabouts.

In behalf of Gentz it was said that his wife refused to live with him. He blamed his mother-in-law for the domestic disagreement. The court held that Gentz did ...t have to live with his mother-in-law and refused to accept this as a basis for withholding the child from his mother.

"I will order the child delivered to his mother today," said the judge. He also allowed the wife $20 a week alimony pending the divorce hearing.

Gentz said he was occupying their home and that his wife was living in a small house in the rear. He said his home was open to her if she wished to take advantage of it.

The publicity director sprung a surprise on Mrs. Gentz. As she was leaving the courtroom she was served with a summons in a cross-complaint for divorce filed by him.

Attorneys Hamilton and Lessard represented Mrs. Gentz and Attorney W. C. Bruce appeared for the husband.

Beach Woman is Arraigned for Bulow Shooting

Mrs. Lillian Moores, 418 East Twenieth street, Long Beach, was arraigned before Justice Forbes yesterday afternoon upon a charge of assault with a deadly weapon as the result of an asserted duel between her and Walter Bulow, also of Long Beach Saturday night.

Her preliminary hearing will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, December 20.

Mrs. Bulow, who was with her husband when he was shot by Mrs. Moores, has intimated that neither she nor her hubsand will appear against Mrs. Moores if his condition continues to improve.

WIGGLING TOES CAUSE TROUBLE

Husband Makes an Unusual Assertion

Suing Wife Declares She Was Spanked

"Only Love Pats" is Alibi of Spouse

One of the many causes why the married life of Russell F. Koontz and Esther M. Koontz did not run smoothly was, Koontz told Judge Hahn yesterday, because she "wiggled her toes in bed."

Mrs. Koontz sued for divorce and charged that her husband slapped her; put her over his knee and spanked her; swore at her and did not kiss her except on good-by occasions.

Koontz, a young glassworker, declared he loved his wife and wanted her to come back to him. He said if it was not a case of mother-in-law his wife would return, if only for the sake of their young son.

SPANKINGS ADMITTED

He admitted he spanked his wife, but explained it this way:

"She is as strong as I am. Tussling in fun, I would put her over my knee and spank her. We were cutting up."

"Did she resent it?" asked the court.

"No; I don't see why she did not like it."

He said he kissed his wife when he returned from work in the evening, and added:

"She did not like that kissing very much."

"She says you slapped her?"

"The slaps were just love taps," was the reply.

"You swore at her?"

BOTH SWORE, HE SAYS

"Well, when I swore she swore back."

"What about this life or death threat she testified to?"

"I did not say it was life or death to her if she left. It was not a threat. I said it meant life or death to me."

Koontz candidly admitted the blame for their possible misunderstandings.

"You love your wife?"

"I do, and want her back."

The couple were married in Santa Ana July 14, 1914, and separated January 15 last.

DRILL EVERYWHERE OR NO PLACE AT ALL

LONG BEACH CITIZENS WANT UNIFORM OIL WELL REGULATIONS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 12.—"Oil for all or oil for none," is the slogan presented to the City Council today by a number of property owners of the northern section of Long Beach, when they appeared before the city fathers to protest the lifting of drilling restrictions in the vicinity of Hill street, American and California avenues.

A number of property owners told the Council that a definite policy of drilling within the city limits would be adopted and that either the entire city should be thrown open to oil derricks or the city should be closed to them. Protests followed the granting of drilling permits within certain limits and refusal to grant permits in other districts. No action in the matter will be taken by the Council until after the return of Councilman Worwman, it was said.

[P. & A. Photo.]

GOWNED in white georgette and wearing the biggest orchid that could be found in Southern California, Miss Ora Carew, popular motion-picture star, in the presence of a score of relatives and intimate friends, was married at noon yesterday to John C. Howard, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Whytock Carew, 1559 Winona Boulevard, Hollywood.

If they don't get snowed under by the showers of rice destined to descend upon their romantic heads, Mr. and Mrs. Howard will leave Los Angeles via the Santa Fe at 11:30 a.m. today, going first to Haverhill, Mass., to visit the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howard. From Boston they will proceed to New York and will return to Los Angeles in January, when Miss Carew will make preparations to star in her own company with her husband as principal business adviser.

The wedding was performed by Dr. James Hamilton Lash, pastor of the Hollywood Congregational Church, with Miss Evelyn Carew, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, Ernest Chapin being best man. The flower girls were Miss Lotus Grant, Miss Shannon Day and Mrs. Marie McKeen Humphreys.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred North, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Feugate Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Don Dignan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Groom; Mmes. J. G. Sebastian, Margaret Goodrich, Cecelia W. Curry, Mr. Chic McGill and Master John Lehners.

Two weeks ago Mr. Howard wired to his father, who is a multimillionaire salad-dressing manufacturer, that he intended to marry the pretty screen actress, whom he had met several months ago. At that time Miss Carew would neither confirm nor defey the statement and reports concerning her marriage. Today she can't very well deny it—and admitted yesterday that she doesn't wish to deny it.

FREIGHT RATES CUT BY SOUTHERN PACIFIC

CHARGES REDUCED TO MEET COMPETITION THROUGH PANAMA CANAL

Reduced rates on several important California products were announced by the Southern Pacific yesterday from Los Angeles Harbor points, San Diego, Oakland and San Francisco, via Galveston and the Espee steamship lines. They are made to meet competition via the Panama Canal, the announcement says, and are effective January 15.

Canned goods are reduced from $1.05 to 70 cents a hundred; asphalt from 75 to 70 cents; dried beans and peas from $1.05 to 70 cents; boxed dried fruit from $1.25 to 80 cents; dried fruit in sacks from $1.45 to $1, and rice from 83 to 70 cents.

The rates affect all California points, the statement says.

were on the stage or in the New Jersey film studios.

"I still serve them," Williams was quoted as saying. "Naturally that brought me other patrons whom they recommended. I understand the stuff isn't so easy to get out there."

He declined to say, according to police officials, whether he conducted his Hollywood traffic by mail or through an agent on the ground, but Dr. Simon said he had evidence indicating the latter, and would "start an investigation leading across the continent to determine the matter." Williams said he got his drugs from sailors from foreign ports.

Williams was held in $10,000 bail on a local charge and will be arraigned also on a Federal charge, the dispatches said.

Dr. Simon gave out several letters and telegrams signed "Evelyn Nesbit" and "Evelyn Nesbit Thaw" which he said he had seized in Williams's rooms together with $50,000 worth of drugs and paraphernalia. Williams is said to have admitted these missives were orders for drugs.

One of the messages read:

Dear Mr. Williams—Have been in bed with the worst cold of my life. All my affairs are at a standstill. However, am sending you check. Hope the market is only for you and that if I invest in stock you advise you will be only also. When see you will tell you exactly how I hope to better my stock investment. Many thanks for such dandy prompt service. Believe me, I appreciate same and will prove my gratitude when I see you. Sincerely, Evelyn Nesbit."

A letter postmarked Atlantic City, August 22, this year, said: "My dear Mr. W.: Next time you want to communicate with me you must address me in care of the Palais Royale, Kentucky avenue, Boardwalk. Also, on general principles, which you come again to Atlantic City it is always well to bring fresh parts for the car. These last sparkplugs seemed to be of inferior grade. They break at the slightest pressure. I understand some other brands are better. Always bring a small-sized outfit and let me know when you are coming, for you generally arrive late in the day. I cannot get in the bank, but if I knew you were coming I could prepare for you. Sincerely, E. N."

About 1500 letters and telegrams, mainly in code, were found in a trunk in Williams's room, Dr. Simon declares.

gaged exclusively in the production of the pictures, their laboratory work being done by independent companies or, in the case of some of the larger concerns, in separate plants of their own.

ITEMS OF EXPENSE

The "cost of materials" reported by these establishments included amounts paid for the unexposed films; for building materials for the construction of scenery, etc.; for wardrobe, purchased or rented; expenses for locations, light and storm effects, titles and inserts, scenarios, stories, etc.

A few establishments did both kinds of work though the motion-picture work was limited to short scenic subjects, educational, advertising and business films. The other forty-four establishments did laboratory work only, reporting as "materials" negative stocks, positive raw films, developing chemicals, dyes, artists' materials, miscellaneous supplies, containers, etc.

The establishments were located as follows: sixty-eight in California; twenty in New York; thirteen in New Jersey; eight in Illinois; five in Pennsylvania; three each in Michigan and Minnesota; two in Ohio and one each in Indiana, Iowa, Oregon, Rhode Island and Washington.

CALIFORNIA'S POSITION

California, the leading State in the industry in 1921, reported 61.5 per cent of the total value of products for the year. The combined output of all establishments was approximately 65 per cent of the maximum capacity, based upon a demand requiring full running time.

No attempt was made at the 1919 census to obtain data covering the production of motion pictures. Statistics were collected in regard to the reproduction or printing from the negative of motion-picture projection films and were published in connection with statistics of photographic materials. Reports of this nature were received from fifty establishments, showing products valued at $36,705,000 in 1919; however, these figures cannot be used for purposes of comparison as some of the establishments reported other than laboratory work.

As operator E. P. Perry turned from the cash register after ringing up the sale, he confronted the drawn revolvers of the trio, who forced him to go into the rear of the station while they emptied the cash register and drove away.

C. Hayasi, Japanese grocery man with a shop at 2527 Compton avenue, had his cash drawer looted of $127.70 by three armed negroes, and a bandit working alone took $13 from a clerk in the store of the Rogar Drug Company, 7600 Moneta avenue.

Charles H. Jones Lumber Magnate Dead in Tacoma

Word was received here yesterday of the death in Tacoma of Charles H. Jones, pioneer lumber and shipping man of the Pacific Coast and well known in this city. Mr. Jones at one time owned the steamships Beaver and Bear in the coastwise passenger trade and was formerly associated with the W. H. Perry Lumber Company and the Consolidated Lumber Company of this city. He was 77 years of age.

Mr. Jones retired some years ago from active business but was still a large stockholder in lumber plants of the Northwest. He was the founder of the St. Paul and Tacoma Lumber Company on Puget Sound and president of the North Western Lumber Company of Hoquiam, Wash. This was one of the principal establishments for the sawing of spruce for government airplanes during the war.

Mr. Jones was a native of Vermont.

RUNNING DOWN PHILLIPS TIPS

Phillips, who was arrested by police of Casper, Wyo., Monday night, yesterday established her identity as Beatrice Craig of Kirby, Wyo. She said she had been working in a rooming-house in a Wyoming town as a maid. A gold tooth helped her establish her identity, according to word received from Wyoming. She also is much heavier than Mrs. Phillips, weighing 155 pounds, while the "tiger" woman weighs only 122.

In order to hasten extradition in case Mrs. Phillips is apprehended in another State, a complaint charging her with "breaking from and injuring the County Jail" was sworn to by Deputy Sheriff Dewar and issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McClelland yesterday. The complaint also will enable officers to enter houses legally in their search for the missing woman.

PHILLIPS TO LEAVE

Armour Phillips, husband of Clara, has been given permission by the Sheriff to return to his former home in Houston, Tex., it was stated, and has planned on departing the latter part of the week.

In connection with the proposed arrangement between local officials and Leandro Garza Leal, Mexican Consul, regarding the possible exchange of a Mexican fugitive from justice now in California for Mrs. Phillips, should she be found in Mexico, the Consul yesterday dispatched letters to the Governor of Lower California and the commander of military forces in the northern district, explaining the situation.

In the meantime the Sheriff's office had assured the Mexican officials of their willingness to cooperate in the exchange, and it is believed no difficulty will be experienced in the return of Mrs. Phillips from Mexico, should she be found in that country.

Don't Let Stuck Up Stamps Stop Philanthrophy

"Don't let your ardor of Christmas philanthropy receive a wet blanket just because, by reason of the rainy weather, the 100 Christmas seals sent you through the mail by the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association are a bit sticky and seem to cling together."

So says Miss Sidney Maguire, executive secretary, in a bulletin issued yesterday from the general headquarters of the association in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

"If your stamps did not arrive in first-class condition for sealing your Christmas packages and holiday mail, simply return them with a notation to 522 Chamber of Commerce Building, or mail us a postal or call Main 4201, and a new lot will be sent you," says the charity executive.

Mrs. Daisy Canfield Danziger, heading the drive, is well pleased with the response, but asks that those who have not yet sent in their dollar for the stamps sent them do so at once to avoid mail congestion in the headquarters just before Christmas.

New Trail From Mt. Wilson Open to San Gabriel

The new trail from Mt. Wilson to the west fork of the San Gabriel River has been completed and is now open to travel, according to Ernest De Vore, manager of West Fork Camp.

Branching off from the auto road half a mile from the summit of Mt. Wilson, the trail follows Cedar Brook Canyon into the west fork. The trail was built with funds donated by hikers, mountain resorts, the Sierra Club of Southern California and the Switzerland Hiking Club. Work on the trail was started about a year ago.

Prof. and Mrs. Ralph Tyler Flewelling of the University of Southern California were the first hikers over the new trail.

CRASH VICTIM HAS BRAIN CONCUSSION

Clarence McCulley, 19, of 2224 West Thirty-fifth Place, suffered concussion of the brain last night when he was struck by an automobile driven by W. P. Bishop, 1157 West Thirty-sixth Place. The accident happened at the intersection of Thirtieth Place and Lamont avenue. Surgeons at the Receiving Hospital declared McCulley had better than an even chance for life.

Homer Grunn Compositions Wafted From KHJ

Single Exception is Noted on Radio Bill

Children Are Entertained by Girls' Quartette

Seldom does radioland hear a musical program of the nature KHJ broadcast last night. With one exception every number was the composition of one mind. Moreover, that mind directed the execution of his compositions—another feature uncommon in KHJ broadcast concerts.

Homer Grunn, pianist-composer, gave what was essentially a Grunn evening of music and song, assisted by Bertha W. Vaughn, soprano; Lawrence Dixon, tenor; Robert Allen, 'cellist; Marshall Stedman, flutist; Carl Buratti, cornet soloist, together with several members of the Uplifters' Club Orchesta, an organization composed of members of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Musical compositions coming from the pen of Homer Grunn are assured the admiration of music lovers, especially when they are personally interpreted by the composer. In the program arranged through his courtesy, he selected artists in whom he had implicit confidence that their work with his musical scores would fall short in no particular of the manner in which he most desired they be presented.

ORCHESTRA HEARD

As the Grunn evening progressed the versatility of the composer became apparent through the diversity of the numbers given. Mr. Grunn's personal contributions last night were two piano solos—"Moonlight" and "In Springtime," the latter a concert waltz. The clear phrasing, sympathetic technique and finesse with which Mr. Grunn interprets were refreshing.

Children Are Entertained by Uplifters' Quartette

When does radioland hear a musical program of the nature KHJ offered last night. With one exception every number was the production of one mind. Moreover, that mind directed the execution of his compositions—an added feature uncommon in KHJ radio concerts.

Homer Grunn, pianist-composer, gave what was essentially a Grunn evening of music and song, assisted by Bertha W. Vaughn, soprano; Owen Rizer, tenor; Robert Allen, violist; Marshall Stedman, reader; Carl Buratti, cornet soloist, together with several members of the Ordway Club Orchestra, an organization composed of members of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The musical compositions coming from the pen of Homer Grunn are worthy the admiration of music lovers, especially when they are so capably interpreted by the combination in the program arranged with his courtesy, he selected artists in whom he had implicit confidence that their work with musical scores would fall short in particular of the manner in which he most desired they be presented.

ORCHESTRA HEARD

As the Grunn evening progressed the versatility of the composer became apparent through the diversity of the numbers given. Mr. Grunn's personal contributions last night were two piano solos—"Moonlight" and "In Springtime," the latter a concert waltz. The clear ringing, sympathetic technique with which Mr. Grunn played were refreshing.

Two East Indian impressions—"The Flute God," "Incantation" and "Fan Dance"—were given as encore numbers by the Uplifters' Club Orchestra, with Mr. Grunn at the piano.

Laurence Dixon, tenor soloist, who has toured the Northwest, and has been three times soloist with the Seattle Symphony and also leading tenor with the Nedw World Opera Company, sang two of Mr. Grunn's composition last night, clothing them with an individuality and charm. Mr. Dixon recently came to Los Angeles from New York.

POET READS

Marshall Stedman, poet, carried out the idea of original compositions by giving several readings of his own works, which emphasized the idea that poetry is the music of literature.

Carl L. Buratti, cornet soloist, upon whom listeners-in on KHJ look as an old friend and favorite, so converted have they become to his appealing cornet interpretations, besides joining with the Uplifters' Club Orchestra, rendered a colorful Grunn number, "Sacred Song Tarry Ye."

Robert Altera, whose ability as a 'cello soloist is recognized in the Southland, gave an interpretation of Mr. Grunn's "Arabian Dance," which carried with it into the minds of listeners a picture of oriental setting, and while things Arabian suggest desert wastes and arid stretches, still the

GOING WET

The government is asking appropriations of $72,000,000 for the deepening and improvement of the nation's waterways. Does this look like a bone-dry country?

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A name doesn't seem to mean anything. One Frances Willard has been arrested here for bootlegging. She was purveying moonshine in a snappy roadster and ran afoul of the law. The name is not likely to ease her penalty.

NOT SO WORSE

It is said that the government wastes over 16,000,000 pounds of paper every season in printing blanks that are never used. That is nothing. Over in Germany they would use the paper for printing marks and that would be worse than wasting it.

SAFETY IN NUMBERS

Burch is never able to get a unanimous decision. Three juries divided on his conviction and when his sanity was in question three of the seven doctors thought him nutty. If this had been a big-league game, with only one umpire, where would Burch be now?

PUBLICITY NOTE

Senator Inman having published his letter to Senator Breed before he had written it and Senator Breed having answered it before it was received, the typewriters may go blithely to work. The battling Senator is pretty certain to get a Remington for his Oliver.

THE LOOKOUT

An English writer and observer makes his daily contributions of sex stuff to the American papers under the caption: "At a Woman's Window." That is no place for a man to be. It sounds as if he was training for the "Jack the Peeper" vacancy.

MANY COLORS

Thirty vessels flying foreign flags passed in and out of Los Angeles Harbor last month. They carried the ensigns of England, Japan, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Portugal. The flag of Spain, which was the first one to float at the harbor, alone seemed to be missing from the collection. But we have become a world port, all right.

LINE IS BUSY

From the viewpoint of motor traffic alone the intersection of Wilshire and Western avenue is the busiest crossing in the city, although it is supposed to be nearly five miles from the heart of things. But an average of over 30,000 cars a day flip past the intersection mentioned. There is more general traffic and congestion at Seventh and Broadway and the big rush of pedestrians is at Fifth and Broadway, but the Wilshire and Western crossing is the fly spot for the buzz wagons. Pedestrians are rather scarce, however. They almost look lonesome in the flight of motors. The world is on wheels.

THE SOUL OF A HYENA

Can you imagine a woman, helpless on a park bench in the agony of sudden poison pangs, giving a $10 bill to a well-dressed stranger to get her a hospital ambulance—and this creature, presumably composed of the same flesh and blood as the rest of the human race, pocketing the money and leaving the woman to her fate?

Yet this happened in Los Angeles. In consequence the woman will probably die. If she does, though under the law he is guilty of nothing more serious than petty larceny, though his carcass may never disgrace the gallows, the curse of murder will rest forever on his dirty little soul.

A MODERN PORTIA

Florence Allen of Cleveland, who is about to don the black gown of a justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, can wear it with grace and equanimity. She ran as an independent and was elected by the votes of the women of Ohio—although she commanded considerable male support. She is said to be qualified for her high position. She has practiced law for a number of years and has also had judicial experience in Cleveland. She is the first woman to sit as a member of a high court in America. Nor is it likely that many will follow her footsteps. It would be some task, even for a perfect lady, to fill the chair of Justice William Howard Taft.

NEED SPANKING

The gathering of Big Brothers and Sisters in New York found much approval for a home program which provided for an old-fashioned and prayerful spanking as a feature of domestic discipline. Some of our most accomplished cigarette smokers and fox-trotters were reared with no conception of the stinging contact of a shingle. The parents of today say that they do not believe in corporal punishment. But what have they substituted for the spanking? Only forgetfulness and neglect. Parents and children are as far apart as if the Black Sea rolled between. Families are not even united at the breakfast table. The members all have different hours, different likes and different companions. Their personal desires and passions are given a free saddle. The home influence is not always something to be proud of.

THE GHOST OF INSECURITY

Germany is haunted today not by the phantoms of the past, but by the specters of the future. And the most terrible of these is the ghost of insecurity.

Like a poisonous gas, it is paralyzing the people of the new republic and stifling the once-marked characteristics of a persevering nation.

Phillip Gibbs, the war correspondent, writing from Berlin, asks: "What has become of the good old German virtue of thrift?" American visitors to Berlin, Munich, Leipzig, Bremen all comment on the extravagance, the waste, the reckless prodigality of the classes that before the war were sober and saving and economical.

So the idea gains ground that Germany is not sincere in her efforts to redeem the past and is not trying seriously to meet the heavy reparations imposed on her.

This may be true of the government, but it is not true of the German people. Had the franc at the close of the Franco-Prussian War slumped in value as rapidly as the mark has done since the 1918 armistice French thrift would have done as little to pay France's debts as German thrift today is doing to pay Germany's.

Put yourself in the place of the average German citizen who used to, and probably would still, prefer to practice the good old German virtue of thrift. You have in your pocket $1000. With it you could pay for a sumptuous dinner at a sparkling cafe and possibly one or two articles of luxury that have a certain intrinsic value. Tomorrow that $1000 will only run to a cafeteria and next week buy nothing more than a crust of bread. The temptation to hold on to that $1000 wouldn't be very strong, would it?

The want of a real medium of exchange is demoralizing the German people as the dislocation of their industries demoralised the Russians. Why economize by saving yesterday's street-car transfers? Why practice thrift by storing snow flakes to water next June's roses?

PATRIOTISM THROUGH MOVIES

We are at a critical period in the life of America.

The events of the past ten years have left old standards lying in wreckage and chaos. We are passing on into a new era of thought and action.

Perhaps there has never been a time in our entire history when it was so important that the generations of children coming to maturity and the aliens who have come to live among us should be anchored firmly in the traditions of this nation. Never a time when it was more important that they should be reminded of the meaning and significance of our American ideals.

It is unfortunate that, somewhere in the midst of jazz, automobile riding and the movies, the habit of reading is falling into disuse. It is difficult to bring to children and foreigners lessons that they will no longer read.

Evidently, then, we must look to the motion picture and the radio to a greater extent than we have done heretofore to pass along the lessons and the traditions of Americanism.

In which connection it is interesting to observe that a Los Angeles motion-picture producer is planning to film the life of Abraham Lincoln, primarily for the theater, but ultimately for the use of the schools.

This is a project of supreme importance for it is through Abraham Lincoln that the name "America" takes on its greatest meaning and significance.

The life of Lincoln is a sermon for the growing boy and the new-come alien in the philosophy of honest endeavor and work; Lincoln rose to power and immortal fame from conditions of abject poverty. There are few boys in America today who haven't a better chance than Lincoln had.

Also it is through the events of Lincoln's life that the Constitution of the United States is vitalised from a musty, far-off document that lawyers and orators talk about into a vital, vibrant, near-by thing that is our bulwark against tyranny and oppression and our ticket of freedom. The life of Lincoln makes us realize upon what principles our birthright rests.

DEADLY VODKA AGAIN

Antiprohibition circles will be greatly thrilled at the tidings that one country which strongly indorsed the bone-dry idea has since abandoned it. Not, however, because it was a failure, but from motives of expediency. This is soviet Russia, whose leaders had so strongly approved of the war-time restrictions regarding drink enforced by the Czar's government, since 1914, that, after their ascension to power, they destroyed all private and public stores of liquid refreshment.

Now comes the announcement that the soviets will legalize the manufacture of vodka, the frightful Russian brandy, whose alcoholic content ranges from 60 to 90 per cent. The reason given for the abandonment of the idealistic experiment in total abstention is nothing if not novel. They greatly deplore the necessity that forces them to take this step, but the farmers are distrustful of the Communists and will not bring their produce to the cities. Neither the idea of exchanging commodities nor being paid in rubles intrigues their interest. But for vodka, declare the sapient Bolsheviks, the farmer will trudge miles through the snow and sell his wife's and children's food if need be.

This would seem to mark the passing of what idealism is left in the Communes. The curse of the Russian peasant, before the war, was vodka. Nowhere in Europe could be found so degraded and unintelligent a peasant class. The Czar's government systematically encouraged the establishment of saloons all throughout rural Russia on the theory that a people sodden with drink would not be apt to cogitate upon their political and economic woes. The improvement in their mental condition since vodka was taken from them was startling to even the most optimistic reformer.

Perhaps the Red leaders are stealing a page from the Czar's notebook, and the reason given out for permitting a resumption of vodka manufacturing is not the true one. They, too, may feel that a stupefied brain is not a critical or revolutionary one.

WOMEN AND MASTERFUL MEN

A Los Angeles man testified in divorce court the other day that his wife said she wouldn't let any man boss her and he was given a divorce.

But, of course, she did more than just say that. She did other things to prove he couldn't boss her. Indeed, it is hardly conceivable in these days that a man could get a divorce just because his wife wouldn't let him boss her. If one could, just think of the fearful increase in divorces there might be—if the husbands could work up enough courage to ask for 'em.

It is well known to students of literature that women just dearly love masterful men—in books and plays. A recent proof of that is the remarkable success of "The Sheik," written by a woman and read by all the other women who could get hold of it. But when it comes to masterful men in the home it is different.

Why, it is quite probable that if the central figure in "The Sheik" could come to life and marry the author of "The Sheik" she, being a literary lady and therefore temperamental, would either have him eating out of her hand or bouncing across the asphalt on his ear before the honeymoon was over!

Being a cave man in a book or even in a courtship may be lovely sailing. But the man who tries to be a cave man after marriage is likely mighty soon to be a caved-in man. Or else friend wife will sue, alleging cruelty.

Ah, yes, women love masterful men in books. But no man can be a book hero to his own wife.

THE PRICE OF BEING ALIVE

Old H.C.L. has received some severe body blows since the year of 1920—when he won that famous fast round with the public—but he is not yet down and out. He is still a long way from resuming the recumbent attitude habitual with him in the year 1913 before Mars took his training in hand.

Figures, moreover, hold out little hope that the cost of living will ever recede to prewar levels. As compared with the average cost in 1913 the price of retail food today is from a maximum of 54 per cent in some eastern cities to 33 per cent in the West and Rocky Mountain districts higher than it was while Russia and Germany were still in the ring.

For the last two years a general fall in prices has been evident. Allowing for the rise in wages the cost of food and clothing may be said to leave the average American worker as well off as he was before the war. A gain in the volume of business transactions, which is in sight, may next year find the American consumer in a better position to live well and meet his bills than he has ever been before.

The same cannot be said of the item of "shelter," which must be included among the necessities of life. House and room rent is little, if any, lower than it was in the wasteful orgy of the worst postwar excesses. This is chiefly due to the cessation of building activities while all hands were busy making munitions, which cessation gave the plumbers' and builders' unions a strange hold on the purses of landlords and tenants alike, a grip they have never since relaxed.

According to the Department of Labor retail food costs also show a slight increase for November, 1922, over the November of the year preceding. These range from 2 to 3 per cent in different cities, New York and Denver heading the list and New Orleans bringing up the rear.

In Los Angeles, anyhow, no one has to complain that he is paying too heavy a price for the bald luxury of just being alive. Even those looking for the gilt and trimmings can get them a lot cheaper than in Chicago and New York.

JAILS FOR "SAFE KEEPING"

A man arrested for speeding one day last week reported the next day that he had been robbed of a $1000 diamond ring by other prisoners in the City Jail.

The speeding gentleman wasn't in the best of condition to defend himself. He evidently had been imbibing some of the stuff people can't get any more since the Volstead Act went into effect. But the ring had been so tight on his finger that the police hadn't been able to get it off before locking him up. The thieves had to lacerate his finger in removing it and some little turmoil must have attended the proceeding.

We used to hear frequently of locking up intoxicated men for "safe keeping," but that saying is very much out of fashion in Los Angeles now. Maybe when we get some new jails, commensurate with the needs of such a city and county as we have, it can be said again. But now the jails are so crowded that all sorts of arrested people have to be thrown together and the real criminals seem to resent this encroachment on their comfort and privacy by persons arrested merely because of their "sporting" proclivities.

It really would pay all the latter to swear off, until we get new jails, at least, from all practices which might make them liable to arrest. Otherwise they may wake up some fine morning, after a refreshing night in jail, to find themselves robbed or disfigured or murdered or something. For we plainly have no jails for "safe keeping" here.

DUBIOUS FICTION

Alluring stories of the methods and manners of crooks and criminals are very popular just now with fiction readers. And modern fiction has to be accurate in its facts and specific in its details to get across with magazine editors. So these stories are made as true to life as possible and describe minutely the various contrivances by which experts pull off perfect crimes.

While these stories invariably end with the defeat of the plotter and the triumph of law, their unfolding has included a regular correspondence course in the science of committing ingenious felonies. This cannot be altogether good fact on which to feed an impressionable generation, though it may make excellent reading.

AN UGLY RUMOR

Help! We hear that "whistling as an art" is to be added to our school curriculum. We already have singing, Delsarte, elocution, piano, Sloyd and the use of dumb bells. Why multiply our modern instruments of torture?

THREE FALL.

RIPPLING RHYMES

YOUTH AND AGE

When I was young my trenchant pen for all reforms was strong; I looked upon my fellow-men and saw them headed wrong; vice reigned triumphant in its den, while virtue limped along. Abuses of a hundred sorts were thick as they could be; I called upon all dead-game sports to upset things with me; and writing fluid, quarts on quarts, I spilled to make men free. Where fell corruption bared its fang like Nemesis I'd tread; and no one seemed to care a hang for anything I said; men listened to my wild harangue and bade me bake my head. I look back from the heights of age, where I serenely rest, and wonder at the foolish rage that used to fill my breast; a deadly warfare I would wage for things that were a jest. The evils that aroused my ire are all forgotten now; the dragon, with its breath of fire, turned out to be a cow; it's wiser to assault a lyre, some wreaths upon my brow. Where are the windmills I would storm, all armored for the fray? Where are the issues, throbbing, warm, of that dim, distant day? Where are the fiends in human form that I went forth to slay? The goblins and the bogies died and others took their place; the heroes laid their swords aside to hunt a feeding place; now witches on their broomsticks ride, new perils 'round me race. WALT MASON.

EUROPEAN CLOSE-UPS

BY S. FRED HOGUE

The Irish Assassinations.
Bonar Law Starts Well.
"Drys" Gaining in England.
The Latest German Alarm.
Italy's New Dictator.

Murder cannot justify murder. When a government with legal methods for punishing crime at its disposal resorts to assassination by way of reprisals it simply gives justification to open rebellion.

Ireland's Free State government has certainly gotten away to a bad start. Before it had been forty-eight hours in office it took from their cells four irregulars who had surrendered under absolute pledges of security and shot them without even going through the mockery of a trial.

It is true that a member of the new Parliament had been shot down from ambush and that the irregulars had started a drive to assassinate every member of the new government. But when a government violates so flagrantly its own laws, what respect can it command from the populace?

I perhaps feel more deeply the wrong committed in the name of government because I was in the Four Courts of Dublin on that eventful July afternoon when Rory O'Connor, Liam Mellowes and about 135 other irregulars surrendered.

The Four Courts had been under bombardment for three days. Twice the Free State troops had attempted to storm the barricades and had been beaten back. The buildings were on fire and there was a desire to save some of the important records stored there; so the Free State commanders sent a priest with a white flag to offer an armistice.

O'Connor and Mellowes came into one of the wings to treat with the representatives of the Free State forces. I stood near Mellowes while he was told the terms offered by the Free State if the irregulars would cease their resistance. They were pledged honorable treatment as prisoners of war; absolute security for themselves and every one of their comrades.

Mellowes protested that he preferred to go back into the wreck of the building and find his grave in the ruins. "If we must lose," he groaned, "life is not worth living, in Ireland or elsewhere."

O'Connor capitulated first. Mellowes was one of the last to agree to surrender. And, after securing possession of them under such pledges and conditions, they are taken from prison one gray November morning and slain like cattle in the shambles.

I am not attempting to justify the course of the irregulars. They were making peace and ordered government in Ireland impossible. But that is no justification for their assassination by the new government for crimes committed by others.

No government that answers murder with murder can ever command the confidence of the governed. Can it be that the Irish, like the Russians, have gone mad?

Bonar Law's government has passed successfully through the early stages of organization. It has made no blunders. But it is faced by an opposition that, while comparatively few in numbers, is powerful in mentality.

The government bench is weak, the Liberal opposition is strong. Lloyd George, Asquith and Chamberlain—those three as powerful and dangerous a triumverate as any British government ever faced. What will be their attitude when the government faces its first crisis?

It is true they are not united, except in the opposition. Asquith and Lloyd George are two fallen leaders filled with a mutual distrust. Chamberlain is a Conservative who opposed his own party in the elections.

While the Labor group is the nominal opposition, it counts in reality for little, because it represents numbers rather than brains and experience. The members do not know how either to attack or defend successfully. It has no settled program and it cannot make a coalition with either branch of the Liberals.

The Labor votes might be valuable as contributing to a vote of lack of confidence in the present government; but, if the government were to fall, it would be impossible for any member of the Labor group to secure the support necessary to form its successor.

Whether they like it or not, the question of prohibition is rapidly becoming a dominant issue in British politics. A number of professed "drys" were elected to Parliament, one of them winning the seat held by Winston Churchill.

Lady Astor made prohibition an issue in her campaign; and she won in Plymouth, formerly regarded as a stronghold of the "wets." When unpopularity no longer attaches to prohibition it is becoming dangerous.

I am not surprised at the reports of hunger riots in Germany. I forecast that condition when in Berlin and Munich last August. It was the unavoidable result of the collapse of the mark. Germany has a population of about 15,000,000 more than she can feed from the products of German soil. The fall of the mark, in relation to the money of other countries, makes the purchasing of foodstuffs outside prohibitive.

It does not require the vision of a seer to foresee what is going to happen in a country that has an excess population of 15,000,000 and no way of buying on the outside.

I cannot become gravely alarmed over the report that the French government threatens to send another army of occupation into Germany for the purpose of taking over the chief industries and operating them.

Such a suggestion is childish. What would the French do with the German railroads? They are losing money now. Does anyone imagine the traffic would be increased if the Germans knew the French were trying to make money out of them?

What would the French do with any German industry? If the French took over the coal mines, who would perform the labor? Not the Germans. And if the French were to attempt to import workers the cost of production would make profitable selling impossible.

These things are well known by the heads of the French government. Such suggestions might be made to frighten the credulous among the Germans, but Germany has nothing to fear from such a procedure. It would bankrupt France and would not seriously injure Germany.

Mussolini appears to be making good as Premier of Italy. There are no more labor troubles at home and he has represented his government with credit at Lausanne. His reactionary revolution is one of the most interesting experiments that has been attempted in Europe since the war.

Mussolini says that the people of Italy shall be well governed in spite of themselves. And the Italians seem to like it.

ARE YOU FREE?

By The Foothill Philosopher

All men may be born "equal," but it is questionable whether any man is born "free." However, any man may attain freedom through the determination to depend absolutely upon himself.

You may have $1,000,000 and servants to wait on you—but in your heart you will know yourself a slave if you are at the mercy of your appetites and your emotions.

To depend on the sense and sense objectives for permanent satisfaction is as superstitious as to pray to a horseshoe for good fortune—and is equally as disappointing.

If you saw that remarkable Jap at Pantages last week you probably have a good idea of the meaning of the Japanese proverb which asks, "Can you think with your right hand?"

Your mind belongs to you, if you assert and insist upon your ownership. Your nerves, also, are at your command, if you are willing to command them. You need not be at the mercy of any drug, whatever its nature, and it is for you to decide whether or not you shall be dominated by heredity, environment and experience.

Paul sang in prison because he knew that prison walls could not hold him—and they didn't. You cannot really jail a man who is aware of his liberty.

The reason a man remains a slave of influence is because he falsely imagines that whatever touches his life becomes a part of his soul. Do not be deceived. Shadows have no power to extinguish light. In its essence the soul is fire and light and, while it may be affected by conditions and fleeting phenomena, it never incorporates them.

And, while we're writing, we would like to ask you to "remember this:" A mighty good way to assist your friend in his journey toward the asylum is to tell him that he is "a bundle of nerves."

THIS IS THE DAY

The battle of Fredericksburg, fought on the soil of Virginia, was the most important Confederate victory of the Civil War. This battle was forced prematurely on the Union Army of the Potomac by the pressure of public opinion in the North and was one of the most disastrous of the Civil War to the Union cause. One result of it was the removal of Gen. Burnside from the supreme command and his replacement by Gen. Joseph Hooker. Year 1862.

The Union army consisted of 100,000 men moving southward and was opposed by 78,000 Confederates posted upon the heights overlooking the Rappahannock and commanded by Gen. Robert E. Lee. The Union army crossed the river on five pontoon bridges and swept upward against the Confederate batteries and rifle pits. Again and again the Union divisions charged up the hills to be hurled back with terrific slaughter. Next morning Gen. Burnside ordered a retreat and his men recrossed the river. The Union casualties totaled 12,353, the Confederate losses being 4300.

Your system demands ALL BRAN if constipation is to be relieved!

Your system needs the "roughage" that Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, supplies. For, it will not only permanently relieve constipation if it is eaten regularly, but its full-content of the vital elements of wheat will build health and strength in a wonderful way.

You need bran in its full and beneficial strength and that's what you get in Kellogg's Bran—ALL BRAN! You eat Kellogg's for relief and you will get relief in a way that nature planned. Foods with a bran mixture cannot help the man, woman or child who faces grave illness through constipation. You must have ALL BRAN—"roughage" that will sweep and clean and purify and bring health back!

Children should be given Kellogg's Bran each day; grown people should eat Kellogg's each day—at least two tablespoonfuls, in chronic cases with each meal. Its mechanical action will afford permanent relief.

And, you will find Kellogg's Bran a delight to eat because it is so delicious. As a cereal, sprinkled on other hot or cold cereals, or used in countless bakery batches or in cooking, its nut-like flavor will thrill your appetite—and each spoonful means so much in permanently relieving constipation and in warding off this gravest national ailment. Kellogg recipes are printed on each package.

Start the entire family eating Kellogg's Bran to-day. See the color come back to faded cheeks; see the snap that will go into lagging steps. Kellogg's Bran is wonderful. All grocers sell it!

ARE YOUR CHILDREN WORTH IT?

The World's Leading Specialists on Human Nutrition, Dietetics and Infant Feeding Say: YOU OWE IT TO THEM to read these authoritative facts from famous specialists, proving beyond question that certified milk from Holstein cows is

The World's Safest Milk!

"Certified Holstein Milk Most Perfect of All Milks"
Dr. Thomas M. Rotch, M.D.,
Professor of Pediatrics at Harvard University, and world's recognized authority on infant feeding, says: "From the medical point of view the Holstein milk is exactly what we find best for infant feeding. The Holstein cow represents the most perfect milking animal known, having every characteristic suitable for baby's milk supply."

Holstein Milk Is Incomparable, Prevents Summer Complaint in Infants
Dr. N. B. Pantier, Dietetic Specialist of Illinois, says: "Holstein milk is so far superior to other cows' milk that there is no comparison. I have noticed children that have been fed on good, clean Holstein milk have made much better gains, and also had less summer bowel trouble than children fed on other cows' milk" (Guernsey or Jersey).

Excessive Fat and Calories of Other Than Holstein Cows' Milk Are Dangerous
Dr. Chapman, of the Babies' Ward, Postgraduate Hospital, New York, speaking of high butter fat in other than Holstein cows' milk, says: "The use of milk of their grade of richness is likely to be followed by digestive disturbances when fed to infants, both by reason of Excessive Caloric Value and formation of large fat containing curds."

Holstein Milk Has More Nutriment; Best for Adults, Children and Infants
Lamson Allen, M.D., renowned authority on Dietetics, of Worcester, Mass., says: "After a careful investigation of the study of milk, I find that the Holstein cows' milk contains more nutriment than that of any other breed of cows. It has the largest element of vitality in its make-up. This superior value applies to the adult, convalescent, the healthy, as well as the infant, in equal ratio."

Excessive Fat in Other Than Holstein Cows' Milk Checks Growth and Development
Dr. Charles Douglass, Professor of Children's Diseases at Detroit College of Medicine, speaking of the high butter fat in cow's milk other than Holstein, writes in the Journal of the American Medical Association: "There is no food which will so completely check the growth and development of an infant when imperfectly digested. It requires less than ½ of 1% of imperfectly digested fat in an infant's diet to prevent it from growing, to disturb sleep, to destroy its color and pave the way for nervousness and other forms of malnutrition."

BAIL REDUCTION DENIED BROKER

Court Refuses Plea for Cut From $25,000 to $5000

Defendant Held on Grand Larceny Charges

Asserted to Have Tricked Aged Woman

Attempts of defense counsel for Linwood M. Andrews, young broker accused of grand larceny of $46,500 in a note and coporation stocks and a check for $4500 from Mrs. Agnes S. Newman, aged 75, to have his bail reduced failed yesterday in Justice Forbes's court. MacDonald and Thompson, defense attorneys, stated that Andrews could give $5000 bail. His bail is now $25,000.

It is charged that Andrews obtained by trick and device from Mrs. Newman 1250 shares of stock of the Portland Milling Company, valued at $40,000, and a note from the same company for $6500.

It was stated to Dep. Dist.-Atty. McClelland, who issued the complaint, that Andrews told Mrs. Newman that he could and would sell the stock to the Washburn-Crosby Company of Minneapolis, but that company wired the District Attorney that they had never entered into negotiations with Andrews and did not know him.

It is also charged that Andrews obtained a check for $4500 from Mrs. Newman and that the defendant took advantage of the woman's age and made her believe he could sell her stock for a high figure to the Washburn-Crosby Company.

Screen Player and Family in Serious Crash

Warner Baxter, local film player and former Morocco leading man, who recently signed a Robertson-Cole contract; his wife, Winifred Bryson, and his sister-in-law narrowly escaped injury Monday night when the automobile in which they were returning from San Diego overturned on one of the bad stretches of highway between here and the southern city. The party arrived home yesterday after trying experiences following a series of bad omens which, to the superstitious, would have been sure-fire indicators of bad luck.

The party left Los Angeles last Friday, went to San Diego and took up quarters in a suite the principal room of which was No. 313. On the way to Tijuana next day Mrs. Baxter broke the mirror in her vanity case and a black cat ran in front of their automobile.

At the races every horse which they chose for a winner came in far behind. Soon after they started on the return journey it began to rain hard. A few miles out of Capistrano the front wheel of Baxter's automobile broke. He obtained a new one and continued the trip. A few moments later the car skidded in the mud and overturned, badly bruising its three occupants. Finally they got started again and soon struck a detour, got stuck in the mud and had to be towed out.

Walks Calmly Out of Jail as Court Convenes

Los Angeles, Venice and Sawtelle police yesterday combined their efforts in a search for Eddie Daly, aged 43, who walked calmly from Central Station while being taken from jail for arraignment before Justice Chambers on a charge of violating the State Narcotic law.

Daly was arrested in Chinatown on Sunday for asserted possession of cocaine by Detectives Littlejohn, Mailheau and Hatrey. In investigating his escape yesterday the officers discovered that he is wanted on additional charges of burglary and forgery.

Patrolman Flaherty, detailed at Sawtelle, informed the detective department that he had information which might connect Daly with the hold-up and killing of a druggist at Westgate more than a year ago.

Daly was being taken with about fifteen other prisoners through the corridor leading from the City Jail to the police court. The hallway was crowded and Daly's departure escaped notice until his name was called by the clerk.

Venice police were informed that Daly had been seen first at a pharmacy where he attempted to purchase drugs and later at a hotel. According to police Daly served a year at McNeil's Island for violating the Harrison Narcotic Act.

Auto Club Out to Bar Trolley from Tunnel

The Automobile Club of Southern California yesterday asked the City Council not to grant a franchise for street railway tracks in the new Second-street tunnel. The club maintains that all the space there will be needed for vehicular traffic.

The club's letter pointed out that the tunnel will be fifty feet in width, and taking from this the space required for the one sidewalk and curb, the remaining forty-one feet, five inches, will be required for vehicles.

It was originally intended that the central nineteen feet of the tube be used for two street railway tracks, but the club asks that this plan be abandoned, as to permit the tracks to be laid there would defeat the purpose for which the tunnel was built, namely, the relief of traffic congestion on the arteries leading to and from the downtown part of the city, the club's letter stated.

The Los Angeles Railway Company had planned to run its First street line through the tunnel, but to date the company has not ap-

LOS ANGELES WOMAN FREE

A criminal court at Lucerne has acquitted Mrs. Genevive Paddleford on charges of defrauding Swiss merchants, the Paris edition of the New York Herald is quoted as saying in despatches yesterday. The court held no crime had been committed, and that the matter was one for the Civil Courts.

Mrs. Paddleford was arrested last June in Vienna. Despatches a few days after her arrest said her husband, Dr. George E. Paddleford of Los Angeles, had refused frantic cables for funds to extricate her from her difficulties. The Paddlefords were separated before the wife's trip to Europe.

Mrs. Paddleford subsequently was extradited to Switzerland for trial. The original charges were made, it is said, by merchants in Paris, Lucerne and Vienna.

Accommodation Lack Feared for Teachers' Meet

Fear of a shortage of accommodations for the 11,000 teachers who will attend the California teachers' institute here the 20th, 21st and 22nd, inst., was voiced yesterday by the executive committee of the California Teachers' Association. The committee says it is a difficult problem to solve because of the holiday crowds that will be in Los Angeles at the time.

Sessions of the institute will be held at the Bible Institute, Philharmonic and Trinity auditoriums. There will be exhibits and lectures covering all departments of teaching, and several department stores have announced exhibits in home economics, art and the like. Section meetings will be held in high school auditoriums throughout the city.

Banquets and concerts for the entertainment of the teachers are planned by various organizations.

An important feature of the institute will be the election of county representatives on the Southern California Council of Education.

CONCERT GUIDED BQ SINGLE MIND

listener-in far off in the blizzard-swept North and East did not have to stretch his imagination too much to appreciate this oriental picture.

Bertha W. Vaughn, soprano, had the distinction of singing the only composition on the final broadcast program last night that was not strictly Grunn. Two of her selections, however, were by Mr. Grunn, "Venus," an ultra-modern song, and "Just Like Your Eyes," to both of which Robert Alter gave a 'cello obligato. The other number which Miss Vaughn interpreted was by Needham, "The Little Red Lark."

If, among listeners last night, there were any who had the blues, or who found it difficult to smile, this disposition was changed, or started transition when Dr. Eugene Francis Storke, world-known traveler and lecturer, gave the second of a series of talks which are to be weekly features from KHJ. His subject last night was "The Smiling Habit and Its Origin."

"Smiles," declared Dr. Storke, "are flashes coming from the soul, and the soul is where the smiling habit originates. If these smiles are of the right sort, they will register twenty-four carats fine, surpassing all other human means of getting on in the world.

MANY KINDS

"As souls differ in character, so it is with smiles—they change like the chameleon; there is the vacant smile, a forced smile, an affected smile, and a thousand other smiles; but above all these, are the smiles of friendship and love.

"Man is the only animal that forms the smiling habit, yet very few have developed it properly. It thrives best in persons that are happy and want to make others happy. In such a soil it becomes a strong trait; but in those that are frowning, morose, and selfish, it soon withers and dies.

"Smiles attract and frowns repel. Recall the wonderful following Roosevelt had—the smile on his face was the beacon light that attracted the multitude. Upon the other hand, there is a chill air surrounding unsmiling persons, and people are glad to get away from them as from a cold room."

The quality of the final broadcast period concert did not for a moment overshadow the worth of the entertainment provided for the kiddies last night by the Hollywood Girl's Quartet, made up of Nell Mitchell, Betty Mortyne, and Heliome, sopranos and Clara Johnson, contralto, who, accompanied by Myra Belle Vickers, sang "After the Rain." Three members of this quartet, Nell Mitchell, Betty Martyne and Clara Johnson, gave an interpretation of Dreaming," and the quartet showed itself to be a harmonious unit in several other selections during the 7 to 7:30 p.m. period.

A soprano and a pianist divided honors in the afternoon concert yesterday. Gladys Alexander, accompanied by Myra Belle Vickers, gave three excellent numbers—"Homing," by Teresa Del Riego, "Yesterday and Today," by Spross and "I Bring You Hearts-ease," by Branscombe.

Juanita Lotnas, pianist, favored the afternoon listeners with three piano solos, each of which was rendered with a degree of charm that appealed.

SOCIETY

For Bride-elect

For Miss Lucille McNamee, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McNamee of Fourth avenue, whose engagement to Lieut. Darrow Menoher of Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, has been announced, Mrs. Cecile Beauchamp is to have five tables of bridge and a tea on Friday afternoon at her home in North Oxford street.

Last week Mrs. J. A. Davis of Long Beach, gave a charming breakfast party for Miss McNamee. The table was adorned with tiny Christmas trees and favor presents for the guests. Another party last week was the linen shower and bridge luncheon given at the Wilshire Country Club by Mrs. Albert Ralphs.

Among other recent prenuptial courtesies for Miss McNamee was a bridge party of five tables, and a shower by Miss Lenabell Morris and Mrs. Frank Atkinson's handkerchief shower and tea. Mrs. Leo Meekin gave a bridge luncheon at the Hotel Virginia, where places were marked by miniature brides.

To Play Mah Jongg

An interesting feature of the Assistance League Christmas Shoppe, which will continue its sale tomorrow, from 10 until 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Homer Laughlin, Jr., 666 West Twenty-eighth street, is the Mah Jongg classes which will be given under expert instruction. The rate of instruction will be $5 per hour to four persons, and reservations for lessons or for tables may be made by phoning 24887. The lessons are to be in charge of Miss Katherine Mellus, a prominent society leader who introduced the game here about a year and a half ago.

Assisting at the affair will be Miss Rosario Dookweiler, Mrs. Josephine Evans, Mrs. Jessie Noble, Mrs. Marshall Welborn, Mrs. Michael Creamer, Mrs. Samuel Brown Thomas, Mrs. Godfrey Holterhoff, and others who also assisted at the sale last week at the home of Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo.

There will be for sale among other things, about twenty of the lovely celebrity dolls which were seen at the auction and sale last week, when several of those sold were donated. Included will be the Charlie Chaplain doll, the Jane Novak doll, Mrs. McKeever's beautiful oriental doll, and those sent by R. D. McLean, Florence Vidor, Katherine McDonald and Mrs. Elizabeth Rothwell.

In the Orient

Col. and Mrs. W. A. Burnside sailed yesterday for the Philippine Islands, and are planning to go later to China before returning here in the late spring. Mrs. Burnside is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Clark of 1555 South Manhattan Place.

Miss Hamill Married

A wedding of interest here as well as in Indiana, occurred yesterday afternoon when Miss Josephine Hamill and Leon Osborne Blatchford were married by the Rev. Herbert Booth Smith of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church. The service was read at 3 p.m. at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. R. Hamill of 622 South Hobart Boulevard.

Miss Hamill is the daughter of the late Samuel R. Hamill of Terre Haute, Ind., and she has been a student at the Bishop school in La Jolla.

Mr. Blatchford, who is a young business man of the city, spent a year in France as an aviator during the war.

They will return to Los Angeles to reside, after an eastern trip during which they will visit the groom's parents in New York State.

Will Precede Recital

Dr. and Mrs. Rufus Von Klein-Smid will give a brilliant dinner party for thirty guests preceding the opening recital of the artists' course next Tuesday evening at the University of Southern California.

For the Holiday Season

Mrs. Tyree Rodes has sent cards for a dancing party on the 28th inst., at the Leighton Hotel for the Misses Dorothy Fast, Majorie Fast and Lucille Nichols. The Misses Fast are from Geneva, N. Y., and are students at the Collegiate School for Girls, and Miss Nichols is from Chicago, and is attending the Marlborough School for Girls. A number of the younger set will be guests.

At Bridge Tea

Among those who are to entertain at the bridge tea on Tuesday afternoon at the Ebell Club, will be Mrs. Harry Haldeman, Mrs. C. R. Luton, Mrs. Harry Cardell, Mrs. John A. Ferguson, Mrs. William C. Warmington, Miss Ada Dryden and Miss M. Miller.

Betrothal Told

The engagement of Miss Wilda Keef and Claude F. Degelman was told at a dinner and theater party given recently.

IT'S .. EASY .. TO .. PUT .. ON

"Sportmiss" Name of New Outdoor Dress

Creation Selected by Le Fort

"SPORTSMISS," could there be a more tantalizing name? This garment in silk and wool is a new thought in dress. It is of soft tan done in Russian blouse effect, trimmed in brown knitted silk in a distinctive pattern. It has a round neck and bishop sleeves, which carry out the color scheme. The waist line is emphasized by a tight belt which flows gently into a tie-sash trimmed with rippling fringe. It is extremely appropriate for sport wear and may be donned by simply pulling it over the head.

LIQUOR CONFISCATED

Local prohibition agents raided 820 North Eucalyptus avenue, Inglewood yesterday, and confiscated thirty-six cases of whisky. No arrests have yet been made, but the owner of the liquor is known, agents say.

ACCUSED OF FRAUD

Charged with selling goods with intent to defraud a creditor, Nicholas J. Willis was arrested yesterday by Deputy Constable Weybright and arraigned before Justice Hanby, who set a hearing for the 18th inst., and fixed bail at $4000.

The complaint was issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty McClellan on behalf of the Shinn-Holz-Lyon Company, who assert that Willis, when in business at 516 North Figueroa street, sold goods owned by them to the value of $2956.

WOMAN IS PUT IN JAIL AS SPEEDER

Ten Persons Behind Bars in Revival of Vigorous Safety Campaign

For driving at the rate of twenty-eight miles per hour on West Fifty-fourth street on the 5th inst., Mrs. Willma Crouse was sentenced by Police Justice Chambers yesterday to spend twelve hours in the City Jail. In addition, Judge Chambers fined the woman $5 for driving without an operator's license, and suspended her operator's license for thirty days. Mrs. Crouse resides at 7216 Tenth avenue.

Five men also were sentenced to serve from two to three days in the City Jail for exceeding the speed limit by Justice Chambers, in his campaign to "slow up" speeders.

Those sentenced yesterday were Jack Gintor, two days, E. F. Forester, two days, John Smith, two days, Bernard E. Firth, three days and F. Figiwara, three days.

"There were 223 injured between November 1 and 11, according to police records," said Justice Chambers. "From the 1st to the 11th insts. of the present month there were only 195, but that is too many. The campaign must continue."

Four speeders were given jail sentences in police court at Los Angeles Harbor yesterday, where Justice Hugh J. Crawford presided. The unlucky four were caught at Fourteenth and Pacific streets, a particularly busy corner.

They were: Edmund W. Fields, Joseph Hartman and Nicholas Ferrara, who received five days each, and John Sternburg, who received a three-day sentence.

Justice Crawford assessed fines on nineteen others accused of speeding. All were arrested by Motorcycle Officers Rogers, Havens, Moran and Davidson.

AUTOS TAKE THREE AS DAY'S TOLL

Traffic Accident Victims at Receiving Hospital Are Near Death

Three persons in as many traffic accidents yesterday, were injured so seriously that they will probably die.

William Williams of 523 San Julian street was struck at Pico and Harvard streets, according to the police, by the automobile of Theodore Johnstone, 1550 South New Hampshire street. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital with a possible skull fracture.

Alberto Florez, aged 25 years, of 215 Ann street, was knocked down at Ann and North Main streets by a machine operated by Benjamin Seige of 1002 Temple street, the police say. At the Receiving Hospital it was said he had a broken shoulder and internal injuries.

The third victim was William Smith, aged 26 years, of 227½ East First street. He was bowled over, the police say, in the 4800 block on Huntington Drive by a machine driven by George McWilliams of 89 North Michigan avenue, Pasadena. He has a possible skull fracture, doctors at the Receiving Hospital said.

TATUM IS GUEST OF REALTORS

Retiring State President Thanks Local Operators for Support

C. C. C. Tatum, whose term as president of the California Real Estate Association expired last week, was the guest of honor at the regular bi-monthly luncheon of the Los Angeles Realty Board held at the Clark yesterday noon.

Mr. Tatum, addressing the local realtors, thanked them for the support and co-operation which they had given his administration of the State organization, and expressed his sincere appreciation of the gift of a complete golfing outfit made to him by the local realty board at the Santa Ana convention last week.

Gilbert Wright, retired realtor, spoke on the subject of whether the great realty and building activity which has been a feature of Los Angeles' development during the past year would continue. Mr. Wright said that during the period from 1890 to 1909 there was a series of panics, none of which affected Los Angeles. During that period, he said, Los Angeles doubled its population, and he expressed the opinion that with conditions in the East steadily improving, there is no reason why the growth of Los Angeles should not continue on its present scale.

W. H. Daum, industrial realtor, outlined the plans for the campaign, which is to be launched after the holidays to increase the associate membership. The goal set by the board in its drive will be 1000 new members, representing the large property owners of the city.

Albert E. Kern, of San Francisco, vice-president of the State association, and C. F. Crothers of San Jose, treasurer, were guests at yesterday's luncheon.

Annual Police Bargain Sale Next Saturday

Bargain hunters, give ear!

Next Saturday is the date of the semiannual police auction, at which all goods and merchandise which has been in the custody of the police department for more than one year will go to the top bidders.

Central Station, on First street between Broadway and Hill street, will be the auction spot. Funds from the sales will go to the police pension fund.

Beginning at 8 a.m., Sergt. H. G. Ditzen, property clerk, will give the signal to Sol Blanc, professional auctioneer, to announce the details about everything, from automobiles to wrist watches, with auto tires, accessories, suit cases, jewelry, shoes and clothing in between.

Don't you call that a perfect Union Suit

When shoulder straps don't slip—when armholes or crotch don't cut or pull

WHEN Union Suits cover completely and the Marvelfit reinforcement resists wear beyond all previous experience with silk underwear—don't you? That's all tailoring—careful, intelligent planning of each garment—and that's all there is to it! Those are the things that go with Kayser Italian Silk Underwear. You know them the minute you put any Kayser garment on, by the actual enjoyment you get out of the way it feels and looks.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

TUBERCULOSIS—NO. 3

In my two previous articles this week on tuberculosis I have laid emphasis upon the fact that tuberculosis is caused by a specific germ. I devoted the two papers to this because there is so much drivel written by people who know nothing of the subject along the line that the tuberculosis germs are not the cause, but the effect of the disease, else why are they not present in the early stages? etc., ad nauseum.

Such teaching will do a great deal of harm. It will do a great deal of harm. It will make people who are affected careless with their expectoration, and it will make those around tuberculosis patients less careful. It is not dangerous for adults to be around tuberculosis patients when they recognize the cause of it and are careful.

An active tuberculosis case may expectorate from a few to billions of the tuberculosis bacilli a day. Pottenger states that it is not unusual for them to expectorate several millions a day. Sometimes patients will expectorate for months and sometimes years. If these patients are taught that their expectoration is not dangerous, can't you see the far-reaching evil effects of such teaching?

It is estimated that about 10 per cent of the cattle in the dairy herds have tuberculosis. If it is taught that these tuberculosis germs which they have and may pass on in their milk is not dangerous, here is another menace.

Tuberculosis deaths are one-half what they were a decade ago because of the education disseminated that tuberculosis is due to a specific germ and that it can be controlled through knowing this fact.

As to the question why are they not present in the early stages of the disease, that is easy. They are present in the early stages of the disease. They are not discovered until later because until the tissues break down the germs are not coughed up.

Then how do we know that they are there? From studies on animals. If a perfectly good guinea pig is inoculated with these germs and develops tuberculosis, it looks reasonable, doesn't it, that the germs cause it? They don't develop anthrax, a disease of animals, from these injections, but they develop a typical tuberculosis.

But does there not have to be some other factor besides the T. B. germ to cause tuberculosis? Yes, yes. There has to be lowered resistance. In other words, there has to be soil as well as seed.

The parable of the sower has been used to express the relationship.

Some seeds fell by the wayside and the birds came and devoured them. (The germs do not get into the body, but are killed by the sun and sterilization.) Some seeds fell upon stony places. (The tissues are very resistant and the germs are destroyed.) Others fell upon thorns and the thorns grew up and choked them. (The germs fell and grew, but the protective forces of the body walled them off and protected the system.) But others fell on good ground, and yielded fruit, some a hundred-fold. (The germs fell where there was lowered resistance from malnourishment, disease or excesses, and nature could not overcome them.)

He that hath ears, let him hear.

If you have tuberculosis, you should be under the care of a physician. There are some good books for the layman written by specialists. If you desire their names, write me, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Tuberculosis is a curable, but a terrible disease. Have you bought your Christmas Seals to do your little share in helping to educate and stamp it out?

The Passenger List of the 20th Century Limited

If the Twentieth Century Limited published passenger lists, in the manner of the ocean liners, a file of these lists would be a veritable "who's who" of the men and women who are making America, as well as distinguished travelers from foreign countries.

Over this natural highway—on the comfortable water level route of the New York Central—the Century carries in the course of a year as many passengers as are booked in the first cabins of all the steamships crossing the Atlantic.

Business executives, leaders in the professions, men and women of affairs—for whom an overnight journey a third of the way across the Continent is only an incident in the day's work—make up the daily passenger list of this famous 20-hour train between Chicago and New York.

The inauguration of the Twentieth Century Limited service marked a distinct advance in railroad operation, and for twenty years the record of the Century has been one of increasing prestige and public usefulness.

SUICIDE SHOWS GAIN IN CITY

Receiving Hospital Had Busy Twelve Months

Nearly Double Number of Auto Cases Handled

Poisoned Liquor Develops "Snake" Victims

Self-destruction as a means of ending earthly trials and troubles is growing in popular favor here, according to a report made public yesterday by Charles Whitehead, chief nurse at the Receiving Hospital, which covers the activities of the institution for the year ending on the 11th inst.

One hundred and seventy-nine men and women attempted to end their lives during the year thus far, according to the report, and twenty-seven of them succeeded. In 1921, but 102 persons attempted to take the suicide route to escape from their troubles.

An enormous increase in injuries resulting from automobile accidents is also indicated in the report, although the figures do not cover all accidents occurring in the city within the year as many of the victims were taken to other hospitals for emergency treatment.

AUTO RECORD GROWS

A total of 3810 men, women and children were injured in auto accidents during this period, as compared with 3858 persons injured in 1921. Seventy-three of the victims succumbed to their injuries, the report shows.

The report also shows that the number of cases handled at the hospital this year is almost double those of last. Cases at the hospital this year numbered 55,366 as compared with 30,859 in 1921. Growth in population is believed to have an important bearing on the totals.

Delirium tremens, the result of imbibing too freely of poisonous moonshine, also made its first appearance at the hospital in the past year. Twenty-seven such cases were handled this year while none were handled in 1921.

The hospital treated 26,472 prisoners and 4355 policemen and firemen, the report shows. The above figures are included in the total number of cases handled.

COMPARATIVE FIGURES

	1922	1921
Burns	200	169
Motorcycle accidents	203	111
Gunshot cases	241	191
Skull fractures	297	255
Major operations	1	1
Stabbings	85	87
Insane cases	230	230
Accidental poisons	23	23
Railroad accidents	116	116
Bicycle accidents	171	171
Employers' liability	241	241
Fractures	1,101	1,101
Gas asphyxiations	14	14

The report shows that 110 persons brought to the hospital for treatment were dead when they arrived there. It also shows that 506 persons were brought to the hospital for examination to determine whether they were drunk while driving their automobiles.

Twenty-five persons were killed in railroad accidents, one in a bicycle accident, forty-two from gunshot wounds, two from accidental poisoning, two from burns and ten from injuries received while at work.

SHOOTING-CASE MEMORIES BAD

The failure of two witnesses to remember important details marked the opening yesterday of the preliminary hearing of C. B. Smith on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. Smith is charged with having shot Mrs. Claudia Sorenson, wife of Dr. Alfred Sorenson, dentist, 5300 Seventh avenue, on November 10.

Loretta Smith, 14-year-old daughter of the defendant, had apparently forgotten many details to which she previously testified. She admitted having signed a statement in which she told of her father having said to her on the date of the shooting: "You know what I am going to do tonight."

When Dr. Sorenson testified he said that he and his wife were in the front seat of their automobile, with Smith in the rear, and were about to start on a hunting trip, when he heard a shot. His wife exclaimed: "I am shot!"

The hearing, which is being held before Justice Hinshaw, with Dep. Dist.-Atty. Moroney conducting the prosecution, will be resumed on the 19th inst.

SUSPECTED DRESS STEALER IS HELD

Charged with grand larceny, Tony Gassau was held to answer in Superior Court by Justice Dowds yesterday and bail was fixed at $1500. Gassau is charged with having stolen three dresses, valued at $85, from Jacoby Brothers. According to the prosecution, his method was to enter a store carrying a pasteboard box of the kind used to pack suites in. The box used to pack suits in. The box which a dress or similar article could be pushed.

JOHNSTON McCULLEY RETURNS FROM EAST

Johnson McCulley, former Los Angeles newspaper man, who has won success in the literary field, returned here yesterday from New York. The author has been in the Metropolis for a year filling contracts for stories. He is author of "The Mark of Zorro," "Broadway Bab," "The Masked Woman" and other successful novels. According to his present plans McCulley will remain in Los Angeles indefinitely.

HOME ROBBED IN ABSENCE OF OWNER

George F. Woodward of 1210 West Ninth street reported to police yesterday that burglars broke into his home while he was at Tijuana and had stolen approximately $1500 in jewelry and clothing. Mr. Woodward said that he went to Tijuana Saturday. Upon his return from the Mexican city yesterday he found that his home had been thoroughly ransacked.

Trial by Jury is Wanted by Ten Wobblies

In an obvious effort to clog up the court machinery, ten asserted wobblies arrested by police yesterday for picketing at the employment office of the Southern California Edison Company at East Second and San Pedro streets, demanded jury trials when arraigned before Police Justice Chambers late yesterday afternoon.

Justice Chambers assigned the cases to Police Judge Frederickson, who will set the date for their trial later. The men imprisoned yesterday are George Kelly, Robert Dilger, John Black, Tom Rilley, O. K. Fox, Fred Quigley, Louis Finns, Charles Martin, Ira Hill and George Myers.

They were arrested by Detectives Lane and Evans of the police wobbly squad, who stated that they were distributing I.W.W. literature in front of the employment office and seeking to dissuade and intimidate applicants for jobs with the company.

CITIZENS OBJECT TO PIPE ORGAN FACTORY

LONG BEACH COUNCIL TODD ZONING ORDINANCE PROHIBITS

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 12.—Pipe-organ manufacturing may not become a new city industry in Long Beach after all, at least not at the old Balboa motion-picture studio. This was revealed today following announcement that strong opposition has been raised by resident property owners in the vicinity of the studio against the installation there of the factory of the Artcraft Pipe Organ Company of Hollywood.

Following announcement several days ago by the industrial bureau of the Chamber of Commerce that the company had leased a portion of the old studio for factory purposes, a protest was registered with the City Council on the ground that the city's new zoning ordinance would be violated. Objection to the plan was also based on fire hazards. Councilman Frank A. Downs declared that the zoning law should be observed.

FARMERS FIGHT ELECTRIC RATES

Railroad Commissioner Gets Arguments

Edison Company Says Price is Rock-Bottom

More Technical Evidence to be Given

The fight launched by the Federated Farm Bureau and twenty cities and towns in Southern California for a further reduction in rates charged for power by the Southern California Edison Company will be resumed before Commissioner Benedict of the State Railroad Commission today.

Arguments for a reduction in rates were heard by Commissioner Benedict yesterday from two witnesses who testified on behalf of the farm bureau and the Southern California cities. The first witness to testify was F. C. Finkle, consulting electrical engineer. Mr. Finkle testified as to costs and upkeep, confining himself principally to a discussion of technical matters.

In the afternoon Prof. R. N. Durant, instructor in mechanical engineering at Stanford University, took the stand. Prof. Durant's testimony was confined chiefly to the matter of maintaining physical properties of a concern furnishing power, in first class condition.

TECHNICAL QUESTIONS

His testimony was also devoted to a discussion of technical matters, although he stated that the consumer must expect to pay a fair price for his power if the company's physical properties are to be kept in first-class condition.

A mass of evidence to prove that the Edison Company's operating expenditures are so large at present that a further reduction in rates is impossible will be introduced today, it was indicated. The company intends to base its fight against the proposed reduction on the grounds that it would force it to abandon its sinking fund, and that its physical properties would soon deteriorate as a consequence.

The company has maintained throughout the hearing that its rates are as low as possible at present. Through its attorneys it has indicated that it could not maintain its properties in good physical condition under a lower rate.

COMPANY'S STAND

The evidence in regard to its operating expenses will be introduced to substantiate its claims that it is now operating on the narrowest possible margin to maintain its sinking fund for repairs and replacements of worn out equipment.

The company was ordered to reduce its rates to the farmers several months ago. This cut resulted in a saving to the farmers of approximately $1,600,000. Since that reduction was ordered, however, the farm bureau and the cities have again instituted proceedings before the commission in an effort to force the company to slash its rates again. The hearing yesterday and today is the result of this action.

The company is represented at the hearing by Rev. V. Retty, its chief counsel, and his assistant, Ben F. Woodward. The farm bureau and the cities are represented by Judge F. S. Brittain and Senator W. J. Carr.

CONFESSION OF MURDER IS DOUBTED

Local Police Inclined to Discredit Gibbs's Tale of Kansas City Crime

Whether Dallas Gibbs murdered a man in Kansas City or not will be thoroughly investigated by detectives here before he is allowed to leave the jurisdiction of California, it was said yesterday by Chief Dep. Dist.-Atty. Keyes.

Gibbs and Harry Thurston were held to answer yesterday by Justice Dowds on three counts of burglary. Bibbs is said to have confessed to Detective Sergeant Riggs of the police department that in a robbery in Kansas City, in which he said he participated, he shot and killed the owner of a store where the hold-up took place.

After Gibbs and Thurston were held to answer, Dept. Dist.-Atty. Keyes and Deputy Kline held a conference and the Kansas City authorities were notified and asked to investigate the truth of Gibbs's statements. It was feared that Gibbs told the story knowing that he could not be convicted and that as soon as he left California he could not be brought back here for trial.

The two defendants were held for burglary on the 3rd inst. of the residences of C. B. Wiseman, 124 West Fifty-fifth street; G. C. Pierce, 435 East Fifty-seventh street, and William Michael, 414 East Fifty-seventh street. They are said to have been seen coming out of the latter house.

Too Many Suits for One Person Cause Arrest

Duke Bishop, aged 50 years, wore too many suits to suit Patrolman Dinty Moore and thereby found himself on the inside looking out yesterday afternoon.

"I counted eighteen different suits of clothes on him," Moore told the desk sergeant when he booked Bishop on suspicion of bunco.

Moore is stationed at the Southern Pacific station on the lookout for pickpockets and confidence men. He said he observed Bishop making hourly trips to the station every day for a week and each new appearance was made in different attire. When he counted up to eighteen he said he decided Bishop was a "quick-change artist" in matching coins with unsophisticated arrivals from the rural districts as well as in the matter of lightning shifts of garb.

COMBINE STARS

BERT LYTELL, BEBE DANIELS IN "THE EXCITERS"

By Grace Kingsley

Once more Bert Lytell is going to journey back to New York in the cause of art. As soon as he finishes "Rupert of Hentzau" for Selznick, he is going to travel East for Famous Players-Lasky.

The picture in which he will appear will be a version of Martin Brown's new crook and mystery play, "The Exciters," which has been having a run on Broadway. Bebe Daniels will have the star feminine role and Bert Lytell the male star part of the crook.

"Once a crook, always a crook," explained Lytell over the telephone last night. "This goes for roles as well as for real life. I've found it as hard to get away from crook parts and 'go straight' in mimic life as the real crook does in real life!"

Accompanying Lytell East will be his wife, known professionally as Evelyn Vaughn, who has just completed a stage engagement in San Francisco. Miss Vaughn will return to Los Angeles Sunday.

Violet Clark Steps Off

Violet Clark, scenario writer, made good her promise to marry Robert Freeman when, Monday, the pair were wed at the Church of the Angels. Mr. Freeman is a commercial artist. He got himself conveniently assigned to work in London, and the bride and groom will sail from New York December 21. They expect to be gone about three months.

Ora Carew Weds

Speaking of wedding bells they also rang yesterday for Ora Carew, who became Mrs. John Howard at 11:30 o'clock in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Howard were married at the home of Miss Carew on Winona avenue, by the Rev. James H. Lash.

The honeymoon will be spent in New York, and the bride and groom will leave for the East this morning. This is to be only part of the honeymoon trip, as the Howards expect to go to Europe next summer.

Miss Carew will not give up the screen. She is, in fact, to have her own company as soon as she returns from the East. It is reported that her husband, who is the son of a wealthy manufacturer of Haverhill, Mass., is to back her in this company.

Following the production of a number of pictures, Miss Carew and her husband will take the trip to Europe.

Hast Busy Man

Walter Hast, the English producer, whose first Los Angeles production "Suspicion," opened Monday night to good business at Egan's Little Theater, is now turning his attention to "Aphrodine." "Aphrodine" is a spectacular musical production, which is to be produced at Philharmonic Auditorium within a few weeks.

World's Champ Headlines New Pantages Bill

There is no room for doubt as to who is the headliner on this week's Pantages bill—not when you see the interest with which the letter "H" flashed on the announciators (which means Jack Dempsey to the majority of audiences) is received. The act is short, but sweet to the fight fans who are turning out for it. Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, appears on the stage giving a brief history of the art of boxing, and telling a few of the details of Dempsey's life, and then Jack puts on a three-round exhibition bout, and the show is over.

Other acts on the bill, however, are not to be sneezed at, either. Farrell and Hatch, "singing their own songs in their own way," are a pair of headliners in themselves. A couple of dusky boys who can sing and patter entertainingly, they nearly stop the show.

Willard Mack comes to the fore as an author again with "Who Is She?" a skit that uses a common matrimonial stumbling block as a theme. Joseph Barnard and Mary Ann Robbins appear to good advantage in it.

The Rigoletto brothers present a small show of their own in their act. They start with sleight-of-hand stuff, do a little juggling, try posing for a while and end up with a one-man, five-piece band that knocks 'em out of their seats.

Tuck and Clare in "Tunes and Twists" offer some contortion stunts that call for a lot of applause, and Hanson and the Burton sisters come out with a musical act.

On the screen Mae Marsh is appearing in "Till We Meet Again," a picture that takes up five reels getting the man and the girl together for the first time satisfactorily. The cast includes Norman Kerry, Martha Mansfield, Walter Miller and J. Barney Sherry. William Christy Cabanne is author and director.

"TESS" CELEBRATES FIRST "BIRTHDAY"

Mary Pickford's new "Tess," which is enjoying a long run at Miller's, celebrated its first birthday yesterday. It had been on view in Los Angeles exactly a month, having opened at the California November 12.

"We fully expect to establish a new record for extended runs in Los Angeles," said Fred Miller, managing director of both the California and Miller's, "for the new Tess shows Mary Pickford at her best and the film has a wider appeal than anything she has done in recent years. We are glad to advertise this feature as the crowning achievement of Mary's career."

Something unique in the way of theater decoration has been installed in the lobby at Miller's by Irvin J. Martin, art director for Miss Pickford. The display consists of an artistic arrangement of fish nets, oars and other fishermen's paraphernalia, set off by unusual and striking photographs of the star herself.

HERVEY AT WARNER'S

Warner Brothers have added Andrew Hervey to their Coast studio department, which is in charge of Clarke Irvine. Hervey was with Loew's State until leaving to go with the Warners, with whom he was associated some time ago.

Playcrafters Open Season With Benefit

Combining their first performance of the season with a benefit show for the milk fund of the Parent-Teachers' Association, the Playcrafters blossomed forth Monday night with three original one-act plays of more than usual merit, with dancing and musical numbers offered between them to fill out an excellent program.

It goes without saying that none of the plays was perfect, but each had something to recommend it, and each was fairly well acted and directed. Taken as a whole, the evening was well worth while.

"Heaven According to Doyle" was the title of a play by Sydney Sprague. After seeing the Washburns in their recent Orpheum skit which was along somewhat the same lines, the novelty of this was slightly worn. "Peter Shows His Pictures," by Tipton Lindsey Frasier, and "After the Wreck," by John D'Ormond, were the other two original plays.

Opening the program was a group of dances by children from the Reynolds School of Expression. Miss Margery O'Neill presented two monologues in a clever way. Calmon Lubovisky was heard in violin selections, and Mme. Ethel Virgin O'Neill in vocal selections. To top the bill Louise Fazenda appeared just before the crowd broke up to go home, and related some of her experiences in breaking into the pictures.

ORIENTAL MAKE-UP DEFIES DETECTION

Difficult as it is for the American actor to successfully makeup as a Chinaman, it is a still harder task for the man who must be photographed in scenes in which there are several real Chinamen with slant eyes, pig tails and the inscrutability of the real oriental.

Nevertheless, this difficult feat was accomplished with success by four actors appearing with Constance Talmadge in "East is West," which is in its second week at the Kinema.

To Warner Oland falls the finest part as Charlie Yong, the Americanized Chinaman who covets Ming Toy. E. A. Warner, Frank Lanning and Nick de Ruiz are three other players appearing as Chinamen in make-ups which defy detection. They are portraying the Chinamen of old China and look fully as oriental on the screen as the real Celestials appearing with them.

APPROPRIATE SCORE

One of his usual splendid scores has been arranged by Carli Elinor for the showing of "Broken Chains," at the California this week. The play of primitive passions as depicted on the screen is intensified by the introduction in the musical setting of "Il Guarny," Overture "Finlandia" and the "Fourth Hungarian Rhapsody." The dilemma of the wife is adequately brought out by a "Sad Theme" by Victor Schirtzinger and Kreisler's "Old Refrain" serves as a love theme.

PLAYDOM

"FAUST" PROGRESSES

WORK ON EARLE PRODUCTION IS TO CONTINUE

By Edwin Schallert

While he has been engaged to assist at that important event, the return of Theda Bara in pictures, by directing her picture, "The East-est Way," Ferdinand Pinney Earle, it seems, is not to relinquish his plans for independent production. Preparations for his second picture, "Faust," are proceeding apace. This follows "The Rubaiyat," which, owing to legal and other entanglements has not yet been released.

In charge of the preliminaries for "Faust" is Paul Detlefsen, Mr. Earle's art assistant. He is later to supervise a separate Earle unit here, but meanwhile is busy on the screen version of the famous legendary story which was used as a theme by Goethe.

It appears that Earle's scenario for "Faust" goes into minutest details of action, costume and decoration. He has conducted an exhaustive research into the original sources of several continental literatures for his material. The legend, it is predicted, will show in its screen form a treatment that is altogether individual.

Lois in "Bella Donna"

The latest player to be added to the cast of "Bella Donna" is Lois Wilson. She will play the only other feminine role in the story aside from the title role, and incidentally the only character added to the Robert Hichens story as it has been adapted to the screen by Ouida Bergere.

Seeks Real Atmosphere

In order to secure accurate atmosphere, Eric Von Stroheim is going north to write the screen version of Frank Norris's "McTeague," his first picture for Goldwyn. He will also film the picture in the northern city and in Death Valley, in the exact spots described by the author.

Last night Von Stroheim gave a dinner at the Ambassador Hotel to celebrate his new contract. The guests included F. J. Godsol, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Lehr, Edward Bowes, June Mathis, Claire Windsor, Dorothy Dalton, Agnes Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Ballin, Corinne Griffith, Barbara La Marr, Marguerite Clayton, Kathryn McGuire, Helen Lynch, Aileen Pringle, Dorothy Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Edington, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. McIntyre, Cedrick Gibbons, Paul Bern, Carey Wilson, Joseph Jackson, J. J. Cohn, Sam Katz, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Traxler.

Erlanger Leaves

Without reaching a decision as to who will direct "Ben Hur" or who the principal players will be, A. L. Erlanger left town yesterday for the East. He held several important consultations with Mr. Godsol, Mr. Lehr and Miss Mathis regarding the production, and it is rumored will, upon his return to the East, determine the matter of the directorship definitely.

ROBERTS'S BAIL HARD TO LAND

Reputed Author of Sinful Book is Elusive

Women Sign $5000 Bond for Defendant

Three Attorneys Have Had Case to Date

Edward Roberts, the reputed author of "The Sins of Hollywood," secretly indicted last Friday for sending the book in interstate commerce in violation of law, by the Federal grand jury, last evening gave bond for $5000 for his appearance in open court to plead to the charge.

When the indictment was returned Friday evening, Roberts, through his first attorney, was given by the United States attorney, as a matter of accommodation, until Saturday noon to make bond. Later on, his second attorney said Roberts was out of town, and he could not report with his bond until Monday at 10 a.m. As a result the warrant was withheld at the office of the United States Marshall.

Monday morning came, but no Roberts. Meanwhile a third attorney had been secured, and he promised to have Roberts before Commissioner Long during the day. The warrant for his arrest still remained unserved, but Roberts did not show up Monday. Yesterday, Richard Kittrelle, the third and last attorney on the job, promised to have Roberts and his bond ready by noon.

About 10 a.m. Mrs. Hazel C. Barneson, who gave her address as 511 South Ardmore street, and Mrs. Katie Stieler, 918 Wall street, agreed to go the bond. Mrs. Barneson signed her name to the instrument after qualifying, but it now appears that Mrs. Stieler had an engagement to attend the wedding of a friend, and after swearing that she was worth $5000 over and above her debts left the courtroom without signing the bond. Her signature was necessary, and after she returned from the ceremony she called up Commissioner Long and told him that she had signed the bond that had been brought to her house by the attorney, and that she confirmed all things necessary to qualify her as bondsman.

This bond was finally perfected, so far as the women were concerned, but Roberts was not on hand. His signature as principal was necessary to make it legal. He was finally rounded up and appended his signature to the instrument.

OVERLAND TOURIST BURNS UNDER CAR

MAN SAID TO BE FROM LOS ANGELES MEETS DEATH IN MISSOURI

Jobe Welker, an automobile tourist en route from Los Angeles to an Illinois city, was burned to death under his car near Osborne, Mo., according to dispatches reaching here last night from St. Joseph, Mo. While working beneath his car he became covered with gasoline which became ignited by the match he lighted to find the leak in the feed line. No record of the dead man's residence here could be found.

MUSICIANS UNITED TO HELP POOR

Foremost Artists Will be on Festival Program Next Saturday Afternoon

That the heart of every needy youngster of Los Angeles may be gladdened on Christmas Day, the foremost artists of the city will appear on a benefit program at the Philharmonic Auditorium at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, fostered by the Music Trades Association of Southern California. It is expected that through this Christmas music festival sufficient funds will be raised to give a substantial donation to those institutions of the city that are sheltering the kiddies who are starting life in the face of misfortune.

The services of the artists who will appear on the program are being donated and the theater will not cost the association a cent. A. G. Farquharson, secretary of the organization said last night that every dollar taken in would go to the children, and that any expenses incurred would be borne by the association.

The effort being made by the music men to help make this a happier Christmas for the little one has attracted the prominent citizens of the city, many of whom have offered their services to make the festvial a huge success. From among these a committee has been named to distribute the funds taken in next Saturday afternoon. Heading the committee is F. W. Blanchard. He will be assisted by J. F. Sartori, Mayor Cryer, Mrs. J. J. Carter, L. E. Behymer, W. A. Clark Jr., Harry Haldeman, Harry Chandler and Merle Armitage.

"Brother Tom" Will Discuss Slum Activity

"Brother Tom" Liddecoat, known to the hungry and homeless from coast to coast through the kindly services of his Midnight Mission, 121 South Los Angeles street, will speak on "Salvaging Human Wrecks in Hell's Half-Acre," tomorrow at 6 p.m., before the employes of Barker Brothers, who will give a dinner at the Alexandria.

"I'm feeding a bread line of 500 unfortunates every day since the rains started," said Brother Tom, "as well as attending to the good of their souls. Christmas is coming on and I am working hard to make a success of the annual dinner. Hoboes, outcasts, unemployed—I hope to have funds enough to fill their stomachs with food and their hearts with hope on December 25."

Brother Tom said he served 2150 last Christmas. On Thanksgiving Day he dished out provender and gospel to 1154 homeless guests.

SIMON OUT UNDER BOND

Oscar A. Simon, one of the four men indicted in the asserted plot to flood the country with counterfeit Bank of England notes, has been released from custody under $5000 bail, it was learned yesterday. Among the others indicted in the case was John Drascovitz Orloff, an asserted Russian count.

BRIDE OF DAY SUES HUSBAND

Girl Wife Charges Blows, Abuse; Says Barn Was to be Bridal Chamber

Mrs. Sarah Payjak, aged 17, bride of a day, was beaten instead of kissed and choked in lieu of being hugged, ordered to sleep in a barn when she had visions of a cozy little home and threatened with death when she thought she was safely started on a life of happiness, she charged in a divorce complaint filed yesterday against John K. Payjak.

They were married on the 7th inst. at Santa Ana and returned to Los Angeles to take dinner at her sister's home, she said. When the bridal repast had been disposed of Payjak announced that they would remain for the night. He was informed that there were no accommodations.

Undisturbed by this lack he informed his bride that they would sleep in the barn, according to the complaint. When she objected he became angry and beat her with a pillow, she asserted, whereupon she started for her mother's home accompanied by two acquaintances.

Payjak overtook them.

"I'll get her! I'll kill her! She's my wife!" he is asserted to have shouted, and is said to have followed up the threat by choking her into unconsciousness.

The kissless girl wife said she awakened at her mother's home, and that the next day Payjak called to ask for the rings he had given her. She returned them and she has not seen him since, she says.

FINN SAILOR SUSPECTED OF MURDER

Police Hunt "Big Pete," Believed to be Connected With Harbor Slaying

The police search for "Big Pete," former partner of Henry "Rock Cod" Day, who was slain Monday aboard his fishing boat at Los Angeles Harbor, continued yesterday in the belief that his disappearance is connected with the waterfront tragedy.

Known by no other name, "Big Pete" is a Finn who had worked with Day for the past several months. He is known to have recently signed for a cruise to Mexico on the vessel Bega, which sails today. Scheduled to report aboard the Bega yesterday morning, he failed to appear. He has not been seen since the morning of the shooting.

Day is said by the police to have been a former Klondike gold miner and to have made considerable money there. He was the owner of property in New York City, where he is believed to have relatives. Harbor authorities have communicated with the police of New York to aid in a search for his kin.

He was killed by a shot from a twelve-gauge shotgun, which was found near the scene of the murder. The body was discovered Monday afternoon by M. O'Brien, a fisherman whose boat was moored near the Reliance, the fishing vessel owned by Day.

The Prof. was showing a young woman the heavens through his telescope. He directed her gaze to a bright planet, which he told her was Venus.

In Memoriam

John Wanamaker
—The Man

Merchant, citizen, statesman, philanthropist ---the man in all things made him the genius in each of these.

We called him ours---a fellow merchant. And now, with guiding hand stilled, it is meet that we should pause and contemplate on the ideals and the great "heart of him" that was ever the impulse of his work.

A nation mourns his loss---but the institutions he has left live on---an inspiration to those of us who are left to carry on and a memorial to a great merchant and a greater man.
